

Essence: Sweet children, Baba has come to show you the path home. When you remain soul conscious you will be able to see the path easily.

Question: What knowledge do you receive at the confluence age through which the golden-aged deities are called conquerors of attachment?

Answer: At the confluence age the Father tells you the story of immortality and gives you knowledge of eternal souls. You receive the knowledge that this is an imperishable, predestined drama and that every soul plays his own part. A soul leaves his body and takes another one. Therefore, there is no need to cry. It is by receiving this knowledge now that the golden-aged deities are called conquerors of attachment. There, there is no mention of death. They leave their old bodies in happiness and adopt new ones.

Song: Show the path to the blind o God!

Om shanti. The spiritual Father says to the sweetest spiritual children: I show you the path, but first consider yourselves to be souls. Sit in soul consciousness and you will find this path easily. You have been stumbling for half a cycle on the path of devotion. There is an enormous amount of paraphernalia on the path of devotion. Now, the Father has explained that there is only one unlimited Father. The Father says: I am showing you the path. No one in the world even knows which path He shows. It is the path to liberation and liberation-in-life: liberation and salvation. The abode of peace is called liberation. A soul cannot speak without a body. Sound can only be made through these organs. Sound is produced through the mouth. If there were no mouth, where could sound come from? Souls receive these organs to perform actions. In Ravan's kingdom you perform sinful actions. Those sinful actions are very dirty actions. In the golden age, there is no Ravan. Therefore, actions are neutral. The five vices are not there. That is called heaven. The residents of Bharat were the residents of heaven, but they are now called the residents of hell. They are drowning in the river of poison. They are all causing each other sorrow. They say: Baba, take us to a place where there is no mention of sorrow. When Bharat was heaven, there was no mention of sorrow. They came from heaven into hell. They now have to go to heaven. This is a play. The Father Himself sits here and explains to you children. This is the true company of the Truth (satsang). You are remembering the true Father. He alone is God, the Highest on High. He is the Creator. You receive your inheritance from Him. The Father Himself gives you children your inheritance. Even though they have limited fathers, they remember Him and say: O God, o Supreme Father, Supreme Soul, have mercy! They have become distressed from stumbling so much on the path of devotion. They say: O Baba, give us our inheritance of happiness and peace! Only the Father can give this and that too is for 21 births. You can calculate this. In the golden age, when it was their kingdom, there must definitely have been fewer people. There was only one religion and only one kingdom. That is called heaven, the land of happiness. The new world is called satopradhan (completely pure). The old world is called tamopradhan (completely impure). Everything is at first satopradhan and it then goes through the stages of sato, rajo and tamo. Young children are called satopradhan. Young children are said to be higher than great souls (mahatmas). Mahatmas take birth, grow up and experience the vices and then leave home. Small children don't know anything about vice; they are completely innocent. This is why they are said to be higher than mahatmas. Deities are praised as being full of all virtues. Sadhus are never given this praise. The Father has explained the meaning of violence and non-violence. To hit someone is called violence. The greatest violence is to use the sword of lust. Deities are not violent. They do not use the sword of lust. The Father says: I have now come to change you from human beings into deities. Deities are in heaven. No one here can call themselves a deity. Everyone understands himself to be a degraded, vicious sinner. So, how could they call themselves deities? That is why they have called it the Hindu religion. In fact, it was the original, eternal deity religion. The word "Hindu" originated from the word "Hindustan" so they called it the Hindu religion. You say that you are of the deity religion and yet they put you in the column under Hindu religion. They say that they only have a column for the Hindu religion. Because of being impure no one can call themselves deities. You now understand that you were worthy-of-worship deities and that you have now become worshippers. Previously, you did unadulterated worship of Shiva. Then you became adulterated worshippers. The Father is only One. You receive your inheritance from Him. There are many types of deity etc. You do not receive any inheritance from them. You cannot receive an inheritance from this Brahma either. One is the incorporeal Father and the other is your physical father. Even though they have physical fathers, they continue to say: Oh God! Oh Supreme Father! You wouldn't say that to your physical father. An inheritance is received from a father. A husband and wife are half-partners. Therefore, she should have half of everything. First, half should be given to her as her share and then the children should be given the other half. However, these days, the children are given all the wealth. Some have a lot of attachment. They think that it is their children who will have all rights when they die. Today's children don't even ask about their mother after the father's departure. Some love their mother. Some, however, oppose their mother. These days, the majority don't ask after their mother. They waste all the money. Some adopted children are also like that. They trouble their mother a great deal. You children heard the song. They say: Baba, now show us the path to happiness where there is rest. There is no happiness in Ravan's kingdom. Those on the path of devotion don't even understand that Shiva is separate from Shankar. They just continue to bow their heads and read scriptures. OK, what do you receive from that? They don't know anything. Only the one Father is the Bestower of peace and happiness for all. In the golden age, there is happiness as well as peace. There was peace and happiness in Bharat but they no longer exist. This is why, in their devotion, they continue to stumble from door to door. You now understand that only the one Father takes you to the land of peace and the land of happiness. Baba, we will only remember You. We will claim our inheritance from You alone. The Father says: You have to forget your bodies and all your bodily relations. Remember the one Father alone! You souls have to become pure here. If you don't remember Him, you will have to experience punishment. Your status will be reduced. This is why the Father says: Make effort for remembrance. He explains to you souls. There are no other satsangs etc. where "O spiritual children" is said. This is spiritual knowledge which you children receive from the spiritual Father. "Spirit" means incorporeal. Shiva too is incorporeal. You souls are points; you are very tiny. No one can see a soul without having divine vision. Only the Father gives divine vision. Devotees sit and worship Hanuman and Ganesh etc. Now, how would