

Essence: Sweet children, there are no other students throughout the whole world who are as multimillion times fortunate as you. The Father, the Ocean of Knowledge, Himself, comes here as your Teacher to teach you.

Question: What should you remain constantly interested in so that your threads of attachment can break?

Answer: If you are interested in doing service, your threads of attachment can break. Make your intellect constantly remember that whatever you see with these eyes is perishable. Don't see it even while seeing it. The Father's shrimat is: See no evil. Hear no evil!

Om shanti. God Shiva speaks to you sweet saligrams, that is, to you spiritual children. You children understand that you belonged to the original, eternal, pure deity religion of the golden age. So, you should remember that you belonged to that religion. Many believe in the original, eternal, deity religion, but, instead of calling it the deity religion, they named it the Hindu religion. You now understand who the original and eternal ones are and that by taking rebirth this is what you have become. God sits here and explains this to you personally. God isn't a bodily human being. All others have their own bodies. Shiv Baba is known as the Bodiless One. He does not have a body of His own. All others have their own bodies. So, it is very sweet to experience oneself to be bodiless in this way. What were you and what are you now becoming? You understand how this drama is created. This deity religion was the path of the pure household. It is no longer a pure household path. You know that you are now establishing the original, eternal deity religion. The name 'Hindu' has only been given recently. There is no such thing as the original, eternal Hindu religion. Baba has told you many times to explain to those who belong to the original deity religion. Tell them to write which one they belong to: the pure original, eternal deity religion or the Hindu religion. They will then come to understand about 84 births. This knowledge is very easy. By being told that the cycle lasts for hundreds of thousands of years, people have become confused. This too is fixed in the drama. To become tamopradhan from satopradhan is also a fixed part of the drama. Those who belonged to the deity religion have become so dirty while taking 84 births. At first, Bharat was so elevated. You should sing the praise of Bharat. They definitely now have to become satopradhan from tamopradhan and new from old. As you progress, people will definitely begin to understand what you tell them. Tell them: Wake up from your deep sleep and remember the Father and your inheritance. You children should experience happiness throughout the day. Throughout the whole world in general, and the whole of Bharat in particular, there are no students as multimillion times fortunate as you. You understand that you are becoming what you originally were. It will be the same selected ones who emerge. You must not be confused about this. Anyone who hears even a little of the knowledge at the exhibitions will become a subject. This is because the imperishable wealth of knowledge can never be destroyed. Day by day, this organisation will become more and more powerful. Then, countless people will come to you. A religion is established gradually. When an important person comes from abroad, countless people go to see his face. It is not like that here. Whatever exists in this world is perishable. You must not see it. See no evil... All of that rubbish is going to be burnt. Whatever you see, including human beings, you realise that everything is iron aged. You are confluence-aged Brahmins. No one else knows this confluence age. Simply remember that this is the confluence age and that you have to return home. You must also definitely become pure. The Father now says: This vice of lust causes sorrow from the time it begins through the middle to the end of it. So conquer it. Some are harassed so much for poison. The Father says: Lust is your greatest enemy. You must conquer it. There are now so many human beings in the world at this time. For how long will you have to continue to explain to each one individually? When you explain to one, another will say that this is magic. Then they stop studying. This is why the Father says: Explain to those who belong to the original, eternal deity religion. The original eternal religion is the deity religion. You explain how Lakshmi and Narayan claimed their status and how they changed from ordinary humans into deities. It must definitely have been in their final (previous) birth when they completed their 84 births and then became that. Those who are interested in doing service will remain engaged in that. Your attachment etc. is then removed from everywhere. Whatever you see with these eyes has to be forgotten; it should be as though you are not seeing it. See no evil! People have made an image of monkeys showing this, but they do not understand anything. Children make so much effort. Baba gives them thanks that they explain to others and make them worthy. Those who are able to show the result of what they do are the ones who receive a prize. You know how many prizes Baba is going to give you. The first prize is the sun-dynasty kingdom and the second prize is the moon dynasty. Everything is numberwise. So many scriptures are written on the path of devotion. The Father now explains: No one can meet Me by studying those scriptures or by creating sacrificial fires or doing penance etc. Day by day, souls are becoming more and more sinful. No one can become a pure, charitable soul. Only the Father comes and makes you into charitable souls. There are limited donations and charity and then there are unlimited donations and charity. People on the