

Synopsis: Sakar Murli October 23, 2014

1. Shiv Baba says: I am the most obedient Servant. I am the Servant who salutes even you children. It isn't that He calls Himself the Servant and is then bossy. The Father remains egoless.
2. The Father says: I alone am the Purifier. By remembering Me, your sins of many births will be burnt away in this fire of yoga. There also has to be the power of yoga in the sword of knowledge. Otherwise, the sword is of no use. If you have yoga, your writing would then have power. Prove it very clearly that the God of the Gita is Shiva and not Shri Krishna.
3. He is the great Master. He explains with a lot of love. Whatever actions I perform, others who see me will do the same. Baba knows that the elephant riders, the horse riders and the foot soldiers are all numberwise. (maharathi, ghode savaar, pyaade).
4. The mercy that the Father has is to give you children directions for your own benefit. The Father is benevolent. Baba feels that those who are body conscious are arrogant whereas those who are soul conscious remain very quiet; they never have wrong thoughts.
5. The Father says: You have to become very sweet. Become true students. Become a genie and connect your intellect's yoga up above. I am giving you a direction: Stay in remembrance and your boat will go across. You definitely have to become satopradhan. Internally, continue to praise the Father and continue to remember Him. Eat, drink and remember the Father and your final thoughts will lead you to your destination. Everyone has to die.
6. There is the custom and system of offering bhog etc., but that doesn't really have anything in it. There are many obstacles of Maya in that. That is neither knowledge nor yoga. You should never have any desire for visions.

Slogan: Let there constantly be an unlimited attitude, vision and stage (vritti, drishti aur sthiti) and the task of world benefit (vishv kalyaan) will then be accomplished.

Points to churn from the slogan:

We, the souls, with the royalty and reality of purity, constantly dance in happiness...with truthful attitude, vision, words and activities, we are constantly cheerful in our hearts and features, eternally happy-hearted and happy-faced... with the power of purity, we the souls, can transform the vision, attitude and actions of any soul...with the purity in our thoughts, we can discern and transform the impure thoughts of any soul...we are the lights of the world, full of peace and happiness...

By not having any trace of vice and their progeny in our thoughts and dreams, we become completely vice less... ..we have colour by constantly being coloured by the constant company of the Father, that is, being constant companions...we have the fragrance of spiritual vision and spiritual attitude... we are the most elevated human beings following the highest code of conduct whose consciousness, attitude and vision, whose every thought, every second, every step are constantly according to the codes of conduct, from amritvela to the time of going to sleep at night...

We constantly maintain an elevated awareness, an elevated attitude, elevated vision, are part of an elevated family, and so attain an elevated place and become the highest decoration in the crown, which is a symbol of greatness, the symbol of being a master, the symbol of having all attainments and of having all rights...we are the jewels of the forehead, jewels of the crown, the first number jewels, the first number decorations, having good wishes for all... like the sun lighting up the whole world with its rays, we, the master suns of knowledge, give rays of all our powers to the whole world...we are world benefactors who constantly remain busy in this task in this Brahmin birth...we are the destroyers of obstacles, making ourselves and others free of obstacles...
