

Essence: Sweet children, on the basis of shrimat you are now going into the depths of silence. You receive the inheritance of peace from the Father. Everything is included in peace.

Question: On what main foundation is the new world established?

Answer: Purity. When the Father enters the body of Brahma to establish the new world, you become brothers and sisters. All consciousness of male and female ends. When you become pure in this final birth, you then become the masters of the pure world. You promise yourselves that you will live together like brother and sister, that you will have no vision of vice, that you will caution one another and make progress.

Song: Awaken o brides, awaken! The new dawn is about to break.

Om shanti. You sweetest spiritual children heard the song, and the discus of self-realisation spun in your intellects. The Father too is called Swadarshanchakradhari (Spinner of the discus of self-realisation), because to know the beginning, middle and end of the world means to be a spinner of the discus of self-realisation. No one but the Father can explain these things. Everything for you Brahmins depends on silence. All human beings call Him the Bestower of Peace: "Hey Bestower of Peace!" No one knows who gives peace or who takes us to the land of peace. Only you children know this. Only you Brahmins become swadarshanchakradhari. Deities cannot be called spinners of the discus of self-realisation; there is the difference of day and night. The Father explains to you children: Each of you is a spinner of the discus of self-realisation, numberwise, according to the effort you make. The main thing is to remember the Father. To remember the Father means to claim your inheritance of peace. Everything is included in peace: your lifespan increases and your body becomes free from disease. No one, other than the Father, can make you into swadarshanchakradhari. It is the soul that becomes this. The Father is also this because He has the knowledge of the beginning, middle and end of the world. You also heard in the song that the new world is now being established. These songs have been composed by human beings. The Father sits here and explains the essence of them all. He is the Father of all souls. Therefore, all the children are brothers. When the Father creates the new world, you become brothers and sisters through Prajapita Brahma. Each of you is a Brahma Kumar or Brahma Kumari. When this remains in your intellects, the consciousness of male and female is removed. Human beings don't understand that we are in fact brothers. Then, when the Father creates creation, we become brothers and sisters and criminal vision ends. The Father also reminds us that we had been calling out: O Purifier come! Now, that I have come, I tell you to remain pure in this final birth. You will then become the masters of the pure world. Your exhibition pictures should be in every home because you children are Brahmins. You should definitely have these pictures in your homes. It's very easy to explain using these pictures. The discus of 84 births is in your intellects. OK, a teacher can be sent to you; she can come and do service and leave. You can set up an exhibition. On the path of devotion, when someone doesn't know anything about worshipping Krishna or any mantras etc., he invites a brahmin priest to come. He would come every day and perform some ceremony. You too can invite someone. This knowledge is in fact very easy. The Father must have created the world through Prajapita Brahma. Therefore, Brahma Kumars and Kumaris must have become brothers and sisters. Each of you promises that both of you will live together as brother and sister and that you will not have any vision of vice. You will caution one another and make progress. The main thing is the pilgrimage of remembrance. Those people try so hard to go high up there with the power of science. However, there is no world up there. That is called going into the depths of science. You are now going into the depths of silence on the basis of shrimat. They have science, whereas you have silence. You children know that you souls are yourselves embodiments of silence. You take bodies just to play your parts. No one can live without performing actions. The Father says: Consider yourself to be a soul, separate from that body, and remember the Father and your sins will be absolved. This is very easy. Explain this most of all to My devotees, those who worship Shiva. The most elevated worship of all is that of Shiva because He is the Bestower of Salvation for All. You children know that the Father has now come and that He will take us all back with Him. At the right time, according to the drama, we will reach our karmateet stage and then destruction will take place. A lot of effort has to be made so that we souls become satopradhan. We have to follow the Father's shrimat. The Gita is called Shrimad Bhagawad Gita. This is great praise. The praise sung of the deities is that they are completely virtuous, completely viceless. The Father Himself comes and makes us completely pure. It is when the world becomes completely impure that the Father comes and makes the world completely pure. Everyone says that they are children of God. Therefore, there definitely has to be the inheritance of heaven. Through Prajapita Brahma, the Father of Humanity, we have now become brothers and sisters. The Father also came in the previous cycle. This is why Shiv Jayanti (birthday of Shiva) is celebrated. You must definitely have become the children of Prajapita Brahma. You promise the Father: Baba, we will live together as companions and lead a pure life. We will follow Your directions. This is not a big thing. This is now your final birth. This world of death is going to end. You have now become sensible. If someone calls himself God, you can say: God is the Bestower of Salvation for All, so how can that one call himself this? However, you understand that that is a play in the drama. The Father is making you children into spinners of the discus of self-realisation. The Father says: Remain busy in service. Start an exhibition in every home. There is no greater act of charity than this. There is no other charity as great as that of showing the way to the Father. The Father says: Remember Me alone, and your sins will be absolved. This is why you called out to the Father: O Purifier, Liberator, Guide, come! You are the ones also remembered as Pandavas. The Father is the Guide. He takes all souls back. Those guides are physical whereas that One is the spiritual Guide. Those