

Essence: Sweet children, never come into conflict with anyone and stop studying. By stopping this study you will end up in the stomach of Maya, the alligator.

Question: Because this is not a common satsang, which aspect does the Father repeatedly have to caution you children about?

Answer: 1. This satsang is not like the satsangs of the world. Here, you receive instructions to become pure, but Maya creates obstacles in the way of your becoming pure. This is why the Father repeatedly has to caution you: Children, whatever happens, don't ever stop studying due the influence of happiness or sorrow or praise or defamation.
2. Don't consider yourself to be clever and defame others. Maya is very mischievous. If you sulk with the Father and stop studying, Maya scalps you and you experience bad omens. Therefore, continue to take shrimat. Never make comments about the advice that BapDada gives you.

Song: To live in Your lane and to die in Your lane.

Om shanti. You children understand and say: Now that we belong to You, this old world has to be destroyed. This is Ravan's unlimited Lanka (island) which has to be destroyed. They show Lanka as Ceylon, but that is totally false. Ceylon is an island in the ocean. The unlimited Father explains that the whole world is in the ocean; the ocean is all around it. They have shown Vasco de Gama going around the world and discovering that water was all around the land. Therefore, this is an unlimited island. Ravan's kingdom is over the unlimited island. This is the unlimited Lanka; it is not just Ceylon. This is that period now. So many tall stories have been written in the scriptures. We also used to think that it was perhaps like that; we had no other thoughts! You would only wonder about this if you were to think about it. Intellects were completely locked up. The locks on your intellects have now opened. Human beings think that God took an army of monkeys and that they built a bridge with stones and set everything on fire. They have written so many things. It is at this time that the whole world is to be set ablaze. Bharat is the imperishable birthplace of the imperishable Father. This is why it is called an imperishable land. It is now in your intellects that Bharat is definitely the ancient and imperishable land. All the other lands that exist now are to finish in the flames of destruction. The flames of destruction are to be ignited from this sacrificial fire. The war begins from here. These are just small rehearsals. It is in your intellects that Ravan's kingdom is over the whole world. It is now at its end and the kingdom of Rama is to begin. These things cannot enter the intellect of anyone else. Only we few Brahmins know and understand that the whole world is to end and that we will become the garland around Baba's neck and then go to the new world. The history and geography of the world repeat identically. This cycle is very good. At the moment, it is the end of the iron age and the beginning of the golden age and all the religions are definitely here. History must repeat, that is, the golden age will definitely come after the iron age, just as night follows day and day follows night. It is impossible for night not to come. The Father comes and explains all of these significant aspects. It also has to be understood how we are actors and how we take 84 births. It is not a question of 8.4 million births. The duration of the cycle is only 5000 years. Those people tell you that it is not written like this in the scriptures, that this is your imagination. Due to not knowing these things, they are bound to say that. People continue to study the scriptures, but they can't be blamed. Baba says: Those stories from the scriptures and those novels will not exist in the golden age. There, Bharat will have become the land of absolute truth. The land of Bharat is the greatest pilgrimage place of all. The Somnath Temple here is magnificent. Such a temple cannot be built anywhere else. These temples etc. will be created again. When will they be created again? They will be created again when the path of devotion begins again. No one else can build them. You can even tell at what time they were built: Devotion began at such and such a time. Lakshmi and Narayan are the first ones to become worshippers. They will only have a single crown at that time. Then, they will build the Somnath Temple to Shiv Baba. Mahmud Guznavi will also come again and loot it. Only the Father explains all of these things to you children. It is said that when God comes, He gives so much knowledge of the Gita that, if the whole ocean were to turn to ink and all the forests into pens, they would still not be able to write all of the knowledge. Yet they have created such a small Gita! It is even possible to get a Gita in a locket, because it is something very valuable. They have so much love for the Gita. Baba even put one in a very small gold box and gave it as a present. You children now understand that the Ocean of Knowledge continues to give limitless knowledge and will continue to do so until the end. Is it possible to collect all of these murlis together? These are not things to keep. At least the scriptures are useful on the path of devotion! Of what use will all that you write be? On the one hand, you produce two to four thousand murlis, whereas they produce the Gita by the millions in all languages. There is great respect for the Gita, the jewel of all the scriptures. So many people study the Gita and scriptures etc. The Father explains: The knowledge that you receive is completely new; no scripture of it could have been written. How does God teach Raja Yoga? Only you Brahmins now understand this. There are very few among you who maintain the intoxication of this knowledge. Today, they have this intoxication and tomorrow, it is forgotten. When the Father is forgotten, knowledge is also forgotten. If you divorce the Father, everything comes to an end. If, after belonging to the Father, you indulge in vice, your throat chokes, you would not be able to say anything. Those who used to spread knowledge very well are no longer here. They had some conflict with a Brahma Kumar or Kumari, and they then became upset with Baba, saying that Baba didn't tell that person or didn't do this until, finally, they sulked and left the study. This is why the Father says: If you want to see a great fool, you can see one here. Some even write: Baba, I am Yours; I will always claim the inheritance of imperishable happiness from You. However, they then divorce Baba! There were some very good daughters, but they are not here today. It is a wonder! They have gone into the stomach of Maya, the alligator, and are not able speak any knowledge. They cannot speak imperishable knowledge. Then they begin to comment on the advice that BapDada gives. A lot is explained to them: Now reform