

Determined thoughts the Father made you have for the New Year.

Today, BapDada was very pleased to hear the children's new enthusiasm and their new determined and beautiful thoughts to bring the new world closer. Each of you children has the special enthusiasm to make yourself complete and bring benefit to the whole world. Today, BapDada is congratulating you for the determination you have, to bid farewell for all time to any weaknesses that still remain within you. Continue to keep the congratulations you receive for this farewell powerful by remaining aware of them every morning at amrit vela. This year, together with making your own form powerful, you also have to bring about a powerful form of service. The group who are responsible for destruction are progressing in their task at a great speed. They are creating a very refined method to liberate souls from the bondage of their bodies within a second, that is, to liberate souls easily from their physical sorrow; they are creating an easy method to save many souls. On what basis? On the basis of the authority of science. Similarly, is this group of master almighty authorities, who are instruments for establishment, ready to liberate souls for birth after birth in one second from the bondage of Maya, and from the many types of sorrow they experience because of Maya, and to give those souls the blessing of peace and happiness for all time, thus enabling them to reach their destination? Even now, the group responsible for destruction is ever-ready; they are just waiting for the order. Is the group instrumental for establishment ever-ready to this extent? When the task of establishment is completed, those responsible for destruction will receive their order. When the hand shows that time is up, the bell automatically chimes. So, too, on the unlimited clock, when establishment is completed, the "hand" automatically shows that it is time for the bell of destruction to chime. So, are you ever ready for this completion?

Today, at amrit vela, on hearing the children's new enthusiasm for the New Year, Bap and Dada had a conversation on a new topic.

Brahma Baba said: When are the gates of liberation going to open? Unless Brahma opens the gates of liberation, the other souls can't go to the land of liberation. Brahma Baba asks: Should I unlock them now?

The Father said: Are you going to inaugurate this by yourself or with the children?

Brahma Baba said: Hearing the call and sound of sorrow and distress of both the real children and the step-children, I feel great mercy.

The Father said: Is the rosary of the elevated victorious jewels – those who are Brahma Baba's companions, who play their parts with Brahma Baba in different forms and relationships - is this rosary of such victorious jewels, who are companions, ready? Many have been thinking from the beginning that you will live together, die together and live together again in many different forms and relationships. Therefore, according to their promise, how can you unlock the gates without those companions of yours?

So, did you hear Brahma Baba's new thought for the New Year? What is the victorious group going to do to make this thought of the Father's practical this year? This year, in order for you elevated victorious jewels to fulfil this thought of the Father's, you have to speed up the machinery of liberating souls in a second with your special form of master almighty authorities. The majority of souls are now tired of the limited facilities of matter, of the limited places that have been created to experience spiritual peace; they are now tired of the people who say that they can enable souls to meet God. Souls have now become disheartened by them and feel that the truth must be something else. They are searching for the destination of the Truth. They are thirsty for some attainment. Even a single drop of the accurate introduction of the soul and the Supreme Soul can quench the thirst of such souls. Therefore, take the urn of the nectar of knowledge and quench the thirst of those who are thirsty. Constantly keep the urn of nectar with you. As you move along, continue to make souls immortal by giving them this nectar. Only then will you be able to inaugurate the gates of liberation with Father Brahma. At present, just the bhavans are being inaugurated, so now the unlimited gate has to be inaugurated. For this, remain constantly immortal and make others immortal. Become an embodiment of the blessing of becoming immortal. Now, the last effort-making souls, extremely weak souls, don't have the courage to make any more effort. You have to use your own powers to enable such souls to become powerful and attain something. Therefore, the part of being an image that grants blessings is needed even more than the part of giving knowledge. Souls don't even have the power to listen. They no longer have the courage to carry on. They just thirst to receive something.

Many such souls are wandering around the whole world. You will have to give them legs to walk, that is, you have to give them courage. So, have you accumulated such a stock of courage? Is your urn of nectar full? Is it limitless? Is it constant? Should we start a queue? Is your own queue finished? If you are still busy with your own queue, how are you going to make other souls complete? Therefore, this year, finish your own queue. Change the language of “Why?” and “What?”. There should be just one language. Your language of thoughts and words should be just of giving blessings; you should be an image that grants blessings and give a lecture showering blessings on everyone. The experience of whoever hears you should not be of hearing a lecture, but of being showered with flowers of blessings. Only then will this inauguration take place. This is the newness you have to bring about in the New Year. Achcha.

To those who constantly hold the urn of nectar, to those who give blessings through their every thought, to those who increase the courage of other souls, to the children who maintain courage and thereby receive help from the Father, to those who are ever ready to play their parts of constant companionship with Father Brahma, to such victorious jewels, to the souls who are complete, BapDada’s love, remembrance and namaste.

