

The Meeting of the Point (the Supreme Soul, the Ocean of Knowledge) with the Points (Souls).

Today, BapDada has just come to meet all of you. You have heard many murlis. The essence of all the murlis is in just the one word 'point' (bindu). All the details are merged in this point. Each of you has become a point, have you not? Be a point, remember the Point and apply a point (full-stop) to anything that happens - you easily experience this, do you not? By understanding this very subtle and powerful essence, all of you can become subtle angels and play your parts as master almighty authorities. Is this essence easy or difficult to understand? What do you double foreigners think? Is it easy or is it doubly easy for you double foreigners? BapDada now wants to see all of you as embodiments of this essence.

Let each one become a divine mirror in which all human souls can see the complete reflections of their three aspects of time. Are you such mirrors that can grant them a vision of these three aspects? By clearly seeing in the mirror all three aspects of time – what they were, what they are now and what they will receive in the future- they will easily be attracted to the Father and come to claim their inheritance from Him. When they have this vision, that is, when they recognize this as clearly as if they are actually seeing it, when they understand this, experience this, and see that the thirst and desire they have had for many births – to go to the abode of liberation and to heaven – can now be fulfilled, they will easily be attracted and come to you. There are two types of such souls. Devotee souls, who want to be merged in love, and the others who want to merge into the light. Both types of souls want to be merged. By giving such souls the Father's introduction in a second and telling them about the Father's praise and what they can attain from Him, you will enable them to experience the stage of being merged in love through a relationship. When they are merged in love, they will easily understand what 'being merged' really means. So, it's important that you enable souls to experience being merged in love at the present time. Show them the way to become merged and your task of creating your future subjects will easily be achieved. Have you become such divine mirrors that you can make other souls trikaldarshi? Take a photo of the result of your effort at every moment through this divine mirror and see whether you remained powerful or whether you went into wastefulness. You would be able to see both the wasteful and powerful poses. What would be the powerful pose be? That of a master almighty authority who is constantly seated on the heart-throne. What would be the wasteful pose be? It would be that of a warrior who is constantly battling. You would not be seated on the heart-throne but standing on a battlefield. To be seated on the heart-throne means to be an image of success and to stand on a battlefield means to be an image of labouring. You would labour even over trivial matters. One would be an embodiment of remembrance and the other an embodiment of complaints. When you are able to see your own true form, you will also be able to grant a vision of the three aspects of time to others. So, become such divine mirrors. Do you understand?

Today Baba will meet the double foreigners and those from Gujarat. Both are dancing in harmony. Those people dance and these people too dance a lot. Those from Gujarat are embodiments of love and the double foreigners also come running here because of the love they experience. As well as receiving knowledge you have also received love. This spiritual love has made you belong to God. You receive double love: love from the Father and love from the family. This experience of love has made you into moths. Love works like a magnet for foreigners. Because of love you are ready to listen to anything; you are even ready to die. You like this dying, do you not? This dying means you go to heaven. This is why, when someone dies, people say that he has gone to heaven. When those people die they don't go to heaven, but those who die in the confluence age do go to heaven. When someone dies and leaves his body, the papers copy this and print that that person has gone to heaven. So, you like this dying, do you not? You have died by choice, not by force. This whole gathering is of those who have died alive. Your breath isn't still caught up anywhere in the old world, is it? It is wonderful to see how those who have died can still laugh! (Foreigners were laughing at what Baba was saying.)

It is written in Christian philosophy that the corpse was resurrected, it came back to life. First, a corpse and then coming back to life. There is pleasure in this dying, is there not? There is no fear, is there?

Meeting Dadis:

At present, there is a special gathering of the mahavirs in the subtle region. Do you know why there is this gathering? Just as BapDada served many by granting them a vision of perfect Brahma at the beginning of establishment, so, at this time too, Baba is serving through you special eight, by giving visions of your special deity forms and your Shakti forms. You are busy using your physical bodies to do physical service for God, but special, elevated souls are now doing double service. Just as at the start, the yagya grew through Brahma, so too, at this time, through the visions of the combined form of you Shiv Shaktis, the task of giving visions and giving the message is being carried out through your subtle bodies. Therefore, BapDada is making you special children co-operate with Him in doing service. The gathering takes place there to make the practical plans for this subtle service. This is why you mahavir children have to remain free from any bondage of karma and constantly remain double light whilst performing every action. In the future, many will experience the Father making you emerge many times in the subtle region and doing service through you. You now have to play this part of doing double service. By gathering you special children together, BapDada is continuing to serve by giving touchings both to devotee souls and to scientists. Baba is filling those souls with sanskars of special devotion, so that they can make the path of devotion continue for half a cycle. He is also inspiring scientists to bring about transformation and to create refined instruments. As soon as the instruments have been perfected, you perfected souls will experience the happiness of those. The scientists will not be able to experience those themselves. Both tasks are being carried out through subtle service. Do you understand?

