

Synopsis: Sakar Murli November 14, 2014

1. It has been said that there is no nourishment like the nourishment of happiness. The Father, the Ocean of Knowledge, is giving you such elevated knowledge! You are winning the lottery of the eternal jewels of knowledge and so you should remain very happy! This birth of yours has been remembered as being as valuable as a diamond. Only the Father, not the deities, is called knowledge-full. You Brahmins are also knowledge-full. Therefore, you have the happiness of knowledge.
2. The Father is called the Ocean of Peace. Imbibe the virtue of peace. Remain very sweet and speak to each other peacefully. To be peaceless is also a defect. Through peace, you will be able to have remembrance. Just by speaking a little, you can get any task done. Those who are sensible and wise prefer to stay in silence.
3. You have to pick up virtues from everyone and become virtuous. There is no one as virtuous as the deities. Lust is the greatest enemy. The Father says: By conquering lust you will become the masters of the world. You have to conquer the sense organs and renounce defects. You must neither see any defects nor speak about them. Only stay with those who have virtues. Swans continue to pick up pearls all day long. As you walk and move around, you should continue to churn this knowledge.
4. The Father says: Remember Me so that your sins are cut away. In order to claim your inheritance of liberation and liberation in life, you definitely have to become a pure soul.
5. The army is one of Shaktis. It has been remembered: "Salutations to the mothers" (vande maatram). Together with that, salutations are also given to the Father (vande pitram) anyway. However, the name of the mothers is mentioned. It is Lakshmi first and then Narayan. It is Sita first and then Rama. It is Radhe first and then Krishna.

Blessing: May you be free from all attractions (aakarshan mukt) and remain constantly merged in the love of One by making the one Father your Support.

Those children who remain merged in the one Father's love are full of all attainments and they remain content. They are not attracted by any type of supports; they easily experience belonging to the one Father and none other. The one Father is their world and they experience the sweetness of all relationships with the one Father. For them, the basis of all attainments is the one Father and not physical comforts or facilities and this is why they easily remain free from attractions.

Points to churn from the blessing:

I belong to the One Father and none other...say Mera Baba with all your love and all your heart...we, the souls, are free from the consciousness of the body, free from the attractions of its connections and relationships, material possessions, material comfort, facilities and wealth...we are the loving and co-operative children who fill our hearts fully and imbibe the number one love of Baba's heart, God's powers, God's love and Godly knowledge...

We, the soul conscious souls, break all other relationships, and forge and fulfill all relationships with the One Father... with Bapdada, in the relationship of a Teacher, we become the embodiments of knowledge, in the relationship of a Mother, we become the embodiments of peace, in the relationship of a Bridegroom (sajan), we become the embodiments of love, in the relationship of a Companion, we become the embodiments of happiness, in the relationship of a Satguru, we become the embodiments of purity, in the relationship of a Father, we become the embodiments of all powers, and in the relationship of a Child, we become the embodiments of bliss...by making the Father our child, we remain ever-happy for 21 births...by making the Father our heir, we get inheritance...by making the Father our brother or our friend, we get a playmate...by making the Father our mother, we get sustenance...
