

Essence: Sweet children, you have to claim the kingdom through your study. This study will make you doubly crowned. You are establishing your own kingdom for yourselves.

Question: In which task do people make a lot of effort but are unable to accomplish anything, because it is the task of the Father alone?

Answer: To make the peaceless world peaceful is the task of the Father alone. People make effort for everyone to unite and for there to be peace in the whole world. They even give peace prizes to one another, but they do not know that there used to be peace in the world when it was the kingdom of Rama and that, because it is now the kingdom of Ravan, there cannot be any peace here.

Om shanti. It has entered the hearts of you children that the Father from beyond this world has come to take you away. Where will He take you? To the land of peace. Then what will happen? Those who have studied well will go to the land of happiness. You have to go there via the land of liberation. The soul understands that the unlimited Father has come to give happiness. You can stay in this remembrance throughout the whole day. Those who have no faith cannot come here. You are God's children. Baba also understands that He has come in front of the children. He truly came into the impure, degraded world a cycle ago. Everyone here is degraded and everyone there is elevated. As are the king and queen, so the subjects. This is a play about the Godly community and the devilish community.

Song: Who created this play and hid Himself away?

When this song is played, it should enter your hearts that it was Baba who made you very elevated. The highest-on-high Father would definitely make you elevated. There is a lot of praise of such a Father. When someone does something, he is praised: This one is very good in such-and-such a business; So-and-so is very clever. Everyone definitely has at least one virtue. The praise of the Supreme Father, the Supreme Soul, is the greatest of all. Each human being has received his own part. The Supreme Father, the Supreme Soul, has received the greatest part of all. Who are the main actors in this drama? They have shown the Pandavas and the Kauravas. Then, on the other side, they have shown the great guru Bhishampitamai etc. Bhishampitamai was someone who was celibate from birth. Dronacharya, Ashvathama etc. are the names of the scholars and pundits. Scholars do not battle on a battlefield; it is not the law. It is said that the body is false and Maya is false. Ravan makes you false and Rama makes you true. The Supreme Father, the Supreme Soul, is called the Truth. God is Truth. There is only one God. However, all of those who explain about the Creator and creation tell lies. All of these are aspects of knowledge. Baba comes and explains what true knowledge is and what false knowledge is. The knowledge of the Gita of Bharat has disappeared, for only some signs remain, like a pinch of salt in a sackful of flour. The Father says: I come and explain to you children the essence of the Vedas and scriptures. The Gita is the main one in which the versions of God are mentioned. The Father says: You have written the name 'God Krishna', but the Father comes and explains: The one whom you call God is actually the first prince of the golden age. He took leave from Me first of all and came here from the land of liberation to become a prince of the golden age. Achcha, there is so much praise of Shri Krishna, but he must also have had a father. As is the father, so the child. So, where is the praise of the father of Krishna? From whom did he claim the inheritance? Shri Krishna existed at the beginning of the golden age. After marriage, they became Lakshmi and Narayan. They were so wealthy! Where did they get so much wealth from? At present they do not have anything. What happened? Where did they receive all those materials from and how? Who gave them those? You children know that the unlimited Father educated them. Through this study, you are truly going to become kings of the golden age. The people who become vicious kings for a temporary period do not become that through knowledge. Those who make many donations take birth in a wealthy home. Here, you become kings and emperors by studying, and that, too, doubly crowned! So, it is said that God did everything and then hid Himself away. All of you children know that Baba gave you the kingdom and that you were very happy. The worship of the deities is so beautiful! If you wish to see worship, then go to Shrinathdware. People offer so many treasures and rich food to the non-living images of the deities, and so what wouldn't their food etc. be like when they are the masters? That is the new world. New land gives very good grain. When it becomes old it loses its strength. You children have had visions of that. The Father explains: It was like that, was it not? What happened then? The five vices of Maya came and stuck onto you and you became thorns. There is a thorn bush which has many thorns. This is called the forest of thorns. Each human being is now a thorn; they continue to use the sword of lust. This has become the kingdom of Ravan because Maya came and stuck herself to you. You are in an incognito form; no one knows you. You are following shrimat exactly as you did a cycle ago; not just one cycle ago, but you sit identically every cycle and receive the teachings of Raja Yoga from the Father. You are non-violent ones. You are the unknown ones. You know yourselves, but the world doesn't know that you Shaktis are establishing your divine kingdom over the whole world with the power of yoga in an incognito way. Each of you is making effort to claim your own kingdom. Those soldiers fight for their emperor, but you are doing everything for yourselves. You are, once again, making Bharat golden aged. Those who make it like that then go and rule there; which means that you serve Bharat in an incognito way. You receive the reward of whatever you do. Those who make effort and become kings, queens or subjects will come here. They will go and rule in Bharat. You are the Shiv Shakti Pandava Army. The name "Pandava" is given to guides. The Father has explained that He is the main spiritual Guide. There are males and also females among the Pandavas, because this is the family path. However, there is no question of a war. Look at what has been written in the scriptures! They have shown so many names. The Father sits here and explains that all of that is fixed in the drama. They say that they will attain God by performing devotion, that He will give them the fruit of their devotion, that is, He will grant salvation. Then, in the golden age, there is no worship or devotion etc. The religion of renunciation only came into existence later; they cannot come in the golden age. You now know who used to rule in heaven and what religion existed then. The Father comes and establishes the deity religion and so all the other