

Bio-Data of Brahma Kumari Shashi Prabha

Brahma Kumari Shashi Prabha was born in Karnal, near Delhi. It was at the tender age of 10 that she was attracted to the Brahma Kumaris movement. She often visited the Rajyoga Centre situated close to her house and was deeply impressed with the atmosphere of purity and peace. She made up her mind to lead a spiritual life. Even while doing a job at Chandigarh, she lived at the Brahma Kumaris Rajyoga Centre.

Dedicated life for Godly Service

She soon gave up the worldly job and fully dedicated herself to the Godly Services at the young age of 21. Her first assignment took her to Bengal and Bihar, where she looked after different Rajyoga Centres from 1971 to 1972. From there she went to Kathmandu, the Capital of Nepal, in 1973, where she spent about a year.

Service at the International Headquarters

The year 1974 proved to be a milestone in her spiritual career. She was called upon to shoulder important responsibilities at Mount Abu the International Headquarters of Prajapita Brahma Kumaris Ishwariya Vishwa Vidyalaya. She joined the International Headquarters as Office Secretary. Just a year later, she was entrusted with the additional responsibility of Rajyoga Shivirs' management. Similarly, she has also been looking after the comfortable stay of overseas delegates and godly students. She has been performing her duties with utmost efficiency and cheerful disposition for the last 25 years at the Headquarters.

Co-ordinator of Wing activities

Ever since the formation of different Wings under Rajyoga Education & Research Foundation, a sister organisation of Brahma Kumaris, she had successfully coordinated the activities of 'Administrators Wing' as its Headquarters Coordinator for about six years. When the Sports Wing was newly formed in June, 2000, she was appointed as the National Coordinator in recognition of her keen interest in sports since childhood.

Organising/Participation in Conferences

She has participated in several national and international conferences held in Mount Abu and in other parts of the country.

She helped in the organisation of the International Conference on Spiritual and Moral Values for a Better 21st Century held at Kathmandu from 29th October to 31st October, 1998, which was graced with their presence by His Majesty the King and Her Majesty the Queen of Nepal.

Rajyoga Camps & Retreats

She has been successfully arranging and conducting Rajyoga Camps and Retreats at many other places in the country besides at the Headquarters.

Travels abroad

Her Godly services are not confined to India alone. She has travelled far and wide carrying God's message. In 1984, she toured for three and half months visiting Holland, Belgium, France, Germany, Poland, Sweden, Switzerland, Denmark, Spain, Portugal and U.K. She has travelled in countries like Singapore, Indonesia, and Malaysia during 1991. Five years later in 1996, she visited UK, Holland, America, Canada, Trinidad, Guyana, Barbados and Surinam. Again, she was sent to South Africa and Mauritius during 1999 for spreading Godly message.