For how long throughout the day do you remain a resident of the subtle region? Or, is the physical service you have to do greater? No matter how busy you all are, the Father still gets His work accomplished. Have you experienced your perfect form? Just as this corporeal one became angelic, so too, there is a perfect angelic form of each of you. All of you corporeal beings will become angelic, numberwise. Is it better to serve having become angelic or is it better to change your corporeal body and serve with your next body? Those in the advance party have changed their corporeal bodies and are serving through those. However, some will play their parts to the end through their combined corporeal and angelic bodies. What are your parts? Some play their parts by being part of the advance party and others play their parts by serving through their subtle bodies. Both roles are important. It is not a question of first or second. All the various roles are equally important. The task of the advance party is no less. You were told how they are making their plans with great intensity. There are well-known souls there too.

Avyakt BapDada meeting groups:

1) Do all of you constantly sparkle like jewels? A jewel constantly sparkles. Each of you jewels is so valuable! Because you now belong to the Father, you jewels are so invaluable that human beings cannot put a value on you. Those who belong to the Father become invaluable jewels. You have become the most elevated souls of the whole world. Do you have this much happiness? You always remember your physical occupation, so, in the same way, do not forget the occupation of the soul. The most elevated fortune of the confluence age is to become one of the Father's invaluable jewels. How can you forget this fortune of yours? All of you co-operate in service. You are all-round servers. To receive a chance to do service is also a lift in the drama. The more service you do for this yagya (sacrificial fire), the more prasad (holy offering) of attainments you automatically receive. You also automatically remain obstacle-free. You serve once and receive a thousand-fold fruit of that service. Let the feeding of souls physically and in a subtle way continue constantly. To make someone content is very great service. To give someone hospitality is very great fortune. This is why it is said that only fortunate ones receive guests.

2) Whilst knowing Maya, do all of you remain ignorant of her? Deities are innocent of any attack of Maya. You have to destroy Maya so completely that all name and trace of her disappears. Maya never becomes your guest, does she? Is your door permanently closed to Maya? When your fortress is strong, no enemy can break in. To have a high wall means to maintain an elevated stage. Never allow your stage to come down. Once you belong to Baba, any other consciousness of "mine" should finish. Attachment starts with the consciousness of "mine". When you have the consciousness of "nothing is mine", how can there be attachment? It is when you consider yourself to be a limited creator that vices can begin. By constantly maintaining the consciousness of brotherhood, no vice can be created.

3) By considering yourselves to be the unknown but very well-known warriors on the battlefield, are you constantly victorious over Maya? Whilst sitting, eating, going about your every day activities and whilst walking and moving around, you are fighting Maya and becoming victorious. Whatever you may be doing externally, internally you are attaining victory over Maya and claiming the kingdom of the world. So, this is what makes you unknown - this makes you unknown, does it not? When revelation takes place, everyone who sees you will realise who you are and what you are doing. Victory is guaranteed for those who remain in the company of the Almighty Authority. The Lord of the Pandavas is the Almighty Authority and this is why the Pandavas were constantly victorious. Never let go of this company. When you are alone, Maya can attack you. When you remain with the Father, Maya will have to surrender herself to you. Maya has to become the servant of you conquerors of Maya and salute you. Do not let go of the Father, your Companion, in the mela (fair) of Maya. When you let go of your Companion, you lose your way, and you then have to cry out. Constantly make Maya salute you; do not let Maya attack you.

Blessing: May you become very wealthy and sensible and make progress by using every power. Sensible children know the way to use every power for a task. The more you use the powers, the more those powers increase. So, make such a Godly budget that every soul in the world attains something or other from you and sings your praise. You definitely have to give one thing or another to everyone, whether you give them liberation or liberation-in-life. Make a Godly budget and save all the powers - and with the powers you have accumulated, liberate all souls from their begging, from sorrow and peacelessness.

Slogan: Make pure thoughts the invaluable treasure of your life and you will become prosperous with all treasures.
