

Essence: Sweet children, become pure and you will become worthy of doing spiritual service. Soul-conscious children stay on the pilgrimage of remembrance and also enable others to stay on this pilgrimage.

Question: How does the income that you children earn at the confluence age become your true income?

Answer: The income you earn at this time lasts for 21 births. Through this income you never become bankrupt. To listen to knowledge and give it to others and to stay in remembrance and inspire others to do the same is the true income that only the true Father teaches you to earn. Throughout the whole cycle, no one else can earn such an income. No other income goes with you.

Song: We have to walk on that path where we fall and we therefore also have to take care.

Om shanti. Children have been stumbling along a great deal on the path of devotion. On the path of devotion, people go on pilgrimages with a lot of love and faith. They listen to the Ramayana etc. They sit and listen to those stories with so much love that they even cry: Our goddess Sita of our god Rama has been abducted by the devil Ravan. When they hear this, they cry. All of those are tall stories through which there is no benefit. They even call out: O Purifier, come! Come and make us unhappy souls happy. Because they say that souls are immune to the effect of action, they don't understand that it is the souls that experience sorrow. They believe that souls are beyond happiness and sorrow. Why do they say this? Because they believe that God is beyond happiness and sorrow, they ask how it is that His children could come into happiness and sorrow. You children now understand all of these things. Even on this path of knowledge, there is sometimes an eclipse of bad omens and sometimes something else happens. Sometimes, your faces are blooming and at other times they wilt. This is a war with Maya. Maya has to be conquered. When someone becomes unconscious, the life giving herb of "Manmanabhav" is given. There is a lot of glamour on the path of devotion. They decorate the idols of the deities so much and put real jewellery on them. The ornaments are the property of the idols. Anything that belongs to the idols then belongs to the priests and trustees of the temple. You children know that you were decorated with many diamonds and jewels in the living form and that you still wore a lot of jewellery when you then became worshippers. Now you don't have anything. You wore them in the living form and also in the non-living form. Now, you have no jewellery; you are completely ordinary. The Father says: I enter an ordinary body. There is no external, kingly splendour. Even sannyasis have a lot of external splendour. You now understand how we souls were so pure in the golden age. Even our bodies were pure. Even their decorations were very beautiful. Those who are beautiful have a keen interest in decorating themselves. When you were beautiful you wore beautiful jewellery; you used to wear big necklaces etc. of diamonds. Here, everything is ugly! Even the cows have become so ugly! When Baba went to Shrinath Dware, there were beautiful cows there. They portray the cows with Krishna as very beautiful. Here, because this is the iron age, just look what all the cows are like! Such cows don't exist there. You children become the masters of the world. Even your decorations there are very beautiful. Just think about it: there would definitely be cows there. The cow dung there will be so rich; fertilizer is needed for the land. When fertilizer is used, the harvest is good. Everything there is very good and nourishing. Here, there is no nourishment in anything. Everything has become completely powerless. Daughters go to the subtle region. They used to eat such large fruit and also drink very sweet juice of the fruit. How the gardeners there would cut the fruit and give it to them were all visions that were granted. There cannot be any fruit etc. in the subtle region; those were just visions. Nevertheless, heaven will exist here. People believe that heaven is up above. Heaven neither exists in the subtle region nor in the incorporeal world; it only exists here. The visions that the daughters had here will then be seen through your physical eyes. The things that everyone has are according to their position. Look how beautiful the palaces of kings are! There are many very good palaces built in Jaipur. When people go there they have to buy tickets just to see the palaces; they have palaces especially open to the public. They themselves live in other palaces. That happens even now in the iron age. This is the impure world. No one considers himself to be impure. You now understand that you were impure. You were of no use and you are now to become beautiful. That world will become first class. Although the palaces in America etc. are first class, they are nothing compared to the palaces there, because the palaces here only give temporary happiness. There are first-class palaces there. There are first-class cows there. There are still cowherds there. Shri Krishna too is called a cowherd. People who look after cows here call themselves cowherds who belong to the dynasty of Krishna. In fact, that cannot be called the dynasty of Krishna. They can be said to belong to the kingdom of Krishna. Wealthy people who have cows would also have cowherds to look after the cows. The word “cowherd” belongs to the golden age. It is a matter of only yesterday. Yesterday, we belonged to the original eternal deity religion and then we became impure and so we began to call ourselves Hindus. When you ask people nowadays if they belong to the original, eternal deity religion or the Hindu religion, they all write that they belong to the Hindu religion. Who established the Hindu religion? Who established the deity religion? No one knows this. Baba asks the question: Tell Me: who established the original eternal deity religion? Shiv Baba is establishing it through Brahma. The original, eternal deity religion was established through the shrimat of Rama or Shiv Baba. Then there was the kingdom of Ravan and people began to indulge in vice. They begin to call