BapDada meeting Dadis:

Why did Brahma have this thought? Do you know this secret? It is said that the world was created through the thought of Brahma. Therefore, the gates will open through Brahma’s thought. So, who is Shankar? This too is a deep secret. Since Brahma is Vishnu, who is Shankar? You should discuss this amongst yourselves. Let there now be a group of images who grant blessings; not of those who have a physical flag in their hands, but of those who constantly have the flag of victory – the flag of victory of their form of Shakti – hoisted in their awareness. There should be a group of those who hoist the flag of victory. This group will be called the spiritual social-worker group. Such a group is now needed on the stage. Everyone’s vision is automatically drawn to those on a stage. At the moment, they are behind the curtain of their own efforts. Now, come out from behind that curtain and onto the stage of service so that when the souls of the world see the hero actors, they will be able to go beyond with just a glance. Now, such a group should make a plan, so that the sound of their authority of truth will automatically reveal the Father. At the moment, you are dropping baby bombs; you now have to transform the land by dropping the Godly bomb. The easy method for this is constantly to have the awareness of “BapDada, BapDada” like a rosary on your lips and in your thoughts. All of you should have just the one concern - BapDada. You should constantly have this concern in your thoughts, words and deeds. This is the soundless chant. When you have this soundless chant, everything else will automatically finish, because you will only be busy in this. When you don’t have any time, anything wasteful automatically stops. So, did you hear what you have to do this year? Know what time it is from today’s thought. The hand (of the clock) is Brahma Baba. So, where has the hand reached? It would of course have gone beyond the subtle region, would it not? Achcha.

BapDada meeting double foreigners:

BapDada is happy to see the speed of intense efforts of the double-foreign children. The foreign children have recognised very well their real Father, their real land and their real religion. It is as though the fruit is revealed on the prepared land of the previous cycle by simply sowing the seed of the Father’s introduction. BapDada knows that there are some jewels in this group who are the beads of the rosary around BapDada’s neck. The Father is seeing many scenes of such beads being revealed to the world and of such children revealing the Father to the world. They are being revealed now and will continue to be revealed in the future also. Do you all consider yourselves to be such invaluable jewels? Where would the most precious jewel be kept? Precious jewels are placed in the tiny container of the heart. They constantly remain in the heart, that is, they constantly stay in remembrance of the Father. Do all of you experience yourselves to be intense effort-makers? In which line are all of you? Those who take a high jump, are you not? Those who are double light will always take a high jump. If you are carrying any type of burden you cannot take a high jump. All of you are the long-lost and now-found ones, because, as soon as you received the Father’s introduction, you easily recognised Him through easy yoga. You didn’t experience anything to be difficult. The way to make anything difficult easy is to sit constantly in front of the Father and you will constantly experience the hand of blessings over you. You will receive a solution to all problems in a second. However, who is able to sit in front of the Father? Those who have seen and understood the Father as He is and what He is through their divine eye and divine intellect. The Father knows that you souls have become examples in front of the world and have taken a very good step to benefit all souls. The world will follow you. Achcha.

Personal meetings with BapDada:

1. The sign of coming close to your final destination is that you step away from everyone else.

Do you constantly experience your destination to be very close? Do you feel that you are now about to reach the final destination of your angelic life? The closer you come to this final destination, the more detached you become from everyone else and the more you are loved by the Father. When something is nearly cooked, it moves away from the sides of the pan. Similarly, the closer you come to your complete stage, the more detached you will become from everyone. An angel is someone who has all relationships with One. Do you feel that you are moving away from everyone else? When something is not completely cooked, it sticks to the bottom of the pan, but when it is ready, it moves away from all sides. When it doesn't move away, it means it's not yet ready. So, are you too moving away from all relationships in your attitude, or do you still have some attachment? If your speed is slow, you cannot arrive on time. If you arrive too late, you cannot be counted in the list of those who have attained something. Therefore, check whether you are becoming free from your bondages from all sides. If you aren't, it proves that you are not close to your angelic life. When you are able to experience the happiness of having all relationships in One, what need is there to wander around? You should go straight to your destination. To have all relationships fulfilled by One is your destination. Constantly keep your final angelic form in your awareness; as is your awareness, so will be your stage.

2. Serve many by maintaining the awareness of "Wah drama! Wah!"

Whilst seeing the drama, are all of you constantly moving along with the awareness of "Wah drama! Wah!?" You are not afraid when you see any particular type of scene, are you? Since you have received the knowledge of the drama and know that the present time is the benevolent age, you know that whatever scene comes in front of you is also filled with benefit. You may not be able to recognise this at the moment, but the benefit merged in the future will be revealed. Remember, "Wah drama! Wah!", and you will remain constantly happy and never become unhappy about your efforts. Others will then automatically be served through you.

3. A blessing for co-operative souls to remain constantly full.

The souls who make the yagya full with their hearts and their lives, those who have been giving their finger of co-operation according to the time, accumulate multi-fold in return for each one. Time is also of value, and so the souls who co-operated at the time of need in the beginning of the task of establishment have received in return the blessing of becoming full and complete. They have been constantly overflowing and will continue to be so. Achcha.

Blessing: May you be knowledge-full while seeing the land, the pulse and the time and reveal the true knowledge.

This new knowledge of the Father is true knowledge. The new world is established with this new knowledge. Let the authority and intoxication of this always be emerged in your form. However, this doesn't mean that you speak about new things of this new knowledge to someone as soon as he comes, and you confuse him. Consider the land, the pulse and the time - and then give knowledge. This is a sign of being knowledge-full. Consider the desire of souls, feel their pulse, prepare the field, but, internally, definitely also keep the power of fearlessness of truth with you and you will then be able to reveal the true knowledge.

Slogan: To say "mine" means to make a small thing big, whereas to say "Yours" means to make a situation as big as a mountain into cotton wool.
