

Essence: Sweet children, only you are true, unique magicians. You have to perform the magic of changing humans into deities.

Question: What are the signs of good effort-making students?

Answer: They have the aim of passing with honours, that is, of coming into the rosary of victory. They only have remembrance of the one Father in their intellect. They break their intellects' yoga away from all bodily relations, including their own bodies and love only One. Only such effort-makers become beads of the rosary.

Om shanti. The spiritual Father sits here and explains to the spiritual children. You spiritual children have now become magicians. The Father is therefore also called the Magician. There are no other magicians who can change human beings into deities. This is magic, is it not? You show the path to earn such a huge income. School teachers show you how to earn an income. This study is also an income. The stories and scriptures of the path of devotion are not called studies. There is no income in those; there is just expenditure there. The Father explains: You spent so much on the path of devotion, making pictures, building temples and worshipping. At least a teacher enables you to earn an income; there is a livelihood there. The study of you children is so elevated. Everyone has to study. You children make human beings into deities. Through other studies you can become a barrister etc. That would just be for one birth. There is the difference of day and night. This is why you souls should have pure intoxication. This is incognito intoxication. It is the wonder of the unlimited Father. This is such spiritual magic! You have to become satopradhan by remembering the Spirit. A sannyasi told someone: Consider yourself to be a bull. That person then went and sat in a small room and considered himself to be that. Then, he said: I'm a bull, so how can I leave here? The Father says: You were pure souls but you have now become impure. By your remembering the Father now you will become pure. By listening to this knowledge you change from a human being into Narayan, that is, from a human being into a deity. There is the deity sovereignty. You children are now establishing the deity sovereignty over Bharat by following shrimat. The Father asks: Is the shrimat that I give you right or are the directions of the scriptures right? Judge for yourself! The Gita is called Shrimad Bhagawad Gita, the jewel of all scriptures. It has been especially written. Now, who is the one called God? You would definitely all say that it is incorporeal Shiva. We are souls, His children, brothers. He is the one Father. The Father says: All of you are lovers. You remember Me, the Beloved, because I taught you Raja Yoga through which you changed from human beings into Narayan in a practical way. Those people simply say that they are listening to the story of the true Narayan. They don't believe that they can change from human beings into Narayan by doing that. The Father is giving you souls the third eye of knowledge through which you know about souls. A soul cannot speak without a body. The place of residence of souls is called the Land of Nirvana. You children now have to remember the land of peace and the land of happiness. Remove the land of sorrow from your intellects. You souls have now received the understanding of what is right and what is wrong. The significance of actions, neutral actions and sinful actions has also been explained to you. The Father only explains to you children and only you children understand these things. No other human beings even know the Father. The Father says: This drama is predestined. In Ravan's kingdom everyone's actions are sinful. In the golden age all actions are neutral. Some ask: Aren't any children born there? Tell them: That is called the viceless world. So, where could the five vices come from? This is a very simple thing. The Father sits here and explains it. Therefore, those who understand this to be right become very quickly alert. Those who don't understand this might do so as they make further progress. Moths come to a flame, leave and then return. That One is the Flame. Everyone is to be burnt in the Flame. This is just an explanation; there is no flame. That is a common thing. Many moths burn in a flame. At Deepawali so many tiny insects emerge and then die; they take birth and die. The Father explains: They come at the end, take birth and die again; they are just like insects. The Father has come to give you your inheritance. Therefore, you have to make effort to pass with honours. Good students make plenty of effort. This rosary is of those who pass with honours. Continue to make as much effort as possible. It is said: There are those whose intellects have no love at the time of destruction. You can explain this. Our intellects are loving to the Father. We remember no one but the Father. The Father says: Renounce your body and all bodily relations and constantly remember Me alone. On the path of devotion you have been remembering Me a lot and saying: O Remover of Sorrow! Bestower of Happiness! Therefore, the Father is definitely the Bestower of Happiness. Heaven is called the land of happiness. The Father says: I have come to purify you. I come and shower the rain of knowledge on the children who have been burnt by sitting on the pyre of lust. I teach you children yoga. Remember the Father and your sins will be absolved and you will become the masters of the land of angels. You are also magicians. You children should have the intoxication of your true magic. Some magicians are very good and clever; they can make so many things emerge. This magic however is unique. No one but the One can teach it. You know that you are changing from human beings into deities. These teachings are for the new world. That is called the golden age, the new world. You are now at the confluence age. No one knows about this most elevated confluence age. You are becoming such elevated humans. The Father only explains to you souls. When you Brahmin teachers sit in class, it is your duty to first of all caution everyone. Say: Brothers and sisters, sit here considering yourselves to be souls. I, this soul, am listening through these organs. The Father has also explained to you the secrets of 84 births. Which human beings take 84 births? Not everyone takes them. No one even thinks about this. They simply say "It's true" to whatever they hear. When someone says that Hanuman emerged from the wind, they say, "It's true!" Then they continue to relate such stories to others who continue to say, "It's true! It's true!" Each of you children has now received the eye of knowledge with which you understand what