

Essence: Sweet children, you Brahmins, the mouth-born progeny of Brahma, must definitely follow shrimat in order to claim your full inheritance from the unlimited Father for 21 births.

Question: What preparations are you children making? What is your plan?

Answer: You are making preparations to go to the land of immortality. Your plan is to change Bharat into heaven. You are engaged in the service of changing Bharat into heaven with your mind, your bodies and your wealth. You are the Father's complete helpers. Your new kingdom is being established with the power of non-violence, whereas human beings are making plans for destruction.

Song: Mother, o Mother! You are the Bestower of Life for all.

Om shanti. Whose praise did you hear? That of two mothers: one is the praise of the Father as the Mother and the Father. The praise of the Incorporeal too is: You are the Mother and the Father; because if He is the Father, then there is definitely a mother. You understand that the Supreme Father, the Supreme Soul, has to create the world, and so a mother is definitely needed. The Father has to enter an ordinary body. Shiv Jayanti and Shiv Ratri are remembered. The Supreme Father, the Supreme Soul, definitely incarnates, but for what? In order to create the new creation and to destroy the old creation. He creates through Brahma. A worldly father is also a limited Brahma, because he creates a limited creation with his wife. Only their children call them 'mother' and 'father'; no one else does so: You are our mother and father and we are your children. Here, it is a question of many children, for Prajapita Brahma has many children. Therefore, the unlimited Father would have definitely created the Brahmin clan, that is, the Brahmin caste, through the lotus mouth of Brahma. This one gives birth through his mouth, whereas those parents give birth as a result of sin, and so this praise cannot apply to them. This praise is of the unlimited Mother and Father: You are the Mother and the Father, You have come and made us belong to You. That's it! We receive a lot of happiness from You for 21 births. So, you have become the grandchildren of Shiv Baba through the mouth of Brahma. Jagadamba, Saraswati becomes a mouth-born creation through Brahma. It is sung in Bharat: You are our Mother and Father. So, surely, the world mother and the world father are needed. Through their mouths you have become adopted children. You receive the inheritance from Shiv Baba, not from this Brahma. The one whom He has entered is called the mother. An inheritance is not received from the mother; an inheritance is always received from the father. You are receiving the inheritance from the unlimited Father. All of this praise has been sung on the path of devotion, so He definitely has to come here later on. The children are experiencing a lot of sorrow. The land of happiness has to come after the land of sorrow. In the golden age, there is satopradhan happiness and in the silver age it is a little less because there are two celestial degrees less. In the copper and the iron ages there is even less. This cycle has to continue to turn. You children understand that the unlimited Father creates heaven, but He definitely has to create the subtle region first because Brahma is definitely needed. Shiv Baba adopts Brahma. He says: You belong to Me. Then this one says: Baba, I belong to You too. Therefore, Brahma takes birth from Shiva. Shiv Baba has three children. He tells you the biography of the three. This corporeal Brahma will later become the avyakt Brahma, and you children of the corporeal Brahma will also become the children of the subtle Brahma. These are very deep matters. The Supreme Father, the Supreme Soul, is the Creator of the world. He first creates heaven. The inheritance of heaven has to be received from the Father. Everyone is now in hell, but the inheritance must have been given to us when we were created. The Father says: I am now creating you. I came 5000 years ago too and created the Brahmin clan through Brahma. This is the sacrificial fire of knowledge created by Rudra, which can only be looked after by Brahmins. So, you are the Brahmins who are the mouth-born creation of Brahma. Those brahmins are born through vice; they cannot be called Brahmins who are the mouth-born creation of Brahma. You children are now the mouth-born creation of Brahma. Brahmins are definitely needed first. From what were the Brahmins converted? The shudra caste existed here, but you children are now in the Brahmin caste. You have been raised from the feet to the stage of the topknot and you will later change from Brahmins into deities. These castes are of those who belong to the original deity religion, not of those who belong to other religions. For 21 births you are in the deity clan. The Brahmin clan is for one birth or even one and a half births, because children who depart with these sanskars can come once again and take knowledge. So the Father explains: Children, if you want to become the masters of heaven, you must definitely become pure. You have been drowning for 63 births and you are now in great sorrow. It is a question of the whole of Bharat; it is not that the whole of Bharat is happy at this time. Yes, there are many wealthy ones in Bharat. A child who is a millionaire came. However, his legs and arms do not function and so that is sorrow. If even one person in the whole world has sorrow, that world is the land of sorrow. Not a single one experiences sorrow in the golden age. Bharat was the land of happiness. Who created heaven? The Father! Therefore, we children have a right to that. Five thousand years ago, we definitely were in heaven. It is even said: Three thousand years before Christ, God came and spoke the Gita. Therefore, the time span, 5000 years, is accurate. It has been 2000 years since Christ, and that was 3000 years before Christ and so God has now come to speak the Gita again. Truly, the deity religion has now disappeared. You children are also here; you are the Pandavas, the ones whose Support is the God of the Gita. He is incorporeal. The expression 'Rudra gyan yagya' is also in the scriptures. In fact, there is also 'Shiv Ratri' (the Night of Shiva). There is the term 'Shiv Jayanti'. 