

Dadi Janki – 5.5.19 11am – Meeting the UK Midlands Family Ever Ready

(A song was played: Baba, since I became Yours, I have received unlimited happiness).

Three times 'om shanti', five qualities and eight powers. The song that was just played is so good. Maya has become a pauper. When you have the faith, Maya will think: Who am I? Who is mine? Baba has made us His and taught us how to smile. There's no difficulty.

Sometimes they say to Dadi: Go to sleep. What do I need to do? You have to make food, yes, we have to eat, yes but who will make food, who will feed? Just be ever ready. Some words touch our hearts. Every ready. In Baba's service, in the company of the family, who are we, who do we belong to, where did we come from? We came here.

Why is this room called the Conference Hall? Let it be Meditation Hall. The large pictures here are very good. Have an exhibition of pictures this size. Baba always says that you have to make exhibitions with nice pictures. Have big pictures in this hall, and then whoever comes should see those pictures and you can share knowledge with them as you show them around. You could make smaller pictures, if need be.

Seeing how everyone is sitting in silence, what shall I say? You will say: We want to listen. Then what shall I say? Baba, when we become Yours, it will be very good. Everyone is so fortunate. There may be one person who is thinking: It's not in my fortune... That's not right. They have to ask for happiness. Whom do they need to ask for happiness? (Hansaben: Ask these gopes and gopis)

Gopes and gopis means happiness beyond the senses - and not through the senses. There's the sweetness of listening through your ears or sweetness through your mouth – but we don't want these. Let your senses be peaceful, your face smiling, your whole body peaceful, then your face will be peaceful and your hand will be the hand of blessing.

Everyone says to Dadi: You speak! You speak! I am asking: Is there anyone who can sing a song for me?

Several then came and sang a song for Dadi and the gathering (song titles in italics)

O Baba, sweet Baba!

Baba is sweet, so let's sit in silence. Baba You are so sweet, what shall we do?

To tell the truth, we want to come to you in our minds... In the whole universe, You are our One Baba.

(Some shared their experiences with Baba, and of being here now with Dadi.) It's good everyone has shared very nice things. Now I don't need to say anything, I just have to smile. And smiling isn't difficult!

I'm going to take you to a place where there no sorrow, there's no tears, only love and more love.

Never forget the days of your childhood.

The light ignited in the gathering.

Even if the moon were not to exist, I will always be Yours.

Om shanti.
