

Essence: Sweet children, the Father, the Lord of Life who saves your life, has come to play the sweet murli of knowledge to you children to save your lives.

Question: Which faith do only the fortunate children have?

Answer: The faith that the Father who makes our fortune elevated has come. We are receiving from the Father the fruit of our devotion. The Father has now come to take us back home with Him by restoring to us the wings that Maya cut off. Only fortunate children have this faith.

Song: Who has come in the early morning hours?

Om shanti. Who comes and plays the murli early in the morning? The world is in total darkness. You are now listening to the murli from the Father, the Ocean of Knowledge, the Purifier, the Lord of Life. He is God, the One who saves your life. People say: O God, save me from this suffering! Those people ask for limited help. You children are now receiving unlimited help because He is the unlimited Father. You know that souls are incognito and that the Father is also incognito. When the bodies of the children are visible, the father's body is also visible. Souls are incognito and so their Father is also incognito. You know that the Father has come to give you an unlimited inheritance. The elevated directions are from Him. The Gita, the jewel of all scriptures, is very well known; they have just changed the name in it. You now know that shrimat are the versions spoken by God. You have also understood that it is the one Father who makes those who are corrupt into elevated beings. He is the One who changes ordinary human beings into Narayan. There is the story of the true Narayan. It is said that the story of immortality is to make you into the masters of the land of immortality, that is, to change humans into Narayan; it is the same thing. This is the land of death. No one knows that Bharat was the land of immortality. Here, too, immortal Baba has told everything to you people of Bharat. There wasn't just one Parvati and one Draupadi. There are many children who are listening to this. Shiv Baba is speaking to you through Brahma. The Father says: I am explaining to you sweetest spirits through Brahma. The Father has explained to you children that you definitely do have to become soul conscious. Only the Father can make you this. Not a single human being in the world has knowledge of the soul. If they don't have knowledge of the soul, how could they have knowledge of the Supreme Father, the Supreme Soul? They say that the soul is the Supreme Soul. The whole world is trapped in such a big mistake. At this time, the intellects of people are of no use at all. They are making preparations for their own destruction. This is nothing new for you children. You know that, according to the drama, those are their parts. They are bound by the bonds of the drama. Nowadays, there is a lot of upheaval in the world. You children have loving intellects at the time of destruction. It is said that those whose intellects have no love for the Father are led to destruction. This world now has to change. You know that the Mahabharat War also took place previously and that the Father taught you Raja Yoga. In the scriptures, they have spoken about total destruction of the whole world. However, total destruction cannot take place; otherwise, there would be total annihilation - no human, or anything other than the five elements, would remain. That would be impossible! If annihilation were to take place, where would human beings come from? They show that Krishna came on a pipal leaf floating on the ocean. How could a baby come like that? They have written such things in the scriptures, don't even ask! Arrows of knowledge now have to be shot at scholars such as Bhishampitamai by you kumaris. In the future they too will come here. The more powerful you become in service and the more you continue to give the Father's introduction, the more impact there will be. Yes, there will also be obstacles. It is also remembered that many obstacles were created in this sacrificial fire by the devilish community. You won't be able to teach them. Only the Father teaches knowledge and yoga. Only the one Father is the Bestower of Salvation. Only He purifies the impure. Therefore, He would surely give knowledge to only those who are impure. Can the Father ever be omnipresent like they say? You children understand that we become lords of divinity by having divine intellects. Look how many temples human beings have built! However, they don't understand who they were or what they did when they existed. There is also a temple to the Lord of Divinity. Bharat was the land of divinity. There were palaces studded with diamonds and jewels. It was just a matter of yesterday! They say that the golden age alone was hundreds of thousands of years old, whereas the Father says: The whole drama is 5000 years. That is why it is said: Look at what Bharat is today and what it was yesterday! No one could remember anything that was hundreds of thousands of years ago. You children have now remembered everything. You know that it is a matter of 5000 years. Baba says: Sit in yoga. Consider yourself to be a soul and remember the Father. This is knowledge, is it not? They are hatha yogis; each one sits with one leg over the other. Look at what they do! You mothers cannot do that. You cannot sit like they do. There are so many images on the path of devotion. The Father says: Sweet children, there is no need for you to do anything like that. Students in a school sit in a disciplined way. The Father doesn't even tell you to do that much. You can sit as you please. If you become tired of sitting down, then just lie down! Baba doesn't forbid you to do anything. These matters are very easy to understand. There is no difficulty in this. Even if you are ill, you could leave your body while listening to this and staying in remembrance of Shiv Baba. It is said that the water of the Ganges should be on your lips and you should be on the banks of the Ganges when you shed your body. All of those things belong to the path of devotion. In fact, it means the nectar of knowledge. You know that the soul truly is going to leave the body in this way. When you children come here, you leave Me behind. The