

Dadi Janki, 14th May 2019, Evening Class - GCH, London

We have an exchange of feelings...

Sister Jayanti: There has been the same wave in Baba's murlis, the soul conscious stage with Baba's remembrance, and on the basis of this the preparation of our final moments of liberation in life. Today Baba spoke of unlimited renunciation, and defining this as when we have forgotten the old world and old relationships and there is only Baba and the scenes of the golden age in front of us. We listen to the things that Baba tells us and we practise and have a sweet experience of this so there can be transformation of the soul in the soul conscious stage. He said today only Baba can give us the eye of knowledge and He is the One who makes our eyes civil from criminal. Then we can move forward.

Sweet brothers and sisters...Om Shanti, Om Shanti, Om Shanti...there are many sisters here! Say from the heart, Om Shanti. You said it really well. This sound will spread to the whole world. For us there is no other concern or any situation. We just sit together in this way and songs play. Karankaravanhar Baba is doing everything and we are not doing anything. What do we do when we come together? Say Om Shanti. This Conference Hall is where we gather in the evenings and here we have a close meeting. We call Him Baba and He says, 'I am listening'. Dadi also says 'Baba you are listening'. Baba is so good. Those who feel you say this to Baba raise your hands. We children are also good.

Baba is doing everything and we are the ones who act it out. This is the time when we can do as much as we can. Now is the time, not in the future. Is this everyone's experience? We are instruments. Some say 'I don't know what an instrument is'. The One who is doing everything is getting it all done. In order to play our part Baba has made us into easy yogis. As detached observers we are free. We play with detachment and there isn't any heaviness.

We are all sitting here, but for some the mind is elsewhere. Don't let this happen. Who am I? Baba has taught us well. The forefinger points to Baba. We are quality souls. (forefinger and thumb joined together). He reminds us of the five fingers. What are you thinking? When we point to others the other fingers point back to ourselves. Dadi has a lovely feeling of meeting souls as an exchange of feelings. Who has this feeling that they are receiving a feeling from Dadi and also sharing their feelings with her? This is easy Raj Yoga. Wherever we may be... service is the fourth subject. First it is knowledge, yoga, dharna and then service. We are Baba's children. The long lost and now found children. These words are so special.

Dadi just wants to be in silence and peace. It is so nice just to sit in peace. We have the expression 'Wah!' – what a wonder...and when we say it the face becomes wondrous...Who asks Why? Don't have this sort of question. Dadi always says 'Wah!' This relationship of Father with the children is wonderful. Wah Baba Wah! Some who have just come say straight away Wah, Wah. Who am I and who is mine? At the end we will have a very good stage. In the final moments this will happen. Even if Baba were to pull me today. I would say shukriye Baba, meera Baba, mithe Baba. (Hansaben: Shukriye Dadi, everyone says thank you to you Dadi as you keep coming to us).

In English we say silence and in Hindi we say shanti, peace. We are sitting in peace. Baba is seeing us. He is thinking that the children are good. I have seen and experienced the atmosphere created here is a matter of love, not hard work. Baba is behind me. Whether one is here or sitting at home everyone feels that Baba, having belonged to you, we have experienced a great deal of happiness. There is a special song...Having belonged to you there has been unlimited happiness. Happiness, peace, love. Love has brought us all together in unity. Who knows this song, can anyone sing?

(We have the beauty of bhavna, in which we speak the same language, Dadi. You said that if we have a 'preet buddhi', a loving intellect everything will be fine)

Faith is when we know how to be carefree. What is it we have to do? That which Baba has taught us has to be in our life. My life is going to give light to innumerable souls. Those who think their life can give light to innumerable souls, raise your hands! (A few raised their hands). That day has come that I have been waiting for. When Baba comes in front of us He sees children are different from one another. Each one is lost in love of Baba. To sit in orderly rows is good manners. Baba, having belonged to you there has been unlimited happiness. To be obedient, faithful, honest and accepting Baba's orders I am good in. What does it mean to be obedient? To do that which Baba has asked us to do. Faith is in relationships and honesty in activities. Many souls have a lot of value for Yagya service. We are so fortunate to sit in God's Home as His honest children. We are detached, separate and different from one another. OM SHANTI