they have visions of them? The Father says: I am the One who is the Bestower of divine vision. I, Myself, give visions to those who have done a lot of devotion. However, there is no benefit in that. They just become happy. They still continue to commit sin. They don't attain anything. How could they become anything without studying? Deities are full of all virtues. You too have to become like that. The rest are all visions of the path of devotion. You will actually swing with Krishna and be with him in heaven. It depends on how much your study. To the extent that you follow shrimat, so you will claim an elevated status. Shrimat is given by God. You do not call it Krishna's shrimat. The Krishna soul claimed his status by following the shrimat of the Supreme Father, the Supreme Soul. You souls were also in the deity religion. In other words, you were in Krishna's dynasty. The people of Bharat don't know what the relationship of Radhe and Krishna is. Each comes from a different kingdom. Then, on their marriage, they become Lakshmi and Narayan. The Father has come to explain all of these things. You are now studying to become the princes and princesses of heaven. It is at the time of the marriage of the prince and princess that their names are changed. Therefore, the Father makes you children into such deities. However, that is only if you follow the Father's shrimat. You are mouth-born children. They are born through a womb. Those brahmins bind a couple together and make them sit on the pyre of lust. You true Brahmins now take them off the pyre of lust and tie them with the bond of sitting on the pyre of knowledge. Therefore, they have to let go of the other bond. Children from here fight and quarrel and waste all their money. Nowadays, there is a lot of dirt in the world. The worst sickness of all is the cinema. Even good children get spoilt by going to the cinema. Therefore, BKs are also forbidden to go to the cinema. However, for those who are strong, Baba says: Do service there too. Explain to them that that cinema is limited. There is also an unlimited cinema. Those limited and false cinemas started from the unlimited cinema. The Father has now explained to you children that that is the soul world where all souls reside, and that, in between there and here, there is the subtle region. This is the physical world where the whole play takes place. This cycle continues to turn. You Brahmin children have to become spinners of the discuss of self-realisation. It is not the deities who have to become this. However, because they are effort-makers, Brahmins are not given these symbols. Today, they are moving along well. Tomorrow, they fall. This is why these symbols are given to the deities. They portray Shri Krishna killing Akasur and Bakasur etc. with a discus. However, he is said to have the highest religion of non-violence, so how could he kill? All of that is the paraphernalia of devotion. Wherever you go, there will be an oval-shaped image (lingam) of Shiva. So many different names have been given. They make so many deities out of clay. They decorate them. They spend thousands of rupees on them. They create them, worship them, sustain them and then sink them! They spend so much money on the worship of dolls. They don't gain anything from that. The Father explains: That is all devotion for wasting money. They have continued to come down the ladder. When the Father comes, it becomes the stage of ascending for everyone. He takes you all to the land of peace and the land of happiness. There is no question of wasting money in this. By wasting money on the path of devotion, you became insolvent. The Father sits here and explains the story of becoming solvent and insolvent. You belonged to this dynasty of Lakshmi and Narayan, did you not? The Father now gives you teachings to change you from ordinary humans into Narayan. Those people relate the story of the third eye and the story of immortality but all of those are lies. This is the story of the third eye through which the soul's third eye of knowledge opens. The whole cycle enters the intellect. You are receiving the third eye of knowledge. You are also listening to the story of immortality. The immortal Father is telling you the story of immortality. He is making you into the masters of the land of immortality. You never experience death there. People here have so much fear of death. There, there is no fear of dying and no crying. You leave your old body in happiness and take a new one. Here, people cry so much; this is the world of tears. The Father says: This drama is predestined. Each one is playing his own part. The deities are conquerors of attachment. There are innumerable gurus in the world and they all have different opinions. Each one's opinion is his own. Here, there is worship of a deity (goddess) of contentment. The deities of contentment can only exist in the golden age. How can they exist here? In the golden age, deities are always content. Here, everyone has one desire or another. There, there are no desires. The Father makes everyone content. You become multimillionaires. Because nothing is unattained there, there is no worry about attaining anything. There are no worries there. The Father says: I am the Bestower of Salvation for everyone. You children are given happiness for 21 births. You have to remember such a Father. It is by having remembrance of Him that your sins are burnt away and you become satopradhan. These things have to be understood. You will claim an elevated status and your subjects will be created to the extent that you explain to others. You are not being told a story of some sadhu etc. God is sitting here and explaining through this one's mouth. You are now becoming deities of contentment. You should now also make a pledge to remain pure for ever because you have to go to the pure world. Therefore, don't become impure. The Father has taught you this pledge. Human beings now hold many different types of fast. Achcha

To the sweetest, beloved, long-lost and now found children, love, remembrance and good morning from the Mother, the Father, BapDada, the spiritual Father says namaste to the spiritual children

Essence for dharna:

1. Follow the directions of the one Father and remain constantly content and become deities of contentment. Don't have any desires here. Acquire all attainments from the Father and become multimillionaires.
2. The cinema makes you the most dirty. You are not allowed to watch films. If you are courageous and can understand the significance between the limited cinema and the unlimited cinema you can do service by explaining it.

Blessing: May you be an incognito donor and a charitable soul and offer everything you have for service. Whatever service you do, continue to offer that for world service. On the path of devotion, souls who are incognito donors and charitable souls have the thought that whatever they do, it should be for the benefit of all souls. Similarly, every thought of yours should be offered for service. Never have the desire to serve just yourself, serve everyone. Any service that becomes an obstacle cannot be true service. Therefore, renounce any consciousness of something belonging to you, be a true incognito server and continue to benefit the world through service.

Slogan: Surrender everything to God and all the difficulties that are to come will be experienced as easy.