path of devotion make donations and perform charity indirectly in the name of God but they do not know who God is. You now know Him. You say that Shiv Baba has totally changed you from what you were. God is only One, and yet they call Him omnipresent! So, you should explain to those people about the things they have been doing. They come to you and listen for a while. Then, they go out and they leave behind everything they heard. Whatever they heard here remains here; they forget everything. They tell you that this knowledge is very good and that they will come again. However, they are unable to break their threads of attachment. The story of King Mohjeet (the one who overcame attachment) is so good. The first-class King Mohjeet are Lakshmi and Narayan. It is a wonder, however, that people do not understand anything. While coming down the ladder into the kingdom of Ravan, they fall right down. Children play a game of climbing up and down. Your game is also very easy. The Father says: Imbibe this knowledge very well. Do not perform any dirty actions. The Father says: I am the Seed, the Truth, the Conscious Being, the Embodiment of Bliss and the Ocean of Knowledge. Would the Ocean of Knowledge remain seated up above? He would definitely have to come to give knowledge at some point in time. No one knows what that knowledge is. The Father says: I have now come to teach you, and so you should study regularly. You must not miss this study for even a day. You will definitely find one good point or another each day. If you do not study the murli, you definitely miss some points. There are countless points. You also have to explain to the people of Bharat that they belonged to the original eternal deity religion. There are so many religions now. History must repeat. Just as the genie was ordered to go up and down the ladder, so this too is your ladder of going up and coming down. All of you are genies, are you not? You climb the ladder and then come down through 84 births. There are so many human beings and each one has to play his own part. You children should be amazed! You have now received the full introduction of this unlimited play. Only you know the beginning, the middle and the end of the whole world drama. No other human beings can know this. No one in the golden age uses bad language. Here, they continue to insult one another. This is the river of poison, the complete depths of hell. Everyone here is in the depths of hell. There, as the king and queen, so the subjects. You will gain victory at the end, when everyone understands who created the original, eternal deity religion. This is the main thing that no one knows. The Father says: I am the Lord of the Poor. They will understand this at the end. However, by then, it will be too late. You now have the third eye. Keep your sweet home and your sweet kingdom in your intellect. The Father says: You now have to go to the land of peace and the land of happiness. Whatever part each of you has played enters your intellect. Everyone, except you Brahmins, is almost dead. You Brahmins have to become alert. Only you Brahmins become deities. This one religion is now being created. Your intellects also understand how the other religions are created. Only the one Father explains all of this. Therefore, you should remember such a Father again and again. You may do your business etc. but simply remain pure. The original eternal deity religion was a pure religion. Now become pure again. While walking and moving around, remember Me, your Father, and you will become satopradhan. You will receive strength when you become satopradhan. You cannot claim the highest status unless you stay on the pilgrimage of remembrance. Only when your sins have been absolved will you reach your satopradhan stage. This is the fire of yoga. These words are mentioned in the Gita. Sannyasis beat their heads over yoga. They tempt people to come from abroad so that they can try and teach them yoga. They should at least try to understand what you say. God, the Supreme Soul, is only One. He comes and makes everyone supreme. One day, the newspapers will print these things. They will say: It's true; no one but the Supreme Father, the Supreme Soul, can teach Raja Yoga. You should have such things printed in large letters. Achcha.

To the sweetest, beloved, long-lost and now-found children, love, remembrance and good morning from the Mother, the Father, BapDada. The spiritual Father says namaste to the spiritual children.

Essence for dharna:

1. In order to claim the prize of the sun-dynasty kingdom, first claim blessings from BapDada. You must definitely show the results of the service you do. Break all your threads of attachment.

2. The Father, the Ocean of Knowledge, the Bodiless One, Himself, comes to teach you knowledge. Therefore, you must study every day. You must not miss this study for even a day. Make effort to become as bodiless as the Father.

Blessing: May you receive the fruit of service and thereby remain beyond all limited desires and become constantly complete and equal.

Service means that which brings fruit. If any service makes you discontent, then that service is not service. You may leave such service, but do not let go of your contentment. Just as those who are content with their bodies remain constantly content, in the same way, those who are content in their minds are constantly content. Contentment is a sign of satisfaction and being full. A satisfied soul will not be thirsty for limited desires such as respect, honour, salvation or facilities. Such a soul will be beyond all limited desires and be constantly complete and equal.

Slogan: To move forward with a true heart while doing altruistic service means to accumulate in your account of charity.
