

Essence: Sweet children, you children too are numberwise in knowing the Father as He is and what He is. If everyone were to recognise Him, there would be a huge crowd here.

Question: When will the sound of revelation spread everywhere?

Answer: When human beings find out that God, Himself, has come to carry out establishment of the new world by destroying this old world. The Father who bestows salvation on everyone has come to grant us the fruit of our devotion. When there is this faith, revelation will take place and there will be upheaval everywhere.

Song: The rain of knowledge is for those who are with the Beloved.

Om shanti. You children heard two lines of the song. The rain is for those who are with the Beloved. The world doesn't know who the Beloved is. Although there are many children, many of them don't know how they should remember the Father. They don't know how to remember Him; they repeatedly forget Him. The Father explains: Children, consider yourselves to be souls. You are points. The Father is the Ocean of Knowledge and you have to remember Him. Instil such a practice of remembrance that that remembrance becomes constant. At the end you should only remember: I am a soul. You each have a body, but keep the knowledge of being a soul in your intellect. You have received the Father's direction. Hardly anyone remembers Me as I am. Children become very body conscious. The Father has explained that, until you give the Father's introduction to someone, he or she won't be able to understand anything. First of all, they should know that that incorporeal One is our Father, the God of the Gita, that He is the Bestower of Salvation for All. At this time, He is playing the part of granting salvation. If they had faith in their intellects regarding this point, all the sages and holy men would come here in a second; there would be great chaos in Bharat. If they were to know that this world is now to be destroyed and they had faith in this, there would be a queue from Bombay to Abu. However, no one can have such faith that quickly. You know that destruction has to take place. All of them will remain sleeping in a deep slumber. Then, at the end, your influence will spread. To have faith in the aspect of the God of the Gita being the Supreme Father, the Supreme Soul, Shiva, is not like going to your aunty's home! If this were to become well known, there would be that sound throughout the whole of Bharat. As yet, when you explain to someone, someone else would tell him that a magic spell has been cast on him. This tree has to grow very slowly. There is still a little time left. You still have time to make effort. You explain to prominent people but they don't understand anything. Among you children too, some of you don't understand this knowledge. If there isn't remembrance of the Father, there cannot be that stage. The Father understands what your faith is! As yet, some of you hardly remember the Father even one or two per cent! Although they may be sitting here, they don't have that love for the Father. There has to be love and fortune here. If they had love for the Father, they would understand that they have to follow shrimat at every step. We are becoming the masters of the world. There is the body consciousness of half the cycle and this is why it now takes a lot of effort to become soul conscious. To consider yourself to be a soul and to remember the most beloved Father is not like going to your aunty's home! If they did this, there would be that sparkle on their faces. When a girl gets married and puts on jewellery, there is so much happiness on her face. However, here, some don't even remember the Bridegroom, and so their faces remain wilted, don't even ask! When a girl gets married, her face becomes very happy whereas the faces of some girls remain like that of a corpse even after getting married. There are all sorts! Some become confused when they go to the other home. It is the same here. Effort is needed to remember the Father. It is remembered of the final moments: "Ask the gopes and gopis about supersensuous joy." You have to create the stage of considering yourselves to be gopes and gopis and of having constant remembrance of the Father. Give everyone the Father's introduction. The Father has come and is giving you that inheritance. All the knowledge is included in this. At the end, when Lakshmi and Narayan were completing their 84 births, the Father came and taught them Raja Yoga and gave them their kingdom. The picture of Lakshmi and Narayan is a number one picture. You know that they performed such actions in their previous birth and that the Father is now teaching you how to perform those actions. He says: Become manmanabhav! Remain pure! Don't commit any sin, because you are now becoming charitable souls, the masters of heaven. Maya, Ravan, has made you commit sin for half the cycle. Now, ask yourself: Am I committing any sin? Do I continue to perform charitable actions? Have I become a stick for the blind? The Father says: Become manmanabhav! You have to ask: Who said: Manmanabhav? Those people claim that Krishna said this. You know that the Supreme Father, the Supreme Soul, Shiva, said it. There is the difference of day and night. Together with the birthday of Shiva, there is also the birthday of the Gita. Together with the birthday of the Gita, there is also the birthday of Krishna. You know that you will become the future princes. You have to change from beggars into princes. This is the aim and objective of Raja Yoga. You can prove that the God of the Gita was not Shri Krishna, but the incorporeal One, and then the notion of omnipresence will be thrown out. Only the Father is the Bestower of Salvation for All and the Purifier. He is also called the Liberator. However, people say that He is omnipresent! They don't understand anything they say! They say of religion whatever enters their minds. There are three main religions. The deity religion continues for half the cycle. You know that the Father establishes the Brahmin, deity and warrior religions. The world doesn't know this. They consider the duration of the golden age to be hundreds of thousands of years. The original, eternal deity religion is the most elevated of all religions. However, they have forgotten their own religion and have become irreligious. Christians don't renounce their religion. They know that Christ established their religion. Islam, Buddhism and Christianity are the main religions. Then, there are many other smaller religions. No one knows where this expansion began. It has only been a short time since the existence of Mohammed. Those of Islam are very old. The Christians are also very well known, and then there are so many others. Everyone has his or her own religion. They have their own different religions and different names and have therefore become