

Synopsis: Sakar Murli January 31, 2015

1. The Father is the highest Authority and then Brahma, the Father of Humanity, is also the highest authority. Everyone receives liberation and liberation-in-life (mukti, jeewan-mukti) from the Father. No one, other than the one Satguru, can grant salvation to all. There are many gurus who can teach you devotion. No human guru can grant salvation.
2. Always consider it to be Shiv Baba giving directions through this one. Have the faith that by following God's directions your boat can go across. If you consider these directions to come from a human being, and not from God, you become confused. The Father says: Follow My directions and I am then responsible for you. I am responsible for whatever activity is performed through this one. I will make it right. Those whose remembrance is accurate are the ones who follow My directions. If you understand at every step that these are God's directions and you follow them, you can never experience a loss. There is victory in having faith.
3. Those who remember the Father are the loveliest. When you don't have remembrance, it is then that you perform wrong actions. You should stay in remembrance of the Father with happiness and in full bloom (khushi men prafullit). The Father says: Whilst walking and moving around, you should continue to remember the Father. There is no reason to have specially conducted meditation (neshttha). Baba always says: Stay in remembrance! Whilst sitting in yoga, some children go into trance (dhyaan). They are unable to remember knowledge or have yoga and they start dozing off.
4. The Father, the Gardener (Baagvaan), is now planting a garden of flowers. He continues to change you thorns into flowers. This is His task. At present, this is a jungle of thorns; it is not a garden. By causing sorrow for one another you become thorns. Good and virtuous children are those who do the good service of changing thorns into flowers. They do not prick anyone like thorns do, that is, they do not cause sorrow for anyone. They never fight amongst themselves.

Blessing: May you be a world benefactor (vishv kalyaankaari) who keeps the seed of thought filled with the good wishes of benevolence.

Just as the essence of a whole tree is in the seed, similarly, the seed of thought should be filled with good wishes for every soul and for nature. Every thought should be filled with the sweet essence of the intention of making everyone equal to the Father, of making weak ones strong (nirbal balwaan), of making unhappy and peaceless souls constantly happy and peaceful. No seed of thought should be empty of this essence, that is, it should not go to waste. When you are powerful with the intention of benevolence, you will be said to be a world benefactor soul, the same as the Father.

Points to churn from the blessing:

To give is to receive...we, the souls, ignorant of the knowledge of desire, fulfill the desires of others and make ourselves complete...we have benevolent feelings for the self and for the world simultaneously at every second and in every thought, and receive fruit for our service in the form of instant fruit ...by performing double tasks at the same time and making the last so fast effort, we become those who wear double crowns...we are children in whom there is hope, who transform the self and the world, who constantly maintain good wishes for world benefit like BapDada, and fulfill the responsibility of love with our companions all the time...we are the most elevated souls, the world servers and world benefactors, who use time and thoughts for world service...

Like the sun lighting up the whole world with its rays, we, the souls, the master suns of knowledge, give rays of all our powers to the whole world...we are world benefactors who constantly remain busy in this task in this Brahmin birth...we are the destroyers of obstacles, making ourselves and others free of obstacles...we stabilize ourselves on the pilgrimage of remembrance, have benevolent thoughts and feelings for all, and remain busy in the service of self and of others every second... with the attainment of blessings from the hearts of all souls, we transform ourselves and transform the world...
