

Synopsis: Sakar Murli October 30, 2014

1. The Father , the Bestower of Salvation for All, who makes the whole world turn around, that is, the One who rejuvenates the world, that is, the One who changes hell into heaven, is teaching us for the land of immortality.
2. The Father says: I am now making you into the masters of the world. You have to become full of all virtues. You must not get angry with anyone. You have to follow shrimat. Everyone has to study and become pure. You have to promise the Father that you will never perform any impure actions.
3. The Father doesn't have any books in His hand; He only explains orally. The first thing that the Father explains is: Have the faith that you are a soul. A soul is a child of God, the Father. The Supreme Father, the Supreme Soul, resides in the supreme abode. We souls also reside there. Then, we continue to come down here, numberwise, to play our parts. This is a big, unlimited stage. Actors come on to this stage to play their parts first of all in Bharat, in the new world.
4. It is the soul that calls out: O Purifier, come and make us pure! The Father uplifts you children very strongly. Baba is enabling you to conquer Ravan and making you into Lakshmi and Narayan. You remember the Father and your sins are cut away. The Father says: If you perform any wrong actions, everything you have earned would be lost.
5. Knowledge, devotion and disinterest (gyan, bhakti vairaagya)...The Father explains: knowledge and devotion are two separate things. Knowledge is the day, devotion is the night and after that there is disinterest. At night, you are sitting in exile, and then, during the day, you become very wealthy.

Slogan: To the extent that you have Godly intoxication (nasha) in your intellect, let there be just as much humility (namrata) in your actions.

Points to churn from the slogan:

We, the souls, are the direct children of the Father with imperishable and elevated fortunes, who change the lines of fortune, follow the Father in every thought word and deed...our every thought is filled with service for world benefit, our every word is constructive, filled with humility and greatness...

By constantly remaining combined with the Father, and saying “My Baba” with love, we, attain all Godly rights...by being filled with all attainments by the unlimited Bestower, we claim a right to all the three worlds, receive a guarantee card for 21 births, remain in alokik intoxication and happiness and sing the song, “we have attained what we wanted to attain, now there is nothing left to attain”

We are seated on Bapdada's heart throne with faith and intoxication and are to be seated on the throne of the kingdom in many future births... we are brave, fearless and carefree, and safe in the canopy of protection from the attacks of Maya...

We are instruments, who maintain a balance between greatness and humility...by becoming full ourselves, we constantly have unlimited vision, and with unlimited intoxication for unlimited service, we claim an unlimited kingdom...we constantly remain cheerful and make others happy...we are the embodiments of success...by keeping the Father and service constantly in our awareness, we become powerful...by keeping our sanskars under our control, by finishing the complaints of others, and with spiritual intoxication, we become the co-operative souls who belong to the World Benefactor Father...