'Rudra Jayanti' and 'Rudra Ratri' cannot be used. Why is the term 'Shiv Ratri' used? At present, it is the unlimited night and there is unlimited darkness. The Father says: I come at the time of the unlimited night, for the day is now about to come. My birth does not take place like those of physical human beings. Krishna took birth through the palace of the womb of his mother. You children now understand that you are receiving a great deal of happiness of heaven from the Mother and the Father. The world does not know which sparrow is called heaven or hell. (Bharat was called the Golden Sparrow). You are now studying here. You follow shrimat. By following shrimat you become Shri Lakshmi and Shri Narayan of heaven. Since they are the masters of the golden age, their last and 84th birth, must surely have been at the end of the iron age. They must have studied Raja Yoga at that time; not only one, but the whole sun-dynasty clan studies Raja Yoga. They are the ones who come and claim the inheritance of the sun and the moon dynasties from the unlimited Father. The Father says: Now, promise Me that you will remain pure, because I am establishing the pure world. For 63 births you were impure and that is why you were in sorrow. You were very happy in heaven. Bharat, which has become like a shell, will once again become like a diamond. That One is the only Father who says: I have come once again to teach you Raja Yoga. The unlimited Father says: Become pure for this last birth; drink nectar given by this Mother and Father and renounce drinking poison. Come down from the pyre of lust and sit on the pyre of knowledge. You are receiving shrimat. Those who do not have the faith that they are claiming the inheritance say: Baba, it is very difficult to renounce poison. Oh! but you are to receive happiness for 21 births. Can you not renounce poison for that? By performing devotion, doing penance and tapasya etc., you receive limited happiness; you receive unlimited happiness from the unlimited Father. The Father says: I even uplift the sages. Because they do not know Shiv Baba, none of them can attain salvation. No one is able to return home. If they were to know the path to the Father's home, they would be able to come and go. Everyone has to take rebirth and go through the stages of sato, rajo and tamo. This is known as false Maya, the false body and the false world. Each scripture is remembered in the name of the founder of its particular religion, and they are known as their religious scriptures. What did Christ do when he came? He himself came, and then all the souls of his clan had to follow him. Expansion continues to take place. Now, people are being converted to Christianity, although mostly it is Hindus who are converted, because they do not know about their own religion. You now understand that you will go into the deity clan. The Shri Krishna soul is also studying now. However, because it is the time of the confluence, all the stories have been mixed together. All the images etc. are the paraphernalia of the path of devotion. The Supreme Father, the Supreme Soul, is the Ocean of Knowledge. Everyone receives salvation from Him. There will be very few in the golden age. All others will then have settled their karmic accounts and returned to the land of liberation. They will receive peace whilst you are receiving happiness. You are now studying in order to claim unlimited happiness. Those who have it in their parts will continue to make effort every cycle. Those who become Brahmins will become the masters of heaven, though it is numberwise according to your efforts. The sapling of the deity religion is now being planted and those who came here a cycle ago will come again. The drama will definitely inspire you to make effort. At this time, everyone has a stone intellect. Those with divine intellects are in the golden age. The subjects as well as the rulers have divine intellects. You are now the Pandava Army and you are laying the foundation of heaven with the Father's help. You are making a plan for heaven; you are preparing to go to the land of immortality. The plans that everyone else are making are all for their own destruction. You are non-violent; all others are violent. The violent ones fight among themselves and destroy each other. There will then be cries of victory. You children understand that, according to the drama, those who came in the previous cycle are the ones who will come again and expansion will take place. Some belong to the Father and then divorce Him. The Father says: If you follow shrimat, you become an emperor or empress of the sun dynasty. It is a question of making effort here. Those people have been telling stories from the scriptures in an interesting way and people have been listening to them. Whilst listening, they continue to become residents of hell, the celestial degrees continue to decrease. They say that their husband is their god and yet they still adopt a guru! The degrees continue to decrease. The world has to become tamopradhan. The Father speaks to souls. He says: Sweet children, your 84 births are now over. Now become soul conscious and remember Me alone! Achcha.

To the sweetest, beloved, long-lost and now-found children, love, remembrance and good morning from the Mother, the Father, BapDada. The spiritual Father says namaste to the spiritual children.

Essence for dharna:

1. Be true Brahmins and take care of this Rudra gyan yagya. Just as corporeal Brahma becomes subtle, you have to make effort to become subtle in the same way.
2. In order to become happy for 21 births, promise the Father that you will remain pure for this one birth. Leave the pyre of lust and sit on the pyre of knowledge. You must definitely follow shrimat.

Blessing: May you be constantly wealthy and make everyone content with your spiritual sympathy. In today's world, there are many who have wealth (sampatti), but the greatest need is for the wealth of sympathy. Whether someone is poor or rich, no one has sympathy today. You have the wealth of sympathy and so, even if you do not give others anything else, you can make everyone content with your sympathy. In terms of the Godly family, your spiritual sympathy can fulfil all desires for the body, mind and wealth.

Slogan: Make courage your companion in every task and you will definitely be successful.