confused. They don't know that there are only four main religious scriptures. Deityism and Brahmanism are included in those. Brahmins become deities, who then become warriors. No one knows this. It is sung: Salutations to the Brahmins. The Supreme Father, the Supreme Soul, came and established the Brahmin, deity and warrior religions. These terms exist but they read all of these things like parrots. This is a jungle of thorns. People believe that Bharat used to be a garden of flowers. However, no one knows when it was created, how it was created and who created it. They don't know who the Supreme Soul is. Therefore they have become orphans. This is why there is so much battling and fighting. They simply continue to become happy performing devotion. The Father has now come to bring light. He grants you liberation-in-life in a second. When the Satguru gives you the ointment of knowledge, the darkness of ignorance is dispelled. You understand that we are now in the light. The Father has given each of you a third eye. Although the deities have been shown with a third eye, people don't understand the meaning of that. In fact, you have the third eye, but they have shown the deities with the third eye. There is no mention of Brahmins in the Gita. They have shown a war between the Kauravas and the Pandavas and a horse-drawn chariot etc. in the Gita. They don't understand anything. When you explain to them, they tell you: You don't even believe in the scriptures! You can tell them why you don't believe in the scriptures. It is because you know that all of that is the paraphernalia of the path of devotion. Knowledge and devotion are remembered. Devotion begins when Ravan's kingdom begins. The people of Bharat go onto the path of sin and become corrupt in their religion and action, and this is why they now call themselves Hindus. They have now become impure. Who made them impure? Ravan! People burn an effigy of Ravan. They think that that has continued since time immemorial. However, the kingdom of Ravan didn't exist in the golden age. They don't understand anything. Maya has made their intellects into stone completely. Only the Father changes you from stone into divine beings. It is only after you have gone into the iron age that the golden age can be established. The Father explains this, but it scarcely sits in anyone's intellect. You kumaris have now become engaged. He is making you into queens. You were abducted, that is, you souls are told: You belonged to Me and you then forgot Me. You became body conscious and belonged to Maya. However, there is no question of running away or being abducted. Constantly remember Me alone. Only in remembrance is there effort. Many become body conscious and perform sinful actions. The Father knows that some souls don't remember Him at all. They become body conscious and commit a lot of sin and the urn of sin thereby becomes one hundredfold full. Instead of showing the path to others, they themselves forget the path. They then become even more degraded. The destination is very high. Those who climb taste the sweetness of the nectar of heaven. Those who fall are totally crushed. A kingdom is being established. Look how much difference is created! Some study and reach the sky, whereas others fall to the ground. If their intellects are dull, they cannot study. Some tell Baba that they are unable to explain to others. Baba says: OK, just consider yourself to be a soul and remember Me, your Father, and I will grant you happiness. However, you don't remember Me at all! If you remembered the Father, you would also remind others. When you remember the Father, your sins are absolved. You cannot go to the land of happiness unless you remember Him. You can receive an inheritance for 21 births from the incorporeal Father. All the rest only give temporary happiness. When someone has a child or receives blessings to win a lottery through occult power, that faith is then instilled. If someone benefits by two or four million, he praises the one from whom he received it, but all of that is temporary: he cannot receive health or wealth for 21 births. However, human beings don't know anything, so you can't blame them! They simply become happy with temporary happiness. The Father teaches you children Raja Yoga and gives you the sovereignty of heaven. It is so easy! Some are unable to explain anything at all. Some understand, but, because they don't have accurate yoga, the arrow doesn't strike anyone. By becoming body conscious, one sin or another is committed. Yoga is the main thing. It is through the power of yoga that you become the masters of the world. God, not Krishna, taught you ancient yoga. The pilgrimage of remembrance is very good. When you go and see a drama, all the scenes emerge in your mind. However, it would take time to narrate that to someone. It is the same here. The Seed and the tree; this cycle is very clear. It is a matter of a second: the land of peace, the land of happiness and the land of sorrow. However, you should be able to remember that. The main thing is the Father's introduction. The Father says: By remembering Me, you will come to know everything. Achcha. Shiv Baba remembers you children. Brahma Baba doesn't remember you. Shiv Baba knows who His worthy children are. He would of course remember His serviceable, worthy children. This one would not remember anyone. This soul has received the direction: Constantly remember Me alone! Achcha.

To the sweetest, beloved, long-lost and now-found children, love, remembrance and good morning from the Mother, the Father, BapDada. The spiritual Father says namaste to the spiritual children.

Essence for dharna:

1. In order to become fortunate, have true love for the one Father. To have love means to continue to follow shrimat of the One at every step.
2. Definitely perform acts of charity. The biggest act of charity is to give everyone the Father's introduction. Remember the Father and remind everyone of the Father.

Blessing: May you become sensible and do three types of service simultaneously and become an embodiment of success.

According to the present time, you need to do three types of service – through your thoughts, words and deeds – simultaneously. Together with serving through words and deeds, continue to serve through the pure thoughts of your mind with an elevated attitude and the fruit of that will be borne because words can only have power when your mind is powerful. Otherwise, you would be like pandits who simply speak about something because they simply read and repeat everything like parrots. Those who are knowledgeable, that is, sensible do all three types of service simultaneously and attain the blessing of success.

Slogan: To give every soul the experience of peace, power and happiness through your words, deeds and drishti is the greatness of great souls.
