

Essence: Sweet children, you have to become rup and basant (an embodiment of yoga who showers knowledge) the same as the Father. Imbibe knowledge and yoga and then donate according to the personality.

Question: What system continues from the copper age, a system which the Father stops at the confluence age?

Answer: The system of bowing at someone's feet continues from the copper age. Baba says: Here, you don't need to bow at anyone's feet. I am Abhogta (beyond any effect of experience), Asochta (One who is free from thoughts) and Akarta (One who doesn't do anything). You children are even greater than the Father because children are the masters of all the property of the Father. Therefore, I, the Father, salute you masters. You don't need to bow down at all. Yes, regard does has to be given to young and old.

Song: The rain of knowledge is for those who are with the Beloved.

Om shanti. There is rain every year. That is the rain of water and this is the rain of knowledge which happens every cycle. This is the impure world, hell. It is also called the ocean of poison and it is because of this poison, that is, the fire of lust, that Bharat has become ugly. The Father says: I, the Ocean of Knowledge, make you beautiful with the rain of knowledge. Everyone in Ravan's kingdom has become ugly. I make everyone pure once again. No impure soul resides in the incorporeal world. No one impure resides in the golden age either. This is now the impure world. So the rain of knowledge is needed for everyone. The whole world becomes pure through the rain of knowledge. No one in the world knows that they have become ugly and impure. There is no one impure in the golden age. The whole world there is pure. There is no name or trace of anyone impure and this is why they show Vishnu in ocean of milk. People don't know the meaning of that. You understand that Vishnu is the dual-form of Lakshmi and Narayan. They say that rivers of ghee flow there and so there would surely be an ocean of milk also. People speak of God Vishnu. You wouldn't call Vishnu God. It is said: Salutations to the deity Vishnu, salutations to the deity Brahma. You wouldn't say: Salutations to God Vishnu. It is right to say: Salutations to the Supreme Soul Shiva. You have now been enlightened. The highest on high is said to be the Shri Shri 108 rosary of Rudra. At the top is the flower (tassel) and then there is the dual bead which represents Lakshmi and Narayan. Brahma and Saraswati cannot be called a couple. This is a pure rosary. The dual bead is Lakshmi and Narayan; it is the family path. Vishnu means the dynasty of Lakshmi and Narayan. They simply speak of Lakshmi and Narayan, but they would also have their own children. No one knows this. You children have now come away from the ocean of poison. That is also called Kalidah (a story about a poisonous serpent that lived at the bottom of the ocean). Nothing like that happens in the golden age. They say: He danced on a snake and did this and that! All of those are tall stories. They continue to worship dolls out of blind faith. They make many images of goddesses. They spend hundreds of thousands decorating goddesses. Some even decorate them with real gold jewellery because they then have to donate something to the brahmin priests. Brahmin priests are those who carry out the worship. They make people spend a lot of money. They create floats of the goddesses with a lot of splendour. People also create images of goddesses, sustain them, decorate them and then sink them. That is called the worship of dolls. In your lectures you can explain to people how that worship is blind faith. They even make very good images of Ganesh. There cannot be a human being with a trunk. They make so many images etc. They spend so much money. The Father explains to you children: I make you so wealthy and the masters of the world. The Supreme Soul sits here and explains to you souls. You also know that those who studied in the previous cycle and followed shrimat will do so again. If you don't study but just continue to tour around, you will be spoilt. The maids and servants will claim a low status. I am now making you very wealthy with the imperishable jewels of knowledge. Those people don't know the meaning of Shiva and Shankar. They go in front of Shankar and say: Fill my apron! However, Shankar doesn't fill anyone's apron. The Father is now giving you children imperishable jewels of knowledge. You have to imbibe them. Each jewel is worth hundreds of thousands of rupees. You have to imbibe those well and inspire others to do the same. You have to donate. Baba has explained: Donate according to the personality in front of you. Don't waste your time trying to explain to those who don't have any interest in listening to you. Try to donate to the worshippers of Shiva and the deities, so that your time won't be wasted. Each of you also has to become rup and basant, just as Baba is Rup and Basant. His form is not that of an oval light (jyoti lingam), but is like a star. The Supreme Father, the Supreme Soul, resides in the supreme abode. The supreme abode is the land beyond. Souls cannot be called the Supreme Soul. That One is the Supreme Soul. Souls who are unhappy here call out to the Supreme Father. He is called the Supreme Soul. He is just a point. It isn't that He doesn't have a name or form. He is the Ocean of Knowledge, the Purifier. The world doesn't know this. Ask them: Where is the Supreme Father, the Supreme Soul? They would reply that He is omnipresent. Oh! you call Him the Purifier. So, how does He purify everyone? They don't understand anything. This is called the city of darkness. Baba has liberated you from everything. Baba is Abhogta, Akarta (One who doesn't do anything and Asochta (One who is free from thoughts). He never allows you to bow down at His feet. Nevertheless, that system has continued from the copper age. The younger ones have regard for the older ones. In fact, children become heirs to their father's property. The Father says: You are the masters of My property. He salutes you masters. Although the Father is the Master, the true masters of all the property are the children. He would not tell you to bow at His feet and do this