religions are destroyed. You belong to the Godly community, whereas those people belong to the devilish community. This is the impure world. All of you now say that you are the children of God. Who is God? Incorporeal Shiva; not Brahma. People think that the brahm element is God. They would not call the element of brahm the Supreme Father, the Supreme Soul. They call themselves God or give themselves the name 'brahm gyani,' but that has no meaning. Brahm is the great element where we souls reside. Souls are even called saligrams. When a sacrificial fire of Rudra is created, people make a large lingam to represent the Supreme Father, the Supreme Soul, and small saligrams. However, it is not like that: the Supreme Soul is not bigger than souls; no. He is called the Supreme Father, Paramatma, the Supreme Soul. He is the soul who resides in the supreme abode. Souls remember Baba through their organs. You now know all of these things. Who is the Creator and what is the beginning, middle and end of creation and who are the main actors? How do they play their parts? How many births does each one take? There must be this account. However, there is no need to go into the detail of this. The Father says: Children, this is your birth of performing charity. It is right that you have taken 84 births, but this is your birth of performing charity to bring benefit. We are now going to experience benefit and this is why this is said to be the beneficial age and the beneficial birth. No one knows about this confluence. They have said that God comes at the confluence age, and so they have shown four confluence ages. The Father says: All of those confluences are of the age of descending. When it changes from the golden age to the silver age two degrees are reduced and then even more are reduced in the copper age as you continue to become impure. This is the tree of the variety of religions. There are so many religions and there is so much peacelessness! You children now know that there cannot be peacelessness in heaven. Here, many receive peace prizes, but there is no peace. They make effort to unite and become one. Even the Pope says that there should be oneness and that all are brothers and yet why do they not get on with one another? They do not know anything about the drama. When there was just the kingdom of Rama throughout the world, there was peace. However, it is now the kingdom of Ravan and there are innumerable religions, and so it is the task of the Father alone to make this peaceless world peaceful. It is a question of the whole world and so, of course, the World Father would have this concern. The Father says: I alone bring peace to the world. There used to be peace in Bharat. I take the peaceless souls back home with Me. The World Godfather has to come for world peace. It is His part alone. It is said that He does everything, grants peace and happiness to everyone and then hides Himself away. He hides Himself in such a way that no one knows Him in the golden and silver ages. No one knows Him in the copper or iron ages either - not until He comes and gives His own introduction. The deities do not know Him. They know about their own souls, but they do not know about the Creator. The Father says: This knowledge disappeared. All of those temples and scriptures that have been created are to end. Not a single item from the path of devotion will remain. The Father now says: Simply remember Me, your Father, and finish your attachment to everyone else. Sannyasis cannot say this; they belong to the path of isolation. You have to change from pure to impure and impure to pure. Sannyasis also have parts according to the drama. If they didn't exist, Bharat would be even more sorrowful. The main thing is purity. With the power of purity and by following the shrimat of the Father, you make the impure world pure. We souls will go back with Baba. We will go there, having become pure. This pilgrimage is very wonderful. “O traveller of the night, do not become weary.” The golden age is called the day. First, you will go to your sweet home and you will then go into the day. You are Brahmins on a spiritual pilgrimage. So many matters have to be understood. The more you remember the Father, the higher the status you will claim. The income is very high. If you do not remember Baba, you will be burnt to ashes. You do have to make a little effort. You remember your worldly father while sitting, standing, walking etc. So, why do you forget your Father from beyond this world? Are you not ashamed? Do you ever forget your worldly father? Yet you forget your Father from beyond this world from whom you receive the inheritance of heaven! So, what status would you claim if you even forgot your inheritance? You should tell people with tact that Baba has now come. We do not even need these bodies now. This knowledge is very sweet, and the One who gives it is also very sweet. For half a cycle, you have been remembering Him in sorrow. “Baba, liberate us from all our sorrows.” He is now liberating us from all sorrows, but only if we follow His directions. I am your Father, so why do you say: “Baba, we forget You?” You are children, are you not? You will go to the land of peace and the land of happiness, will you not? Can you not remember Me, your Father? I will make you doubly crowned. So, you children reply: Yes Baba, we will remember You. However, you then say: Baba, we forgot You. It is a wonder that you receive the inheritance of heaven and yet you forget Him! Achcha.

To the sweetest, beloved, long-lost and now-found children, love remembrance and good morning from the Mother, the Father, BapDada. The spiritual Father says namaste to the spiritual children.

Essence for dharna:

1. By following the Father’s shrimat, you have to do the service of making this impure world pure with the power of purity. You have to establish your kingdom for yourself.
2. Constantly remember the Father from beyond this world, who is the sweetest of all, and from whom you receive the inheritance of heaven and claim your kingdom with the power of yoga.

Blessing: May you be a world benefactor and receive the fruit and power of service by having the awareness of your occupation.

While carrying out any work, never forget your occupation. Just as the Pandavas worked in an incognito way, but had the intoxication of being victorious, similarly, although you may be a government servant doing your mundane work, let there be the intoxication of being a world benefactor. By having this awareness you will automatically remain powerful and, because of constantly having the intention to serve, you will continue to receive the fruit and power of service. It has been remembered that you definitely receive the fruit of your intentions. So, your intention to serve many souls will give the fruit of peace and power.

Slogan: Keep your Godly student form constantly in your awareness and Maya will not then be able to come to you.