is right and what is wrong. Therefore, you must only perform right actions. You must also explain that you are receiving this inheritance from the unlimited Father. All of you have to make effort. That Father is the Father of all souls. The Father is telling you souls: Now remember Me! Consider yourself to be a soul! Sanskars are in the soul. Souls carry their sanskars with them. When someone's name is glorified in childhood, it is understood that he performed such actions in his previous birth. If someone built a college in his previous birth he would receive a good education in his present birth. There is the karmic account of actions. In the golden age there is no question of sinful actions. You definitely perform actions there; you rule there and also eat there, but you do not perform any wrong actions. That is called the kingdom of Rama. This is the kingdom of Ravan. You are now establishing the kingdom of Rama by following shrimat. That is the new world. Not even a shadow of the deities can exist in the old world. If you were to place an idol of Lakshmi here, there would be a shadow of it, but there could not be a shadow of the living Lakshmi. You children know that everyone has to take rebirth. A water wheel continues to turn; this cycle of yours also continues to turn. These things are explained using examples. Purity is the best thing. Because a kumari is pure, everyone bows down to her. You are Prajapita Brahma Kumars and Kumaris. The majority of you are kumaris and this is why it is remembered that the arrows were shot by kumaris. Those arrows were arrows of knowledge. You sit and explain to them with a lot of love. The Father, the Satguru, is only one. He is the Bestower of Salvation for All. God speaks: Manmanabhav! This is also a mantra. It requires effort to consider yourself to be a soul and remember the Father. This effort is incognito. Souls have become tamopradhan and have to become satopradhan once again. The Father has explained: Souls and the Supreme Soul have remained separated for a long time. Those who became separated first are the ones who meet Him first. This is why the Father says: Beloved, long-lost and now-found children. The Father knows when you began worshipping. It is half and half: for half the cycle, there is knowledge and for half the cycle, there is worshipping. There is day and night. In 24 hours there are 12 hours am and 12 hours pm. The cycle too is half and half: there is the day of Brahma and the night of Brahma. So, why have they given the iron age such a long duration? You can now explain to them what is right and what is wrong. All the scriptures belong to the path of devotion. God comes and gives the fruit of devotion. He is called The Protector of Devotees. As you make further progress, you will sit with sannyasis and explain to them with a lot of love. They will not fill in the form that you ask them to. They will not write down the name of their mother and father. Some may do this. Baba used to go and ask them why they renounced everything. They renounce vices and also renounce their household. You now renounce the whole of the old world. You have been given a vision of the new world. That is the viceless world. Heavenly God, the Father, is the One who establishes heaven. He creates the garden of flowers. He changes thorns into flowers. The number one thorn is the sword of lust. You would call lust a sword and you would call anger an evil spirit. Deities are doubly non-violent. All vicious human beings bow down in front of the viceless deity idols. You children understand that you have now come here in order to study. To go to spiritual gatherings is a common thing. They say that God is omnipresent. Can a father ever be omnipresent? You children receive your inheritance from the Father. The Father comes and makes the old world into the new world of heaven. Some people don't even consider hell to be hell. Wealthy people think: What does heaven have to offer? We have wealth, palaces and aeroplanes, etc. We have everything; it is heaven for us here. It is hell for those who are living in the slums. Bharat is so poor and poverty-stricken. History has to repeat again. You should have the intoxication that the Father is once again making you double crowned. You now know the past, present and future. Baba has told you the story of the golden age and the silver age. Then, in the middle of the cycle, you start to come down. The path of sin is the path of descending. The Father has now come again. You consider yourselves to be swadarshanchakradhari. It isn't that you spin a discus and cut someone's throat. They have portrayed Krishna spinning a discus, and they say that he killed devils with it. There is nothing like that. You understand that you are swadarshanchakradhari Brahmins. You have the knowledge of the beginning, the middle and the end of the world. Deities do not have this knowledge there. There, they are in salvation which is why that is said to be the day. There is difficulty at night. People do so much hatha yoga in their devotion in order to receive a vision. Those who perform intense devotion are ready to sacrifice their lives. Only then are they granted a vision. According to the drama, their desires are fulfilled for a temporary period. However, God doesn't do anything. The part of devotion continues for half the cycle. Achcha.

To the sweetest, beloved, long-lost and now-found children, love, remembrance and good morning from the Mother, the Father, BapDada. The spiritual Father says namaste to the spiritual children.

Essence for dharna:

1. Maintain the spiritual intoxication that Baba is making you double crowned. We are swadarshanchakradhari Brahmins. Continue to move along with the knowledge of the past, present and future in your intellect.
2. In order to pass with honours have true love for the Father. Make the incognito effort of remembering the Father.

Blessing: May you be a great donor who fulfils the pure desires of everyone with your powerful stage. Souls who come later will be happy with receiving just a little because their parts are to take just a little grain. In order for such souls to receive the fruit of their bhavna (devotional feelings) and for no one to be deprived, you must now accumulate all the powers into yourself. When you remain stable in your complete and powerful stage of a great donor, you will be able to take any soul beyond with the co-operation of your vision, with your duty of giving the great donation and by putting on the switch of your good wishes.

Slogan: Constantly continue to follow the Godly codes of conduct and you will become a most elevated being who follows the highest code of conduct.
