

Synopsis: Sakar Murli November 03, 2014

1. The Father Himself comes and gives us His introduction. He Himself says: I am the Sentient Being, the Truth and the Immortal One. I come to purify the impure.
2. The Father is your Father, Teacher and Guru who shows you a very good way to become satopradhan. The task of the Satguru is to draw human beings away from the household and take them into the stage of retirement. He is the Seed of the human world tree. He is the One who explains the knowledge of the whole tree. Shiv Baba's name is always Shiva.
3. Give the Father's introduction to all souls make the lesson of Alpha firm for them. First of all, explain that that One is the Father of all souls and that all souls are brothers. Instill in them the faith that we are all souls and not the Supreme Soul and that the Supreme Soul is not present (vyaapak) in us. There is a soul present in each body. Souls play their separate parts by taking the support of bodies. All sanskars are within the soul. Souls carry the sanskars of their past good and sinful actions with them. Explain the deep philosophy of karma, sinful karma and neutral karma to them. (karm, akarm, vikarm ki guhya gati).
4. It wasn't Krishna who spoke the Gita. Shri Krishna is the first number and the resident of the golden age. He is a deity, a prince of heaven. He is the master of the new world and then he comes down whilst passing through the sun dynasty, the moon dynasty and then the dynasties of merchants and shudras. Then, he becomes part of the dynasty of Brahma.
5. It is written in the Gita: Renounce the consciousness of the body and all the religions of the body and consider yourself to be a soul. You definitely have to return to your home. The words in the Gita are accurate; the Gita is the jewel of all scriptures.
