

Synopsis: Sakar Murli January 09, 2015

1. The Father is the Liberator and the Guide. He liberates everyone from sorrow. The Father has come as the Guide to purify everyone and then take everyone back home. The golden age is also called the Garden of Allah, whereas this age is called a forest. This is why the Father says: It is when defamation of religion reaches its extremity that I come.
2. The Father says: I come in the early morning hours. People abroad have an accurate system of a.m. and p.m. Their intellects are still good. Neither do they become completely satopradhan nor do they become completely tamopradhan. Only the people of Bharat become 100% satopradhan and then 100% tamopradhan. The Father is very accurate. One minute past twelve is the morning.
3. The unlimited Father has now issued this ordinance: Children, become conquerors of lust and thereby conquerors of the world. If you do not become pure, you will be led to destruction. By becoming pure, you claim an imperishable status. You are studying Raja Yoga. It is accurate to write: Be holy and a Raj Yogi. Each home should be a Gita pathshala because you are all the Ganges of knowledge. In every home, people study the Gita.
4. Brahmaris (buzzing moths) are said to be those who set up a home (gharetri); they make a home. You Brahminis are also buzzing moths. You can set up a marquee etc. sit inside it and buzz knowledge to others. Then, some would understand this and change from ants into Brahmins.
5. Just as at Diwali people open their shops, in the same way, you have to open a shop of the imperishable jewels of knowledge. The festival of Shiv Jayanti is, in fact, your true Deepawali (festival of lights). When Shiva, the Father, comes, there is light in every home. You must light very many lamps on this festival and celebrate it with great splendour. You celebrate the true Deepawali. The final celebration will be at the beginning of the golden age when there will be a lamp in every home, that is, the lamp of every soul will be alight.

Slogan: If your intellect or stage is weak, the reason for that is waste thoughts.(vyarth sankalp)

Points to churn from the slogan:

We, the souls, stabilize ourselves in the powerful stage of a point form, and consider the past to be past...we have elevated actions, are beyond waste thoughts and thus make the speed of effort intense...we keep the powerful eye open, that is, remain stable in the stage of a detached observer...we are detached like a lotus flower...we have an attitude and vision of mercy for every soul and are not influenced by the atmosphere of anyone's weaknesses or defects...

While coming into relationships and connections, we never create and sustain questions that waste time and energy...by having a birth control of the queue of questions, we remain beyond all questions and keep constantly happy hearted...

By controlling our words, we save time and energy...we observe silence in the mind of wasteful thoughts and silence of the mouth of wasteful words...we experience ourselves to be an image of true tapasya sitting in the cottage of the forehead, experiencing the alokik sweetness of introversion...

While walking and moving around, we experience ourselves in the angelic form, become angels in a practical way and give visions ....we emerge in the corporeal world and then merge, perform our duty and then disappear...we do not keep our feet in the old world of our body and bodily relations, and close all gates to all attractions and attachments ...we are here but not here...by being beyond the awareness of the corporeal world we do not waste time over trivial matters, which enables us to take a high jump.... by having every thought and taking every step that is the highest and the most elevated and alokik, and by being beyond waste, we become the highest of humans...
