

Today, at amrit vela, I went to BapDada and as always, BapDada was giving drishti from a distance. I, too, was taking drishti and experiencing supersensuous joy as I came personally in front of Baba, and in the swing of Baba's arms was experiencing deep love. After some time, Baba said: My child who is seated on My heart-throne, what news have you brought today? I replied: Baba, all the children in Madhuban and everywhere else are engaged in remembrance and service. Baba said: BapDada is also pleased to see His service companion children and is singing the song in His heart: "Wah My world transformer serviceable companions, wah!" BapDada also saw that some children were engaged in making effort very well. However, in order to make effort and to experience easy co-operation, the subject of having love for the Father in your heart in a योग्य and युक्त manner is also essential because it is only with love that you have to labour less and are able to easily stay in the experience of love. The power of love is able to make a situation like a mountain into something as light as water. Love is a canopy of protection. Because of being under the canopy of protection you remain constantly safe and find everything to be easy. With love, you are able to make God, the Supreme, or God your Friend and any situation is easily solved with a friend. Love makes the Father your Companion. Knowledge is the seed and the water of love brings the fruit on the tree. Such children who have love for the Father do not find it a labour to remember the Father, but they find it difficult to forget Him. Those who are in love cannot forget the one they love. When you say "Mera Baba" you receive the key to all treasures with the love in your heart and so BapDada, as the Lord, becomes present in front of such loving children. Everyone has remembrance but some make a little effort and some constantly remain merged in the Ocean of Love. People in the world say that the soul is merged in the Supreme Soul, but in fact, the soul becomes merged in God's love, not in God Himself.

What does BapDada want from the children today? In the last season too, BapDada gave the signal to the children to change one word. What was that? It is one word that repeatedly brings you down? That word is "reason/excuse/because of". Transform this one word "excuse" and adopt the word "solution" for all time. The service you children have to do is find a solution to the problems of all the souls in the world. You have to find a solution and then take everyone back to the land of nirvana, because all of you are the master bestowers of liberation. Since you are the ones who will give liberation to others, you first have to find a solution to all your excuses and only then will you be able to grant liberation to others and send them to nirvana. So, is it easy or difficult to transform this one word? Saying this, Baba emerged all the children in His heart and gave them very sweet love from His heart. I was seeing that each child was merged in Baba's eyes. This was a very unique and lovely scene.

After that, Baba said: What gift will you take for the children? While saying this, many gifts appeared in front of Baba. The gift was a picture of Brahma Baba. In the picture there was special crown of light sparkling, and Shiv Baba, in the forehead of Father Brahma, was giving a very powerful searchlight. While seeing this, it was so beautiful that I felt I should take it with me right now and show everyone. However, within the drama, whatever you see in the subtle region disappears as soon as you come down here. Baba said: Each of My beloved children has to constantly remain stable in the stage of light and might and that is the experience that others will have from your face. This was BapDada's pure hope for all the children. Tell Me, sweet children, you are the stars of the Father's hopes, are you not?

BapDada made Dadi Janki and the special brothers and sisters who are in charge of the zones emerge in His eyes and gave them a lot of love from His heart. For Dadi Janki, Baba said: This one is making many others into King Janak and she will continue to do this. As well as this, Baba was filling each instrument child with a lot of love and power. After that, Baba gave everyone lots and lots of love and affection from His heart and while giving me drishti, sent me to the corporeal world.
