

Synopsis: Sakar Murli October 13, 2014

1. The Father is the Resident of a land very far away. He comes and gives you children shrimat. It is by following shrimat that you will become elevated deities.
2. You say: O Purifier Baba, come into this impure old world of Ravan! We are trapped in it up to our necks. No one, except the Father, can remove us from it. Therefore, the Father has come. He is such an Obedient Servant of yours.
3. The Father says: I am bound to remove everyone from this bog. This bog is called the extreme depths of hell.
4. The Father says: I am the Lord of the Poor (Gareeb Niwaaz). There is only the one Father who is ever pure and He comes to make us pure. He makes the whole world satopradhan.
5. The new world is being established and the old world is to be destroyed. You are the ones who are constructing the new world of heaven. You are very good craftsmen. You are constructing heaven for yourselves. You are creating your heaven in an incognito way.
6. The Satguru takes you from the old world to the new world. The main thing the Father says is: Remember Me and the land of happiness.
7. No one, except the One, can give you this knowledge. There is salvation through knowledge. The Father alone is the Bestower of Salvation (Sadgati Data). No one can call Shiva Baba Shri, Shri. He does not need a title. They just praise His greatness.
8. When the path of devotion starts, there is only the worship of One. That is called unadulterated devotion. You were satopradhan, but, at this time, you are tamopradhan. Devotion also becomes adulterated and they continue to remember many. They even worship tamopradhan bodies made of the five elements. Therefore, they are worshipping the tamopradhan evil spirits.

Slogan: In order to go to the sun dynasty, become yogis, not warriors (yodhhe).

Points to churn from the slogan:

We, the souls, with purity as our original religion, are free from the fluctuations of the dharna of purity even in our dreams...we are beyond the desire of name, fame & honour...by being the children of the Almighty Father, we become master almighty authorities...by finishing our weak nature and sanskars, we become pure & holy, incorporeal, vice less & egoless, free from anger, free from attachment & free from greed... instead of being warriors (yoddha) we make others worthy (yogya)... by closing all the gates of Maya, we become the true yogis, the constant yogis, the simple yogis, the easy yogis, the natural yogis with a constant stage... we are yogis who experiment (prayogi), bring greater glorification through less expense and receive attainments (prapti) by making progress (pragati)...

By becoming complete in the power to pack up and the power to face, we are able to fulfill our promise: "Having one strength and one support, constantly eating with You, sitting with You, speaking to You and listening to You"...by being ever-ready, we fulfill the promise "Wherever you place me, whichever form you place me in and for and for however long you keep me there, that I will do"...by being our own judges, we become victorious instead of warriors...

We are the spiritual warriors of the incognito army, blowing the conch with the explosives and the bombs of knowledge, winning over the enemy Maya, and receiving sovereignty for 21 births... by remembering and having the spiritual intoxication that we came bodiless, claimed our self-sovereignty, listened to the knowledge of the Gita, the jewel of all scriptures from the Father, we become the embodiments of awareness... we are the strong, powerful wrestlers who are victorious in the wrestling match over the Rustam (powerful warrior) Maya..we are the Godly children who do service and attain a high status...we are the Shiv Shaktis...the social workers..."I belong to the One Father and none other"...by staying in remembrance, by following the shrimat of Shri Shri 108, we become the beads of the rosary of victory of 108...