themselves Hindus when the path of devotion begins. No one calls himself a deity now. Ravan made you vicious and the Father has come to make you viceless. You are becoming deities by following God’s directions. Only the Father comes and makes you Brahmins into deities. It sits in the intellects of you children, numberwise, how you come down the ladder. You understand that all other human beings are following devilish dictates, whereas you are following God’s directions. You have been coming down the ladder by following Ravan’s dictates. After 84 births you will then take the number one birth. Your Godly intellects understand the beginning, the middle and the end of the whole world. This life of yours is invaluable. It is very great since it is now that the Father comes and purifies you. We are now becoming worthy of doing spiritual service. Those people are physical social workers who remain body conscious. You are soul conscious. You take souls on the spiritual pilgrimage. The Father explains: You were satopradhan and have now become tamopradhan. Those who are satopradhan are called pure whereas those who are tamopradhan are called impure. Alloy is mixed in the souls. It is souls that have to be made satopradhan. The more you stay in remembrance, the purer you will become. Otherwise, you will become less pure and the burden of sins will still remain on your head. All souls are at first pure and then each one’s part is individual. Not everyone can have the same part. The highest part is Baba’s and then there are the parts of Brahma and Saraswati. Those who carry out establishment also then sustain it. Theirs are great parts. First is Shiv Baba and then there are Brahma and Saraswati who take rebirth. Shankar only adopts a subtle form. It isn’t that Shankar takes a body on loan. Krishna has his own body. It is only Shiv Baba who takes a body on loan here. He enters an impure body in the impure world and serves everyone to take them into liberation and liberation-in-life. You first have to go into liberation. Only the one Father is the knowledge-full Father, the Purifier. Only He is called Shiv Baba. It doesn’t seem right to call Shankar ‘Baba’. The term ‘Shiv Baba’ is very sweet. Some offer uck flowers to Shiva and others offer something else. Some still offer milk. The Father continues to explain to you children in many different ways. You children are told that everything depends on yoga. It is only through yoga that your sins will be absolved. Those who have yoga are also able to imbibe knowledge well; they will continue with their own imbibing because they also have to relate knowledge. This is something new. Only those who heard this knowledge directly from God are the ones who hear it. This knowledge will then no longer remain. You are now listening to whatever the Father says at this time. You imbibe it now and you then have to play the part of the reward. It is only now that you hear the knowledge and also relate it to others. This part will not be there in the golden age. There, it is the part of the reward. People study to become barristers and then they earn money working as barristers. This is such a huge income! People of the world don’t know about it at all. You know that the true Father is enabling you to earn a true income through which you will never become bankrupt. You are now earning a true income. It will remain with you for 21 births. That other income doesn’t go with you. This one will go with you and you should therefore occupy yourself in earning this income. These things are not in the intellect of anyone but you children. Among you as well, there are some who forget it again and again. You should not forget the Father or the inheritance. There is only one thing to do: Simply remember the Father from whom you receive an inheritance of 21 births. Your body will also remain free from disease for 21 births. Untimely death will not take place until you reach old age. You children should have so much happiness! The remembrance of the Father is the main thing. It is in this that Maya creates obstacles. She brings storms. Many types of storm come. You say that you will remember the Father, but you are unable to do that. It is in remembrance that many fail. Many are lacking in the subject of yoga. Become as strong as possible in yoga. The knowledge of the Seed and the tree is not a big thing. The Father says: Remember Me! By remembering Me and knowing Me, you will come to know everything. Remembrance contains everything. Remember sweet Baba! Shiv Baba, the Highest on High, is God; He is the most elevated of all. He gives the highest-on-high inheritance for 21 births. He makes you immortal and constantly happy. You become the masters of the land of immortality. Therefore, you should remember such a Father very well. When you don't remember the Father, you remember everything else. Achcha.

To the sweetest, beloved, long-lost and now-found children, love, remembrance and good morning from the Mother, the Father, BapDada. The spiritual Father says namaste to the spiritual children.

Essence for dharna:

1. This Godly life is very, very valuable. Make both the soul and the body pure in this life. Stay on the spiritual pilgrimage and teach others this pilgrimage.
2. Occupy yourself as much as possible, in earning a true income. In order to become free from disease become strong in remembrance.

Blessing: May you have elevated fortune by having the intoxication of your birthright and make your qualifications equal to your aim.

In worldly life, physical wealth is your birthright. Similarly, in Brahmin life, the wealth of divine virtues, Godly happiness and power are your birthright. Let there be the intoxication of your birthright in a natural way and there will then be no need to labour. When you maintain this intoxication, your qualifications will become equal to your aim. Know yourself as you are, how you are, for by knowing and accepting yourself as belonging to the elevated Father and the elevated family, you become one with elevated fortune.

Slogan: Perform every deed while stable in your original stage and you will easily become a star of success.