are physical pilgrimages, whereas this is a spiritual pilgrimage. In the golden age there are no physical pilgrimages of the path of devotion. There, you are worthy of being worshipped. The Father is now making you so sensible. Therefore, you should follow the Father's directions. should you not? If there are any doubts etc, you should ask. The Father says: Sweetest children, become soul conscious. Consider yourselves to be souls and remember the Father. You are My beloved children, are you not? You have been My lovers for half the cycle. There are many names for just the One. So many names have been given and so many temples have been built. However, I am only One. My name is Shiva. I came into Bharat 5000 years ago and adopted you children. I am now adopting you again. Because you are children of Brahma, you are also grandsons and granddaughters. Here, it is the soul that claims an inheritance. In this, it is not a question of being a brother and sister. It is the soul that studies and claims an inheritance. Everyone has a right to this. Whatever you children can see in this old world, it is all going to be destroyed. There truly is the Mahabharat War. The unlimited Father is giving you your unlimited inheritance. He gives us unlimited knowledge. Therefore, there ought to be unlimited renunciation. You know that a cycle ago too, the Father taught you Raja Yoga. This sacrificial fire in which the horse is sacrificed had been created. Then, a golden-aged, new world was definitely needed for the kingdom. The old world had been destroyed. It is a matter of 5000 years. It was through this war taking place that the gates of heaven opened. Write on a board: "Come and understand how the door to heaven is opening." If you cannot explain, then invite others to come and explain. The number of you will then gradually grow. There are many of you Brahmins, children of Prajapita Brahma. The inheritance is received from Shiv Baba. He is the Father of all. Keep it clearly in your intellects that you are becoming deities from Brahmins. We were deities and we then went around the cycle. We have now become Brahmins and we will then go to the land of Vishnu. This knowledge is very easy but only a few out of millions emerge. So many come to the exhibitions, but hardly anyone emerges. Some simply praise it and say it's very good and that they'll come. Only a few rare ones come and take the seven days' course. Now, what is seven days anyway? The Gita is recited over seven days. You also have to be in a bhatthi for seven days. By considering yourself to be a soul and remembering the Father, all the rubbish will be removed from you. You have to remove the dirty sickness of body consciousness that you have accumulated over half the cycle. Become soul conscious! The seven days' course is not a big one. Some can be pierced by an arrow in just a second. Those who come last can go ahead fast. They would say that they will race and definitely claim the inheritance from the Father. Some even go faster than the older ones because they are now given very good ready-made points. It is so easy to explain the pictures etc. at the exhibitions. If you yourself cannot explain, then invite a sister to come every day and explain. It used to be the kingdom of Lakshmi and Narayan 5000 years ago. It continued for 1250 years. It is such a short story. We were deities, then we became warriors, then merchants and then shudras. I, the soul, became a Brahmin. The meaning of "Hum so" (as I was, so I shall become) is explained very accurately. There is the picture of the variety form, but Brahmins and Shiv Baba have been removed from that. No one understands the meaning of that picture at all. You children now have to make effort for remembrance. You mustn't have any doubts. If you want to become conquerors of sinful actions and claim an elevated status, then stop thinking about why something happens, or why someone does what he does. Stop all of that and just have the one thought of becoming satopradhan from tamopradhan. To the extent that you remember the Father, to that extent you will become a conqueror of sinful actions and claim an elevated status. As well as that, don't spoil your head by listening to wasteful things. Above all, the most important thing is not to forget Him. Don't waste your time with anyone. Your time is very valuable. Don't be afraid of storms. Many difficulties will come and there may be a loss, but don't ever forget to have remembrance of the Father. It is through this remembrance that we have to become pure. We have to claim an elevated status through our own efforts. This old father claims such an elevated status, so why shouldn't you? This too is a study. You don't need to pick up any books etc. The full story is in your intellects. It is such a short story. It's a matter of a second. "Liberation-in-life is received in a second." The main thing is to remember the Father. You forget the Father who is making you into the masters of the world! You say that not everyone will become a king! Ah! But, why do you worry about everyone else? Are they concerned at school that everyone should claim a scholarship? They just start studying. It is understood from each one's efforts what status each of them will claim. Achcha.

To the sweetest, beloved, long-lost and now-found children, love, remembrance and good morning from the Mother, the Father, BapDada. The spiritual Father says namaste to the spiritual children.

Essence for dharna:

1. This time is very valuable. Don't waste it on useless matters. No matter how many storms come, or whatever loss is incurred, stay in remembrance of the Father.
2. Just think about changing from tamopradhan to satopradhan. Don't think about anything else. Understand and explain with tact the short story of "Hum so, so hum".

Blessing: May you be truly loving and co-operative and burn the Ravan of waste while wearing the armour of humility.

No matter how much someone tries to find weaknesses in your gathering, let there not be the slightest conflict of sanskars or nature visible. Even if someone insults you or defames you, you just become a saint. Even if someone is doing something wrong, you just remain right. Even if someone is creating conflict, just give them the water of love. "What is this? Why is this like this?" Do not pour oil on to the fire by having such thoughts. Just wear the armour of humility. Where there is humility, there will definitely be love and co-operation.

Slogan: Merge all the many limited feelings of the consciousness of "mine" into "My Baba".
