

The Call Of Time

Do you constantly remain stable in a powerful stage by constantly considering yourself to be the direct Godly child of the Highest-on-High Father? Just as the Father is always powerful, have you also become constantly powerful? At present, since you are ever-ready in advance, according to the challenge of time, the account of waste should only be in namesake according to the time. Just as there is the saying, "A pinch of salt in a sackful of flour", so the account of the powerful should be 99 per cent. Only then will you have a right to the 100 per cent satopradhan kingdom of the future new world. At present, the future kingdom, the kingdom of all of you, is invoking all of you. Which ones are being invoked? Those who are complete with all virtues and sixteen celestial degrees complete. Create your chart of the present time: to what extent is there something powerful and to what extent is there something wasteful? Keep a chart of your thoughts and time. Throughout the timetable of each day, which account was greater? If, even now, the account of waste is 50 to 60 per cent, then to what period of the kingdom would you claim a right? Would you claim a right to the first kingdom of the golden age or the kingdom of the middle period of the golden age? Or, would it be the beginning of the silver age? Those who can now control their thoughts and time are able to claim a right to the kingdom of the beginning period. Only those souls who have all rights are able to receive respect from all the souls of the world at the purest time of the beginning.

First there is self-sovereignty and then there is world sovereignty. Those who are not able to be self-sovereigns are not able to claim a right to world sovereignty. Therefore, now check yourself. Become introverted and think of your original self. The riddle of, "Who am I?", was explained to you on your first day. Therefore, check what your stage of perfection is and what your most elevated position is according to this riddle. You now have to solve the riddle, "Who am I?" According to your present stage throughout the whole day, you can tell whether you have a right to the beginning period of satyug or the middle period of satyug. Since you aim to claim a right to the beginning period, then according to that aim, you have to make your present stage constantly powerful. Together with churning knowledge, it is also most essential to check your stage. Are you content with yourself and with your daily account of accumulation? Or, will you even now say that you haven't accumulated as much as you should have? This should not be the result now. How can those who are not content with themselves become those who make all the souls of the world content? At the beginning of satyug, let alone the souls, even nature is content because it is perfect. So, become the jewels of contentment. Do you understand what you have to do now?

Up until now, you have been serving according to the facilities of service you have. You have been doing this with love and making a lot of effort. The zeal and enthusiasm you have is also good. However, together with doing service, there also has to be service of the world and service of the self. Be merciful to the world and also to yourself. Both have to be together. Do not wait for time thinking that you will become perfect by then. Since you tell other souls not to put anything off until tomorrow, but to do it today; not to put anything off to some other time, but to do it now, so too, first tell yourself in the same way. Are you ever-ready to this extent? Do you constantly have the awareness: "If not now, then never?" Talk to yourself in this way. Achcha. Baba has told you a great deal. What do you want to be told now? Now is not the time to tell you anything, but the time to see. Baba wishes to see each jewel complete and perfect. Do you understand?

To those who understand through signals; to those who constantly maintain powerful remembrance of the Almighty Father and whose listening and doing are the same; to the elevated souls who are embodiments of success and who maintain a powerful stage, BapDada's love, remembrance and namaste.

BapDada meeting Dadis:

Everyone becomes very happy on seeing the maharathis. Why is everyone happy? Because, like sakar Baba, the maharathis are complete and elevated in their corporeal form. Because they are complete, even Baba is happy on seeing them. When one sees those who are equal to oneself, there is happiness. It is only at the confluence age that the Father seats His children on the throne of service. This system of the confluence age will, through your own hands, enable you to be seated on the throne in the future. The Father observes the children seated on the throne and is also secretly co-operative with them. However, in practice, it is the children that He seats on the throne. This system begins from this time.

Baba is Karankaravanhar; He has played the part of Karanhar (One who does) and is now playing the part of Karavanhar (One who does through others). Because this is the throne of the Father, being seated on the throne is not experienced to be a burden. It is the Father's throne, after all! And the Father Himself made you sit on the throne. The throne of being an instrument is so easy! There is a speciality of this throne. This throne is filled with special magic which changes anything difficult to easy within a second. According to the time and according to the drama, the throne of being an instrument is remembered as being very elevated and complete with total success. Whosoever sits on this throne becomes an embodiment of success. The throne has this eternal and original blessing. The souls who are seated on this throne are those who are filled with all significant secrets. At present, BapDada sees the maharathis as being seated on a double throne. You are seated on the heart-throne, but very few attain the throne to become an instrument. This too is a very deep secret. Achcha.

Meeting Madhuban niwasi brothers:

Madhuban niwasi brothers have heard a great deal. Does anything still remain for you to hear? You heard BapDada personally; you heard the revised course, so what else remains to be heard? Have you released as many arrows as you have filled? Madhuban niwasies have a chance to do three types of service. For which service do you have a special chance? The blessing for the means of easy service for the Madhuban niwasies is having the support of this land of blessings, the land of divine activity. When you relate the praise of the divine activity of this land to any soul, it is the same as when souls are more interested in listening to the Bhagawad than to the Gita, because Madhuban niwasies are able to relate their practical experiences. When you give the introduction of this place and its divine activities, souls begin to dance in happiness. People come here especially to know and experience the land of divine activity. So, Madhuban niwasies can serve through this Bhagawad and relate what happens here. Therefore, you are instruments to relate the importance of the speciality of this place. If you attract souls towards the Father with the same vision with which they look at each of your jewels, then how much service can that do? Whilst sitting here, the subjects and the family can be created. The guides of the Taj Mahal relate the history of the Taj Mahal in such an entertaining way. So too, if you relate the divine activities in the same way, people will remember it very easily and you will receive the fruit of that service. If you tell whosoever comes the importance of this land whilst stable in that stage of importance, and if you speak with happiness, enthusiasm and deep love, you can receive a lot of fruit. By doing this type of service, you will experience a lot of happiness. So, there was service, remembrance and attainment. So what more do you want? You Madhuban niwasies are very lucky. This year, what is required is the balance between the self and service. Together with service, the influence of your own personality and the influence of your being an embodiment of dharna will be like the final touch on a golden ornament. Whosoever sees you should experience you to be an embodiment of knowledge and an embodiment of virtues. The two should be equally visible. As yet, the sound that emerges is that the knowledge is very elevated, but your activity is not like that. By paying attention to maintaining a balance between these two, both subjects and heirs will become visible. You have many means of service. You have not yet reached the religious leaders; that will be the last battle through which the sound will spread in all directions. This will happen through aspects of knowledge, just as your name will be glorified through proving who the God of the Gita is. For this, create small groups and make them co-operate with you. You had a students' competition, and then you selected one out of all of them. So, there should be small groups at all the places and a gathering of all of them at one place. Then your name will be glorified. This is the year for glorifying your name. Achcha.
