

Essence: Sweet children, imbibe the sweet points of knowledge that the Father tells you. Become very sweet like milk and sugar. Never become like salt water.

Question: With which great mantra do you children receive the tilak of the new kingdom?

Answer: At this time, the Father gives you children the great mantra: Sweet, beloved children, remember the Father and your inheritance. While living at home with your family, live like a lotus and you will receive the tilak of the kingdom.

Question: It is said: As is your vision, so the world. Why is there this saying?

Answer: Human beings at this time are impure and ugly and so they accordingly create such images of their worthy-of-worship deities Lakshmi and Narayan and Rama and Sita. They even create images of Shiv Baba in black stone and worship Him. They don't understand what that means. This is why there is this saying.

Song: O man, look in the mirror of your heart!

Om shanti. You sweetest, beloved, long-lost and now-found, children heard a line from the song: Look in the mirror of your heart to see how much you have sinned and how much charity you have performed. By looking in the mirror of your heart consider how much sin and how much charity you have accumulated. This is the world of sinful souls. The golden age is called the world of charitable souls. How could there be charitable souls here? All continue to commit sin because this is Ravan's kingdom. They themselves say: O Purifier, come! We know that Bharat was the land of charitable souls. No one committed sin there. Lion and lamb used to drink water from the same stream; they were like milk and sugar. The Father also says: Children, be like milk and sugar. How could tamopradhan souls exist in the world of charitable souls? The Father has now enlightened you. You know that you were satopradhan deities. There is their praise: Full of all virtues, sixteen celestial degrees full. We ourselves also used to praise them. People say: I am without virtue, I have no virtues. Prabhu, we can become like those when You come and have mercy on us. The soul said this. You souls understand that at this time you are sinful souls. Deities who are worshipped are charitable souls. Everyone goes and bows down at the feet of the deity idols. Sages and holy men also go on pilgrimages to Amarnath and Shrinath Dware. Therefore, this is the world of sinful souls. Bharat was the world of charitable souls when it used to be the kingdom of Lakshmi and Narayan. That was called heaven. When a person dies, people say that he has gone to heaven, but where is heaven? When it was heaven, it was the golden age. People simply say whatever enters their minds; they don't understand anything. If he went to heaven, he must surely have been in hell. When a sannyasi dies, they say that he merged into the light, and so that is something different. To merge into the light means that he is not going to come back here. You know that the place where we souls reside is called the land of nirvana (beyond sound). Vaikunth (Paradise) cannot be called the land of nirvana. Baba tells you children very good, sweet things of knowledge, which you should imbibe very well. You know that Baba has come to show you the path to Paradise. The Father has come to teach us Raja Yoga. He shows us the path to the pure world; He becomes our Guide and takes us back home. Truly, destruction is just ahead. It is the old world that is to be destroyed. Calamities etc. take place in the old world. Baba is so sweet! He becomes the Stick for the Blind. People continue to stumble around in extreme darkness. It is said: The day of Brahma and the night of Brahma. Brahma exists here. The Father comes to change night into day. For half the cycle it is the night and for half the cycle it is the day. You now understand it. People believe that the iron age is still in its infancy. Sometimes it is said: This world is to be destroyed, but they don't understand anything. Nowadays, scarcely anyone leaves his home. For some reason or other, they leave their homes and become sannyasis. The Government issued an ordinance some time ago saying that even sannyasis should have a licence. It shouldn't be that anyone who sulks with his family can go and become a sannyasi. In that case, he would receive a lot of things for nothing. That is limited renunciation whereas yours is unlimited renunciation. At this time, the whole world is impure. It is the task of the one Purifier Father alone to make it pure. In the golden age there used to be the pure household religion. There are still images of Lakshmi and Narayan. People sing praise of the deities: You are full of all virtues. Theirs (sannyasis) is hatha yoga, renunciation of karma. However, there cannot be renunciation of karma. Human beings cannot stay without performing action for even a second. The expression 'renunciation of karma' is wrong. This is karma yoga and Raja Yoga. You were sun-dynasty deities. You know that you have to take 84 births. They also speak of the castes. No one knows about the Brahmin caste. The Father gives you children the great mantra: Continue to remember the Father and your inheritance and you will receive the tilak of the kingdom. Sweetest, beloved children, while living at home with your families, live like a lotus flower. You are not able to achieve as much with anger as you are with love. Become very sweet. Constantly continue to smile in remembrance of the Father. Look at the pictures of the deities. They are so cheerful. You now know that we were those. We were deities and then we became warriors, merchants and shudras. Now, at the confluence age, we have become the mouth-born creation of Brahma. The mouth-born creation of Brahma is God's clan. You receive the Father's inheritance of liberation and liberation-in-life. You know that when it was the kingdom of deities, there were no other religions at that time. Even the moon dynasty didn't exist then. This is something to be understood. They