

Essence: Sweet children, the Father is teaching you in order to make you into beautiful deities. The foundation of your beauty is purity.

Question: What is the sign of the moths who sacrifice themselves to the spiritual Flame?

Answer: 1. Moths who sacrifice themselves to the Flame know Him accurately as He is and they remember Him accurately. 2. To sacrifice oneself means to become equal to the Father. 3. To sacrifice oneself means to claim a right to a kingdom that is higher than the Father's.

Song: The Flame has ignited in the gathering of moths.

Om shanti. You sweetest, spiritual children heard a line of the song. Who is explaining this? The spiritual Father. He is also called the Flame. He has been given many names. There is also a great deal of praise of the Father. This is the praise of the Supreme Father, the Supreme Soul, is it not? The Father has come as the Flame for you moths. When moths see a flame, they sacrifice themselves onto it and leave their bodies. Many moths surrender their lives to a flame. Especially at Deepmala, many lamps are lit. Therefore, many tiny insects die at night. You children now know that our Baba is the Supreme Spirit. He is also called Hussein. He is very beautiful because He is ever-pure. When souls become pure, they receive pure and naturally beautiful bodies. Souls remain pure when they are in the land of peace. When they first come here to play their parts, they are satopradhan. Then they become sato, rajo and tamo. From being beautiful, they become ugly, that is, they become impure. When souls are pure, they are said to be golden aged. They then receive golden-aged bodies. The world becomes old and new. The beautiful Supreme Father, the Supreme Soul, to whom people have been calling out "Oh Shiv Baba!" on the path of devotion, that incorporeal Supreme Father, the Supreme Soul, has now come to change impure souls into pure souls and make them beautiful. It isn't that the souls of those who are beautiful nowadays are pure; no. Although someone's body may be beautiful, that soul is impure. People abroad are so beautiful. You know that Lakshmi and Narayan have golden-aged beauty whereas people here have the beauty of hell. Human beings don't know about these things. It is only explained to you children that the beauty here is for hell. We are all becoming naturally beautiful for heaven. We will remain that beautiful for 21 births. The beauty that people have here only lasts for one birth. When Baba comes here, not only does He make the human beings of this world beautiful, He makes the whole world beautiful. In the new world of the golden age, there are only beautiful deities. You are now studying to become like them. The Father is also called the Flame, but He is, in fact, the Supreme Soul. Just as each of you is called a soul, so He is also called the Supreme Soul. You children sing praise of the Father and the Father praises you children. I make you so elevated that your status becomes even higher than Mine. No one knows Me as I am, what I am or how I play My part. You children now understand how you souls come from the supreme abode to play your parts. You belonged to the shudra clan and have now come into the Brahmin clan. This is your clan; this clan isn't for those of other religions. Other religions don't have clans. Christians just have the one clan, they just continue to be Christians. Yes, they too become sato, rajo and tamo but, otherwise, these clans only belong to you. The world too goes through the stages of sato, rajo and tamo. The unlimited Father sits here and explains the world cycle. The Father, who is the Ocean of Knowledge and the Ocean of Purity, Himself, says: I don't take rebirth. Although people celebrate the birthday of Shiva, they don't know when He comes. They don't even know His life-history. The Father says: Every cycle, I explain to you children about what I am, how I am, what part I have in Me and how the world cycle continues to turn. You know that you have become tamopradhan as you continued to come down the ladder. You are the ones who take 84 births. Those who come later also have to go through the stages of sato, rajo and tamo. When you become tamopradhan, the whole world becomes tamopradhan. Surely, then, you have to become satopradhan from tamopradhan; this world cycle continues to turn. It is now the iron age. Then, after this, the golden age will come. The period of the iron age has come to an end. The Father says: I have entered an ordinary body, exactly as I did in the previous cycle, in order to teach you children Raja Yoga once again. Nowadays, there are many yogas: yoga to become a barrister, yoga to become an engineer etc. In order to become a barrister, the intellect's yoga has to be linked to a barrister. They think: We are becoming barristers. Therefore, we remember the one who is teaching us. Their fathers are separate. If they had a guru they would remember him. Nevertheless, their intellects' yoga would be with the barrister. It is the soul that studies. It is the soul with a body that becomes a barrister or a judge. You children are now creating sanskars in yourselves to become soul conscious. You have been body conscious for half the cycle. The Father says: Now become soul conscious! The sanskars for studying are in the soul. It is a human soul that becomes a judge. We are now becoming deities, the masters of the world, and our Teacher is Shiv Baba, the Supreme Soul. He is the Ocean of Knowledge, Peace and Prosperity. Platefuls of jewels have been portrayed emerging from the sea. Those aspects that the Father has to refer to belong to the path of devotion. The Father explains: These are the imperishable jewels of knowledge. You become very wealthy with these jewels of knowledge and you also receive very many diamonds and jewels. Each of these jewels is worth hundreds of thousands of rupees. They make you so wealthy. You know that Bharat was the viceless world. Pure deities used to reside there. They have now become impure and ugly. This is a meeting of souls with the Supreme Soul. Only when souls are in a body are they able to listen. The Supreme Soul also enters a body. The home of souls and the Supreme Soul is the abode of peace. There is no sound or movement there. The Supreme Father, the Supreme Soul, comes here to meet you children. He meets you through this body. There, it is the home where you rest. You children are now at the most elevated confluence age, whereas the rest of the world is in the iron age. The Father sits here and explains these things. They incur a lot of expense on the path of devotion. They make many pictures, they build very big temples. Otherwise, they could also keep a picture of Krishna at home. Those pictures are very cheap. So, why do they go so far away to the temples? That is the path of devotion. Those temples etc. don't exist in the golden age. People there are worthy of being worshipped. In the