

Synopsis: Sakar Murli January 21, 2015

1. Shiv Baba says: Sweet children, you are engaged to Me, not to Brahma. Once your engagement has become firm, you should be harassed by remembrance of that One. Your heart should become cool in remembrance of the Father. As soon as you wake up early in the morning, you should first of all say “Good morning” to Shiv Baba. Those who remember the Father more receive more current because remembrance begets remembrance. It is with yoga that the soul becomes satopradhan. When children remember Baba, He gives them searchlight. For accurate remembrance you need patience, maturity, and understanding (dhairyata, gambhirta, samajh).
2. The Father is also the Spinner of the discus of self-realization. The Become spinners of the discus of self-realization and lighthouses. The more you benefit many others, the more return you will receive. You have to fill your aprons with the jewels of knowledge and then donate them. The Ocean of Knowledge is giving you platefuls of jewels. Those who donate those jewels are loved by everyone.
3. Sensible children will say: We will claim the full inheritance from Baba. They cling to the Father completely. They have a lot of love for the Father because they know that they have found the Father who gives them life (Prandaan). He gives such a blessing of knowledge that you completely change from what you were. You become solvent from insolvent. He fills your treasure-store to this extent. To the extent that you remember the Father, accordingly, there will be that much love and there will be a pull. The rust will continue to be removed by your having remembrance of the Father.
4. The Father says: Children, the past is the past. First of all, reform yourselves. If you yourselves do not have remembrance but you continue to tell others, this cheating cannot continue.
5. Baba says: Children who are conquerors of sleep, constantly remember Me alone and churn the ocean of knowledge. By keeping the secrets of the drama in your intellects, your intellect becomes completely cool and serene. If you remember Shiv Baba, He will look after you.

Blessing: May you hold the urn of knowledge (gyan kalash) and the urn of nectar and quench the thirst of those who are thirsty.

The majority of souls are now tired of those who have promised to give peace from the temporary facilities of matter, from the limited places that have been created to give souls peace, and from those who have taken the contract of enabling you to celebrate a meeting with God, and they have become disheartened. They believe that the truth is something else and are thirsty for attainment. A true drop of the introduction of the soul and the Supreme Soul will make thirsty souls satisfied. Therefore, hold the urn of the nectar of knowledge and quench the thirst of those who are thirsty. Let this urn of nectar always be with you. Become immortal (amar) and make others immortal.

Points to churn from the blessing:

We, the souls, transform the atmosphere with our pure and benevolent and spiritual attitude and make it powerful...we are the embodiments of experience who give many desperate souls that are calling out, and who are wandering around without any destination, a drop of happiness, peace and power and blessings and thereby making them satisfied...we quench the thirst of the souls who have been thirsty for many births, show everyone the right destination, and give them the experience of bliss, power and peace...

God speaks: Know Me through Me and also know the beginning, the middle and the end of the world cycle...There is happiness for the hunter and death for the prey...We, the spirits, receive the knowledge of the spiritual past, the present and of the future from the Supreme Spirit, the Creator of the sacrificial fire of knowledge of Rudra... we are the masters of heaven who return home with the Father and then go to the land of happiness... we, the thirsty souls, remember the Father with a lot of love at amritvela... by drinking one drop of Manmanabhav from the Ocean of Love, we receive liberation-in-life in one second, go from the ocean of poison to the ocean of milk and become Madhyajibhav...