yourself. Only in that is there benefit. However, they do not reform themselves. Many good children have left and gone away. Even now, there are many children who are just standing on the side. Even after writing a promise in blood, they leave. You children should follow the Father's shrimat completely and claim your full inheritance from the Father. The Father continues to explain: No matter what happens – praise or defamation, happiness or sorrow – don't stop studying. If some defame others, it is because they don't have knowledge in their intellects. They don't even understand whether this one is a junior brother or a senior brother. Only the Father knows this. You mustn't consider yourself to be so clever and simply praise yourself. Maya is very mischievous. She scalps those who are body conscious. Baba continues to caution you children: If you don't follow shrimat, Maya can attack you from all sides. This is not a common satsang. You sit and explain with so much patience how the cycle of this world rotates and how you have become spinners of the discus of self-realization. The Father says: You, the decoration of the Brahmin clan, are spinners of the discus of self-realization. You are known as those with the conch shell, the discus, the mace and the lotus. People say to Baba: You have applied the praise of the deities to your children. The Father says: You are the ones who are spinners of the discus of self-realization, the ones who are to become as pure as a lotus and the ones with a mace. The Father sits here and explains this. What would the world know? They even say that the Bestower of Salvation for All is only One. They also sing that when the Satguru gives the ointment of knowledge, the darkness of ignorance is dispelled, that is, the night of Brahma comes to an end. When the Sun of Knowledge rises, the night of Brahma ends and the day begins. The Supreme Father, the Supreme Soul, comes and gives new knowledge through Brahma. Previously, you didn't understand anything; you did not know the soul or the Supreme Soul, the Creator or the creation. You became those with completely impure intellects. What had you been made into? You were the masters of heaven. Now that you have taken 84 births, the end has to come. It is now your stage of ascent. The Father says: Remember Me alone and you will become the masters of the world. Common sense says that the Supreme Father, the Supreme Soul, is the Creator of heaven, and so why are we not in heaven? It doesn't enter people's intellects that God created the new world of heaven where deities ruled the kingdom. Five thousand years ago, there was heaven and God has come once again to establish heaven. If these things sit well in people's intellects, they are very fortunate. Maya is such that she doesn't allow you to make effort at all. She grabs hold of you by your nose, punches you and makes you totally unconscious. This is boxing. Baba says: Maya makes souls fall in a second. They become liberated in life in a second and also enter a life of bondage in a second. The soul divorces Baba and everything is destroyed. When there is faith, the soul claims the kingdom, but when doubts come, it is all over. This is a very wonderful play. Baba says: Awaken early in the morning and churn the ocean of knowledge, because you don't have any other time during the day. The atmosphere at night is bad. People also perform devotion early in the morning. You children know that Baba used to wake up at one or two am and write a murli and you would study that and take class. Then Baba would listen to how you spoke the murli. All of this is the wonder of Shiv Baba. So many good children have left; they are not here today. Maya completely cursed them. The Father is giving the inheritance. Therefore, you children should make full effort and claim your inheritance. You can clearly understand for yourselves and the Father also understands when you let go of the Father's hand. Then, everyone would say: You have left the Brahma Kumaris! You, who had the faith that you were claiming the unlimited inheritance! So, what has now happened that you don't even listen to the murli? It means that you can't be remembering the Father either! Then that remembrance etc. also disappears. Such degradation should not come to any child. The Father understands that such and such a child has become very bad. Many good children are spoiled by bad company. Baba says that only first-class children can become beads of the rosary of victory. Many children write: Baba, I will definitely become a bead of your rosary. Baba then says: If you do, it's a very great fortune. Baba also understands everything from your behaviour. Children's faithfulness and trustworthiness are proved through service. Become very sweet. When you listen personally, you have disinterest and you feel: I will never do something like this again; I will only do this (what the Father says). However, when the soul leaves here, that's it: it's all over; everything is forgotten. These are such wonderful things! Baba thinks day and night that a huge image of the cycle should be shown through a projector so that it can be read very clearly from a distance. It should be shown very clearly on walls. Each slide of the pictures should also be so large that anyone can read it. Two large images of the cycle should also be visible. The path of devotion begins from this place. First of all, devotion is unadulterated and later it becomes adulterated. This Brahma is the worthy son of Shiv Baba. If anyone were to ask Brahma a question, would he not be able to give an answer? Shiv Baba may know, but I too can explain. Baba has made him His right hand because he must have understood something. Achcha.

To the sweetest, beloved, long-lost and now-found children, love, remembrance and good morning from the Mother, the Father, BapDada. The spiritual Father says namaste to the spiritual children.

Essence for dharna:

1. Awaken early in the morning and churn the ocean of knowledge. Don't ever let your intellect develop doubt or stop studying due to the influence of bad company.
2. In order to become a bead of the rosary, be faithful and trustworthy. Let your activity be royal. Become extremely sweet.

Blessing: May you be constantly powerful and finish all waste by the method of keeping the intellect busy.

Only those who use the method of keeping their intellects busy become constantly powerful and strong. The easy way to finish all waste and to become powerful is to remain constantly busy. Therefore, just as you make your daily timetable every morning, so also make a timetable to keep your intellect busy: At this time, I will finish all waste with this powerful thought. If you remain busy, Maya will turn back from a distance.

Slogan: In order to forget the world of sorrow, remain constantly lost in love for God.