Father says: I will take you children back with Me. I have come only to take you children back home. You souls neither know your home nor yourselves. Maya has completely cut off your wings. It is because souls are tamopradhan that they are unable to fly. How can they return to the land of peace unless they become satopradhan? You also know that, according to the drama plan, everyone has to become tamopradhan. At this time, the whole tree has reached a state of total decay. No one here can have a satopradhan stage. When a soul becomes pure here, he can no longer remain here; he would go away from here. Everyone performs devotion in order to receive liberation. However, no one can return home yet. The law doesn't allow this. The Father sits here and explains all of these secrets for you to imbibe. Nevertheless, the main thing is to remember the Father and become a spinner of the discus of self-realisation. When you remember the Seed, your intellects become aware of the whole tree. You come to know everything in a second. No one in the world knows that only the one Father is the Seed of the whole human world. Krishna is not God. Krishna is called the ugly and beautiful one (Shyam-Sunder). It isn't that he became dark blue because he was bitten by a poisonous snake. It is by sitting on the pyre of lust that human beings become ugly. They even show Rama as dark blue. Who bit him? They don't understand anything. However, those who have it in their fortune and have that faith will definitely claim their inheritance from the Father. If they don't have faith, they can never understand. If they don't have it in their fortune, what effort would they make? When they don't have it in their fortune, they sit as though they don't understand anything. They don't even have the faith that the Father has come to give them this unlimited inheritance. Just as a new student who goes and sits in a medical college doesn't understand anything, so some come and sit here in the same way. This imperishable knowledge is never destroyed. What could they come and do? When a kingdom is being established, maids, servants, subjects and servants of the subjects are all needed. As you make further progress they will try to study, but it will be difficult then because there will be a lot of upheaval at that time. Storms continue to increase day by day. There are so many centres. Therefore, some will come and understand very well. It is written that establishment takes place through Brahma. Destruction is just ahead. Destruction definitely has to take place. They say that fewer children should be born. However, the tree has to grow. While the Father is here, souls of all religions have to come down here. When it is time to return home, there will be no more souls to come down. Everyone now has to come down, but no one understands these matters. They say that God is the Protector of the devotees. Therefore, there must definitely have been calamities for the devotees. Everyone in Ravan's kingdom has become a completely sinful soul. At the end of the iron age it is Ravan's kingdom and at the beginning of the golden age it is Rama's kingdom. At this time, everyone belongs to the devilish community of Ravan. They say: So-and-so has become a resident of heaven, which means that this is hell. If he has become a resident of heaven, then that is good! Look what he would have been here! He would definitely have been a resident of hell. They don't even understand that they are residents of hell. You now understand that only the Father comes and makes you into residents of heaven. He is remembered as Heavenly God, the Father. Only He comes and establishes heaven. Everyone sings and remembers the Purifier as Rama who belongs to Sita. They sing: We are impure and You are the One who can purify us. All of them are the Sitas who belong to the path of devotion and the Father is Rama. When you tell people this directly, they don't believe it. They call out to Rama. The Father has now given you children a third eye. It is as though you now belong to a different world. The Father explains: Everyone now definitely has to become tamopradhan for only then can the Father come and make you satopradhan. The Father explains everything so well! He says: Even though you children do your own duties, just remember one thing: Remember the Father! No one else can show you the way to become satopradhan. The spiritual Surgeon of all is One. He is the One who comes and gives an injection to souls because it is the soul that has become tamopradhan. The Father is called the eternal Surgeon. Souls are imperishable and the Father, the Supreme Soul, is also imperishable. From being satopradhan, souls have now become tamopradhan. Souls need an injection. The Father says: Children, consider yourselves to be souls and remember your Father. Connect your intellects in yoga with up above and you will go to your sweet home. It is in your intellects that you now have to go to your sweet silence home. Achcha.

To the sweetest, beloved, long-lost and now-found children, love, remembrance and good morning from the Mother, the Father, BapDada. The spiritual Father says namaste to the spiritual children.

Essence for dharna:

1. Make your intellect divine with knowledge and yoga. No matter how ill you are or how much difficulty there is, even in that situation, you must remember the Father.
2. In order to make your fortune elevated, have full faith in the intellect. Connect your intellect in yoga to your sweet silence home.

Blessing: May you be a true completely pure Brahmins who finishes all waste in your thoughts, attitude and awareness.

Check your thoughts, attitude and awareness. Let it not be that when you make a mistake, you repent for it, ask for forgiveness and you become free. No matter how much forgiveness one asks for, the stain of the sinful or wasteful deed that has been performed cannot be erased; the register does not become clean. Do not just adopt that system, but have the awareness that you are a completely pure Brahmin and that impurity cannot touch your thoughts, attitude or awareness. In order to do this, remain cautious at every step.

Slogan: Use the Father's company and you will never become disheartened.