have understood the meaning of 'hum so' to be: The soul is the Supreme Soul. You now know that we are once again becoming deities and then warriors. It is the soul that says: When I, the soul, was pure, I had a pure body. That is the viceless world whereas this is the vicious world. There are the land of sorrow, the land of happiness and the land of peace where all we souls reside. They say: All of us Chinese and Hindus are brothers, but they should also understand the meaning of that. Today they say that they are brothers, and tomorrow they would shoot one another. All souls are brothers. By calling God omnipresent, all become the Father. The Father has to give the inheritance whereas the brothers are to receive the inheritance. There is the difference of day and night. He is the Purifier, is He not? You have to become pure through Him. We want to change from human beings into deities. It is mentioned in the Granth: It didn't take God long to change human beings into deities. It is also remembered: Liberation-in-life in a second. We souls were liberated in life and we are now in a life of bondage. Ravan's kingdom begins with the copper age when the deities go onto the path of sin. They also have signs of that. They have very dirty images of the deities at Jagadnathpuri. Previously, you didn't understand any of that, but you now understand so much. You used to wonder how there could be such dirty images of the deities there. Inside, they have dark images of Jagadnath. At Shrinath Dware, too, they have dark images. No one knows why they have shown dark images of Jagadnath. They say of Krishna that he was bitten by a snake. What happened to Rama? They show an ugly image of Narayan too. They also have a Shivalingam of black stone. They show everyone ugly. As is their vision, so is their world. At this time, all are impure and ugly and so they have shown God ugly too. At first, they used to worship Shiva by creating a lingam of diamonds. Now all of those things have disappeared. These are most valuable things. Antique things are given so much value. It is now 2,500 years since worship began. Therefore, they must be that old, no more than that. The most ancient images are those of the deities. They say that they are hundreds of thousands of years old. You now know that 5000 years ago Bharat became heaven and that it is now the iron age. Destruction is just ahead; everyone has to go back. Only the Father takes everyone back. You became Brahmins through Brahma and then you will carry out sustenance there as deities. These things are not mentioned in the Bhagawad Gita. The Father says: This knowledge disappears. Lakshmi and Narayan are not trikaldarshi and so how could this knowledge have continued from time immemorial? At this time you are trikaldarshi. You do the best service at this time. So, you are true, spiritual social workers. You are now becoming soul conscious. How can the alloy that is in the soul be removed? The Father is also the Jeweller. When the alloy of iron was mixed into the gold, the soul became impure. So, how can the soul now become pure? The Father says: O soul, constantly remember Me alone. The Purifier Father gives you shrimat. God speaks: O souls, you have alloy mixed in you. You are now impure. A great soul (mahatma) cannot be impure. There is just one method: Constantly remember Me alone. Your sins will be absolved with this fire of yoga. There are so many ashrams. They have put up so many pictures of different types of hatha yoga. This is the bhatthi (furnace) of yoga or remembrance. You may live at home with your family and prepare food etc. and look after your children, but you do have time in the morning. It is said: O mind of mine, remember Rama early in the morning! The intellect is in the soul. They perform devotion early in the morning. You too wake up early in the morning and remember the Father and have your sins absolved. All the rubbish will be removed and you souls will become pure. You will then also receive pure bodies. You souls now don't even have two carats left! There has to be the account of the 84 births of the deities of Bharat. The world history and geography are now being repeated. However, no one knows what its duration is. They don't even know the duration of the cycle. The Father says: I have come to give you shrimat and to make you elevated. Only through the fire of remembrance will the alloy be removed. There is no other method. You children have to be courageous. Don't be afraid. Why should children whose Father is God, the Protector, Himself, be afraid of anything? What curse can anyone give you? None at all! Achcha.

To the sweetest, beloved, long-lost and now-found children, love, remembrance and good morning from the Mother, the Father, BapDada. The spiritual Father says namaste to the spiritual children.

Essence for dharna:

1. Do everything you have to do with love, not with anger. Remain constantly cheerful by remembering the Father. Constantly continue to smile like the deities.
2. Through the fire of remembrance remove the alloy mixed in the soul. Have your sins absolved. Become courageous and do service. Don't be afraid.

Blessing: May you make your stage free from any sinful thoughts by stopping the intense flow of waste thoughts in a second and thereby become greatly fortunate.

When you make a mistake, then after making that mistake, do not waste your time in “Why? What? How? Not like that, but like this” etc. For the amount of time you spend in thinking about it, you put that many stains on top of stains. The time of a test paper is short, but the sanskar of waste thoughts increases the time of that paper. So, stop the intense flow of waste thoughts in a second with the power of transformation and your stage will become free from any sinful thoughts. When this sanskar emerges, you will then be said to be a fortunate soul.

Slogan: Become full of the treasure of happiness and all other treasures will automatically come.