iron age, they are worshippers. You are now at the confluence age and becoming worthy-of-being-worshipped deities. You have now become Brahmins. At this time, your last effort-making body is your most valuable one. You earn a lot of income while you are in it. You eat and drink with the unlimited Father. You also used to call out to Him. You don't say: I eat with Krishna. You remember the Father. You say: You are the Mother and Father. A child continues to play with his father. You wouldn't say that all of you are the children of Krishna. All souls are the children of the Supreme Father, the Supreme Soul. It is souls who say through their bodies: When You come, we will eat and play with You. We will do everything with You. You say: "BapDada." Therefore, this is like a family. There are Bap, Dada and you children. This Brahma is an unlimited creator. The Father enters him and adopts him. He says to him: You are Mine. This is the mouth-born creation. A wife too is adopted. She too is a mouth-born creation. Her husband would say: You are mine. Then he creates a physical creation with her. From where did this system start? The Father says: I adopted this one. Through him, I adopt you. You are My children. However, this one is male. Therefore, Saraswati was also adopted in order to look after all of you. She was given the title of "Mother". There is the River Saraswati. This river is the mother whereas the Father is the Ocean. This one has emerged from the Ocean. A huge gathering takes place where the River Brahmaputra meets the ocean. At no other place does such a large gathering take place. That is the gathering (mela) of rivers. This is the gathering (mela) of souls and the Supreme Soul, and it takes place when He enters a body. The Father says: I am Hussein. I enter this one every cycle. This is predestined in the drama. The whole world cycle is now in your intellect. Its duration is five thousand years. From this unlimited film, they create limited films. Whatever happened in the past then becomes the present. The present then becomes the future which is then called the past. How long does it take for it to become the past? How much time has passed since you came into the new world? 5000 years. Each of you is now becoming a spinner of the discus of self-realisation. You explain that you were first Brahmins and that you then became deities. You children are now receiving your inheritance of the land of peace and the land of happiness from the Father. The Father comes and establishes three religions at the same time. Then He inspires the destruction of all the other religions. You have found the Satguru, the Father, who takes you back. You call out: Take us into salvation! Let this body die! Show me a way to shed my body and go to the land of peace. This is why people go to gurus. However, those gurus can't enable you to leave your body and take you with them. Only the one Father is the Purifier. Therefore, when He comes, souls surely have to be made pure. Only the Father is called the Death of all Deaths, the Great Death. He makes everyone shed their bodies and takes them back home. That One is the Supreme Guide. He takes all souls back home. These bodies are dirty and we want to become free from the bondage of them. As we shed our bodies, we can become free from their bondage. You are now being released from devilish bondages and being taken into divine relationships of happiness. You know that you will go to the land of happiness via the land of peace. You also know how you will then come into the land of sorrow. The Father comes to make you beautiful from ugly. The Father says: I am also your true, obedient Father. A father is always obedient to his children. He serves them so much! He incurs so much expense to educate his children. Then he gives all his wealth and property to them and goes into the company of holy men. He makes his children more elevated than himself. This Father too says: I make you into double masters. You become the masters of the world and also the masters of Brahmamand. You are worshipped in two ways; you are worshipped as souls and also worshipped as the deity clan. I am only worshipped in one way, in the form of a Shivalingam. I don't become a king. I serve you so much! So, why do you forget such a Father? Oh souls, consider yourselves to be souls and remember Me so that your sins can be absolved. Whom have you come to? First Bap, the Father, and then Dada. First there is the Father and then the great-great-grandfather Adi Dev, Adam, because there are many generations. Would anyone call Shiv Baba the Great-Great-Grandfather? He makes you elevated in every respect. You have found such a Baba! So, why do you forget Him? How would you become pure if you forget Him? The Father shows you ways to become pure. Only by having this remembrance will the alloy be removed from you. The Father says: Sweetest, lovely children, renounce body consciousness and become soul conscious. You also have to become pure. Lust is the greatest enemy. Become pure in this one birth for My sake. A physical father would also say: Don't perform any dirty actions. Maintain the honour of my beard. (Keep my honour.) The parlokik Father also says: I have come to purify you. Therefore, don't make your face dirty, otherwise you will cause My honour to be lost; the honour of all Brahmins and the Father will be lost. Some write: Baba, I have fallen and dirtied my face. The Father says: I have come to make you beautiful and you have dirtied your face! In order to become ever beautiful you do have to make effort. Achcha.

To the sweetest, beloved, long-lost and now-found children, love, remembrance and good morning from the Mother, the Father, BapDada. The spiritual Father says namaste to the spiritual children.

Essence for dharna:

1. Your last effort-making body is your most valuable one. Through that body you have to earn a lot of income. Eat and drink with the unlimited Father and experience all relationships with Him.
2. Don't perform any such act through which the Brahmin family's honour and the Father's honour would be lost. Be soul conscious and become completely pure. Remove all the old alloy from yourself, the soul, by having remembrance.

Blessing: May you be a holy swan who receives the title "His Holiness" by finishing all name and trace of impurity.

Swans never pick up stones, they only pick up jewels. Similarly, holy swans do not pick up the stones of anyone's defects. They separate the wasteful from the powerful and put aside the wasteful and adopt the powerful. Only holy swans are pure and clean souls. Their diet, interaction are all pure. When all name and trace of uncleanness, that is, impurity, finishes, you will then receive the title "His Holiness" in the future. Therefore, never imbibe anyone else's defects, even by mistake.

Slogan: A complete renunciate is one who even renounces the progeny of any old nature or sanskars.
