

Synopsis: Sakar Murli October 11, 2014

1. The Father comes every cycle and gives you the knowledge of the kalpa tree because He Himself is the Seed, the Truth and the Sentient Being.
2. The Father is always the Ocean of Peace and Happiness. You receive happiness and peace from the one Father. There is the land of happiness, the land of peace and this then is the land of sorrow. Remember the land of happiness and continue to forget this land of sorrow. Let there be disinterest in this.
3. Peace is also called liberation. Then, there is liberation-in-life and also bondage-in-life. From being in bondage-in-life you are now becoming liberated-in-life. Liberation is the land of peace and salvation is the land of happiness.
4. In the golden age, you receive a very first-class throne, which is called the golden-aged throne. Then, that soul receives silver, copper and then iron-aged thrones. So, if you want a golden-aged throne, you definitely do have to become pure.
5. Renounce the land of sorrow. This is called unlimited renunciation. Sanyasis who leave their homes and families and go to the forests have limited renunciation. They do not know that the whole world is a forest. This is the forest of thorns. This is the world of thorns and that is the world of flowers. That is also called a family ashram.

Blessing: May you be a sensible soul (samajhdaar atma) who bids farewell to any waves of carelessness (albelaapan) and who constantly maintains zeal and enthusiasm (umang aur utsaah).

When some children look at others, they then become careless themselves. They think: This happens all the time, it is fine. Is it sensible if you see someone stumble you also begin to stumble out of carelessness? BapDada feels mercy for those who remain careless in this way, because the moments of repentance (pashchaataap) will be very difficult for them. Therefore, be sensible and bid farewell with your mind to any waves of carelessness and waves of looking at others. Do not look at others, but just see the Father.

Today, from the blessing we can also infer:

Follow the Father, not others. Others have not reached their stage of perfection. Your goal is to become complete and perfect, and that will certainly not happen by following imperfection. Zeal and enthusiasm are the breath of Brahmin life. Do not get discouraged. Keep your spirits high. Follow shrimat, not manmat or parmat.

To attain your perfect stage, renounce the childish games of carelessness and weakness and become strong by wearing the armour of tolerance to protect yourself from all obstacles. By constantly having zeal, enthusiasm and happiness, become victorious over obstacles.

Check yourself with an honest heart with accurate glasses for self progress and see only the Father and yourself. By having the only concern of having to change the self, become examples for others and remain free from carelessness.

Whether the Father is faraway or close, remember only the one Father. Make effort to burn your sins in the fire of yoga, earn a huge income and a very high status. By considering yourself to be a soul, and by remembering the Father every day, day and night, you become the sensible children who have visions through the intellect of knowledge (gyan buddhi).

Slogan: Prepare heir-quality souls (vaaris) and the drums of revelation (pratyakshta ka nagaada) will beat.

Points to churn from the slogan:

Like the Father, we, the souls, are tireless servers...with broad and unlimited intellects, we make plans for unlimited service, create mikes and heir quality souls and make them instruments for service... we make the form of service vast and unlimited by serving many others through our thoughts...with our power of discernment, we emerge souls for spiritual service, well-known for their qualities and activities...with this fast speed of service, we enable many to be shot by one arrow...we are the serviceable and the worthy children who give proof of the broad and unlimited service, claiming a right to a royal status...

We are the Shravan kumars and kumaris who sit on the pyre of knowledge, make friends and relatives sit on the scales of knowledge and uplift them..we are the spiritual Brahmins who break and make others break the bracelet of the pyre of lust, and thereby create heirs, mikes and subjects... we fill ourselves with the sanskars of ruling with an intense speed of effort by having knowledge of body, mind, wealth and people...with the power of yoga we make preparations before the drums of completion start to beat...

We are powerful world benefactors making the atmosphere powerful with spiritual (atmic) bombs...we spread the vibrations from the bhatti (oven) of the fire of love in all four directions and attract many souls... with unlimited disinterest we leave an impact on the ground of their practical lives and easily have an expansion of the subjects... we glorify the name of the Father...we are the sweet long lost and now found children of the Brahmin clan, who give the Father's accurate communication, message, instruction, introduction, identification through advertisements in newspapers and magazines, distributing flyers, giving radio and TV programs, posting over the internet, sending e-mails, spreading the sound and bringing about the revelation of the Father...
