

Pure Greetings & Sweet Remembrances on the Auspicious Festival of Raksha Bandhan

To the dearly loved children of our most beloved Mother and Father Avyakt BapDada, who remain constantly maya-proof and are making others the same with the experience of the avyakt stage, who are threaded in the thread of love,

To those who are decoration of the most elevated Brahmin clan, our unlimited instrument Teachers and sisters and brothers in Bharat and around the globe,

Please accept hearty congratulations for the pure festival of Rakhi along with sweet, love-filled remembrances.

This festival too is a very loving memorial of the Confluence Age that reminds us of how our supremely pure and loving Baba threads all of us in the thread of love and makes us pure like Him. When the nature and feelings of each one's mind work in harmony then the pearl-like souls are threaded in the thread of love, and the garland is clearly visible. So, those who are going to be threaded in the garland, who are very close to BapDada and are invaluable pearls, who are purifying nature as well as the entire atmosphere with their determined vow of purity, such children of Baba, the world-transformers, are surely doing the service of spreading elevated vibrations with your pure and powerful mind. Baba says, Children, you need to end the little, insignificant, trivial problems yourselves or with cooperation at the earliest in order to fly and make others fly! Emerge your form of being the merciful and compassionate Removers of sorrow and Bestowers of happiness. It is the duty of each member of the Brahmin family to "Give everyone good wishes and take everyone's good wishes". This Festival of Rakhi reminds us of the vows we have taken and alongside is instrument to bring the loving and cooperative souls closer. So while getting this pure Rakhi tied and while tying this Rakhi on others, keep the elevated thought: 'I have to become the Ocean of Love and Purity like our beloved BapDada'. My vision should be so spiritual that I am not put into a dilemma on seeing anyone's nature or sanskars; I should not experience sorrow. Complete purity means my feelings are always pure and elevated, my faith remains firm and therefore my interactions with others will be the best. All that is good will happen when you keep your thoughts pure, elevated, peaceful, and filled with determination – it is guaranteed to happen. Purity attracts all the virtues; let not a single defect remain within me. I should not allow anyone's defects to remain in my consciousness. I can only be completely pure when not even a speck of impure matter or any impure thoughts taint my consciousness. I need to remain in my spirituality, as well as have an entertaining nature. So isn't this the pure thought all of you have to see unlimited service carried out in all four directions as fruit of our elevated stage, which will lead to the echoing sound of "Our Baba has come..." We have to spread such a wave now so that the cries of victory and the drums of revelation are heard.

Let all the sisters and brothers in the class feel that beloved BapDada, Dadi Prakashmaniji in Avyakt form, and all the Dadis have sent this loving message for us from the heart. With this pure thought, get your Rakhi tied and mouth sweetened. Accha, lots of loving remembrances to all,

Your Divine Sister,

B.K. Janki
