

Dadi Janki in Peace Village 28 May 2019 – evening

Mohiniben:

Om Shanti. We've been talking about God – what must He be feeling? When people talk about us, we can feel it. By talking about someone, you create their presence. Maybe this is why we think God is omnipresent.

I always felt I belong to the Divine. God is called Bolanath, Lord of Innocence. But He's not innocent. He is all-wise, all-knowledgeful. In a recent murli, Baba spoke of an easy nature, a serene nature, when there are no unnecessary questions or doubts.

One quality I like to think of for myself is "divinity". But because the world is not like that, you could feel threatened. For a long time, I didn't believe that people could be unkind or tell lies. My relationship with God was there before gyan. The Dadis were just called sisters when I first met them. I saw their royalty, their purity and their love. I had an instant and natural connection with God. Connecting with Brahma Baba was the best way to know God, knowing God as love. When someone was leaving, Brahma Baba would ask, "who is taking her?" The seniors, Vishwa Kishore, Anand Kishore, Bholi Dadi, would see us off. There was kindness, compassion, belonging. Baba would say to the children, "I don't remember anyone, but I don't forget anyone."

God's qualities are visible in those connected with God. This is very important. The aim of this initiative, Return to the Source, is that whatever God's qualities are, I should experience and manifest those. Looking at the instrument, I should be inspired by them. Return to the Source is about becoming the image of Baba. You don't have to ask for anything. If we truly are gods and goddesses, God's children, we are to be deities. We should have that bhavna. Return to the Source calls for all of us to become that image of Baba. Goddesses don't create a temple for themselves. The goddess has to be a goddess – to become the image of bhavna, pure feelings, inspirations, very naturally, to be a good instrument.

Brahma Baba as an image was very simple, very alokik. He would eat with Baba, in remembrance of Baba, "I am feeding this body – it's sacred, and internally unadulterated – in remembrance on One."

Once Dadi said to the RC's, "you have inculcated the 8 powers of raj yoga, but not yet God's power. Baba sees that we are good and honest and gives us His power to use. Dadi says that she doesn't use her own power. She uses God's power. Return to the Source is a very good topic. I become obedient and we have this right over each other. Even in a minute we can connect with the Source and know what power is needed. Seeing, understanding and being with God. Connect every student with the roots and they will be able to do the things you are explaining to them to a certain extent.

Dadi Arrives:

Self, time and the gathering...this has pulled me here very fast. Time also said, "come fast." Baba also said, "come, by beloved." Baba is pulling Mohiniben. There's no need to say anything except, Who am I? Who do I belong to? It is our connection and relationship that makes us like this. Someone is pulling us with the thread of love, and we are going towards that region of love. I am not a trance message (to Mohiniben) you are that. But I don't feel like I'm sitting on the Earth. This is the time to fly and to make others fly. To sit like this and spread these vibrations makes everyone feel like they have met me.

Each and every soul meets Baba. I just had this thought: Baba has made us belong to Him. He knows what inheritance He has to give. Just Baba and the inheritance. This is transformation. When we spin the discus, we become world emperors. Right now, we are kings and not those who come as subjects. We have to make sure the subjects are happy. You don't talk about happiness, you see that someone is happy.

Time is telling me to come. We are sitting in silence and sharing vibrations with each other. Everyone is pulling these vibrations from each other. I also thought it's time for silence. Sit and watch that Baba tours around – not here, but up there. He goes around.

Baba, thanks to you. You have made it natural for us to understand the times and to live together in cooperation. With labor you have to work, but with love, everything blossoms. Everyone is drawing love from Baba. Who will love us so much? He has the authority.

In the whole world there isn't a hall like this. Baba is only One. I just become a detached observer and see how Baba has made you create all of this. Otherwise how could there be love, honesty and truth in America?

Whenever I ask Baba, "how many more years in this body?" He says, "you remain ever ready."

It's not in my hands whether to go or not. It's in God's hands. It's in the drama. This drama is in front of me like a dream. When I go to sleep, I get very good dreams.

Mohiniben: we all will go together.

Dadi: It's not in my hands. I never knew I'd be here so long --- to have gone beyond 100. I get Baba's signal as I'm sitting here: you will be alright. You are liberated in life. You are karmajeet and karmateet. You are demonstrating this.

I have the hands, but let God use them, the heart, 2 eyes – not just 1. In the middle is the soul. With that, see everyone.

Mohiniben: We've been making effort to do service over many years. Baba has sent you as the reward for all of that. You are the fruit.

Dadi: the whole world is asking, who am I? I am directing them up. It's the Creator that will give the experience. When the creation is so beautiful, how beautiful must the Creator be.