and that; no. When children come to meet Him, Baba says: Remember Shiv Baba and then come and meet Him. A soul says: I have been adopted by Shiv Baba. People are confused by these things. Shiv Baba adopts you children through Brahma. Therefore, this one is the mother. You understand that you have come to meet the mother and Father. You have to remember Shiv Baba. Therefore, this one is the first mother. You receive the inheritance from Shiv Baba. This one also stays in remembrance of Him. Imbibe everything that the Father explains to you. Become rup and basant. If you stay in yoga, imbibe knowledge and inspire others, you will become rup and basant, the same as Me. You will then go back with Me. You now have knowledge in your intellect and then, when you go to heaven, the knowledge will be finished. The reward will then begin for the part of knowledge will have ended. These matters are very incognito. Hardly anyone understands these things. The Father also explains to the old mothers: Just remember the One and none other. You will go to the Father and then to the land of Krishna. This is the land of Kans (the devil). It isn't that Kans existed in the land of Krishna. All of those are tall stories. They show that Krishna's mother had eight children. That is defamation. They have shown Krishna being carried across the river in a basket and that the River Jamuna then went down below. These things do not exist there. You children have now received light. The Father says: Forget whatever you have heard until now. The Father says: No one can meet Me by having sacrificial fires and doing tapasya etc. When a soul becomes tamopradhan, his wings are cut off. The whole world is now to be set on fire. When they make a Holika (a fire at Holi), they cook sweet chapattis in it. That symbolises the soul and the body. Everyone's body will be burnt but souls remain immortal. You children can now understand that there aren't this many people or religions in the golden age. There is just the one original eternal deity religion there. Bharat is the greatest pilgrimage place of all. Many people go and sit at Kashi and think that they will now just reside in Kashi. They want to shed their bodies where Shiva is. Many holy men go and sit there. Throughout the whole day, they just sing the song: Victory to the Ganges, Lord of the Universe (Vishwanath Ganga). The water of the Ganges cannot emerge through Shiva. People prefer to die on Shiva's doorstep. You are now on the doorstep in a practical way. No matter where you may be, continue to remember Shiv Baba. You know that Shiv Baba is your Father. While remembering Him, we will go to Him. So, there should be that much love for Shiv Baba. He doesn't have a father or teacher of His own. Everyone else has. That Father is also the Creator of Brahma, Vishnu and Shankar. A creation cannot receive an inheritance from a creation. An inheritance is always received by children from their father. You children know that you have come to the Father, the Ocean of Knowledge. The Father is now raining knowledge on you. You are now becoming pure. All the rest will settle their karmic accounts and go to their own land. There is the tree of souls in the incorporeal world. Here, there is the corporeal tree. There, there is the rosary of Rudra and here, there is the rosary of Vishnu. Then the smaller clans continue to emerge. As the clans (branches) continue to emerge, so the tree becomes big. Now, everyone has to return home. The deity religion then has to rule. You are now changing from humans to deities, the masters of the world, and so you should have a lot of happiness that God is teaching you. He is making you into the kings of kings through Raja Yoga and knowledge. He is making you into Lakshmi from an ordinary woman and Narayan from an ordinary man. The sun dynasty will then go into the moon dynasty. Baba explains to you every day and continues to enlighten you. You clouds come to the ocean to fill yourselves. You have to fill yourselves and then go and shower. If you don't fill yourselves, you won't claim a royal status but will become part of the subjects. Try to remember the Father as much as possible. Here, some continue to remember one whereas others continue to remember another; there are so many names. The Father comes and says: Salutations to the mothers. They have even shown God massaging the feet of Draupadi. When old mothers come to Baba, Baba asks: Child, are you tired? Only a few more days now remain. You can remember Shiv Baba and the inheritance while sitting at home. The more you remember Him, the more you will become a conqueror of sin. If you don't make others similar to you, how would subjects be created? You have to make a lot of effort. You have to imbibe this and then make others similar to you. Achcha.

To the sweetest, beloved, long-lost and now-found children, love, remembrance and good morning from the Mother, the Father, BapDada. The spiritual Father says namaste to the spiritual children.

Essence for dharna:

1. Use your time in a worthwhile way in every aspect. Donate to worthy personalities. Don't waste your time chasing after those who don't want to listen to you. Donate knowledge to the devotees of the Father and the deities.
2. Imbibe the imperishable jewels of knowledge and become wealthy. Definitely study. Each jewel is worth hundreds of thousands of rupees. Therefore, imbibe them and inspire others to do the same.

Blessing: May you be full of soul-conscious and pure feelings and increase your account of accumulation with every word you speak.

Both your intentions and your feelings are experienced from your words. If there are pure and elevated feelings in your every word, if there are soul-conscious feelings, then your account of accumulation increases with every word you speak. If your words are filled with feelings of jealousy or dislike to any percentage, there is then a greater loss in your account through your words. 'Powerful words' means words which have attainment and essence. If there is no essence in your words, then those words go into the account of waste.

Slogan: To find a solution to every cause and to remain constantly content is to be a jewel of contentment.
