

Synopsis: Sakar Murli December 04, 2014

1. The Gita is the jewel of all the scriptures, but you receive your inheritance by studying this true Gita. The Father of the Gita, who is the Creator, is the One who gives you your inheritance. You do not receive it from the scripture, the Gita.
2. This is Raja Yoga, not praja yoga (yoga to become subjects). Your life is a student life. You laugh, play and dance the dance of knowledge here and then you go and become princes and princesses. You also have to create subjects so that you yourself can become a king.
3. Everyone must become like Rup and Basant (embodiment of yoga who showers jewels of knowledge). Baba has taught you souls knowledge, so you then also have to shower this knowledge on others. You true Brahmins have to speak the true Gita. You receive a daily glass of nectar. Day by day, you receive such points to imbibe that the locks on your intellects continue to open. Therefore, under all circumstances, you have to listen to or read a murli.
4. When you continue to practice having remembrance you will remain constantly cheerful and bloom like a flower. It is because you flowers forget to have remembrance that you wilt. The more happiness you receive, the more happiness you will give to others. When children have courage, the Father helps. Some souls may change from thorns into buds but it is only when they become Baba's children that they become flowers.
5. Fortunate (bakhtaavar) souls are those who recognize the Father and accept Him. When you come into the Father's lap, the sickness of body consciousness, anger and lust will erupt with even greater force. Baba understands that when you say "Mama and Baba" you have become the Father's children and that it is firm in your hearts that this is your spiritual Father. Become faithful, obedient (vafaadaar farmaanbardaar), follow shrimat, and thereby claim an elevated status.
6. Only the Father can give you a certificate. You may be able to hide matters from this one, but you cannot hide them from Shiv Baba.

Slogan: Those who inculcate the treasures of knowledge into themselves and perform every action at every moment with understanding are knowledgeable souls (gyaani tu atma).

Points to churn from the slogan:

An intellect with faith is victorious and an intellect with doubts gets destroyed...Shiv Baba is the God of the Gita who gives us true knowledge and makes us trilakdarshi... He grants us salvation, the fruit of devotion, and makes us the masters of the world... by having full faith in Shiv Baba, we, the souls, become carefree, knowledgeable souls with faith in the intellect...

We, the knowledgeable souls, are raazyukt, योग्य, युक्तियुक्त and शक्तियुक्त... (knowers of the secrets of the drama, having accurate yoga, using the right tactic at the right time, using the right power at the right time)....with keenness, zeal and enthusiasm in our thoughts, speech and actions, we become complete, perfect, and युक्तियुक्त in the field of action... by accumulating marks in the practical papers in all four subjects, by attaining success and revelation, we pass with honours in the final exam...we are the raazyukt shiv shakti pandav army who pay attention to all the powers within ourselves... by being शक्तियुक्त, we become free from the influences of tensions in the atmosphere on all four sides and have a life that is free from the pull of tensions...

By remembering the Comforter of Hearts with a lot of love, we are with the Father, close to the Father, personally in front of the Father, equal to the Father, and safe under His canopy...we are the knowledgeable and yogi souls, the karanhar (the ones who do) children, combined with the Karanhar (the One who inspires) Father, who experience His constant company... we are free from anger, free from attachment, free from greed and purify the elements through our purity...

We are ignorant of the knowledge of desire...we are master bestowers and knowledgeable souls who are wise, with no desire for any name, fame or honor... we are master oceans of love and master oceans of knowledge who remain constantly light, the same as the Father, and who use our might to liberate the world from the weakness of sorrow and peacelessness for all time...
