

Essence: Sweet children, make your intellect and thoughts so pure and clean that you can imbibe shrimat accurately and thereby glorify the Father's name.

Question: Which stage of you children will show (reveal) the Father?

Answer: When your stage is such that your faces are constantly cheerful, that you are unshakeable and immovable and you remain stable and intoxicated, you will then be able to reveal the Father. Such clever children with a constant stage are able to give everyone the Father's introduction accurately.

Song: To live in Your lane and to die in Your lane.

Om shanti. You children heard the song where it says: "We have come to Your door in order to die alive." Whose door have you come to? The same thing emerges: If Krishna is the God of the Gita, none of these things would be possible nor would Krishna be here. He is the prince of the golden age. Krishna did not speak the Gita. It was the Supreme Father, the Supreme Soul, who spoke the Gita. Everything depends on this one aspect. You have been making so much effort on the path of devotion, but there was no need for it. Here, it is a question of a second. The Father has to make so much effort simply to prove this one aspect. He has to give so much knowledge. It is the ancient knowledge that God gives that is called knowledge. Everything depends on the Gita. The Supreme Father, the Supreme Soul, came and taught easy Raja Yoga and knowledge in order to establish the deity religion, which has now disappeared. People think that Krishna will come again at some time and relate the Gita. However, you have to prove clearly, using the picture of the cycle, that the parlokik Supreme Father, the Supreme Soul, the Ocean of Knowledge, is the One who spoke the Gita. The praise of Krishna is different from the praise of the Supreme Father, the Supreme Soul. Krishna is the prince of the golden age, the one who claimed his fortune of the kingdom by studying easy Raja Yoga. You have to prove that when he studies, his name and form are different from his name and form when he claims the kingdom. Krishna can never be called the Purifier. Only the one Father is the Purifier. The Shri Krishna soul is now once again studying Raja Yoga from the Purifier and becoming the future prince of the pure world. You need to find clever methods of proving that this explanation is correct. You also have to prove this to the foreigners. The Gita is the number one scripture. The Shrimat Bhagawad Gita, the Mother Gita, is the jewel of all the scriptures. Now, who gave birth to the mother? It is the Father who adopts the mother. Who spoke the Gita? It would not be said that Christ adopted the Bible. The Bible that they study was created from the teachings spoken by Christ. Now, who gave the teachings of the Gita that were later made into the book that they study? No one knows this. Everyone knows about the other scriptures. You have to prove who it was who gave these easy teachings of Raja Yoga. Day by day, the world continues to become more and more impure. All of these aspects will only sit in a clean intellect. Those who do not follow shrimat cannot imbibe this knowledge. Shrimat says to such souls: You are not able to explain at all. Don't consider yourself to be knowledge-full. First of all, the main aspect that has to be proved is that the Supreme Father, the Supreme Soul, is the God of the Gita. Only He is the Purifier. People say that He is omnipresent. They either call Him the element of light or the Ocean. They say whatever enters their heads; it has no meaning. The whole mistake emerged from the Gita where it says that Shri Krishna is the God of the Gita. Therefore, in order to explain, you have to refer to the Gita. Guptaji from Benares was told to prove in Benares that Krishna is not the God of the Gita. Seminars now take place in which all the religious people keep asking what they can do to create peace. It is not in the hands of impure human beings to create peace. It is said: O Purifier, come! How can impure people create peace when they themselves are calling out for peace? However, they don't know the Father who makes the impure pure. Bharat used to be pure and it has now become impure. Now, who is the Purifier? This does not enter anyone's intellect. They sing the praise of King Rama, but he is not God. They keep calling out falsely, but no one knows anything. Now, who can go and explain this to them? Very good children are needed. You need very good tactics to explain this. A large globe has been made with which it can be proved that God created the Gita. They say that, whoever it is, all are God. The Father says: You are senseless! I came and established the pure kingdom; instead, they inserted Shri Krishna's name. I make this one pure from impure and make him the first prince. God speaks: I adopt the Krishna soul, name him Brahma and give knowledge through him. Through this easy Raja Yoga, he then becomes the first prince of the golden age. This explanation is not in the intellect of anyone else. First, you have to rectify the mistake and prove that the Gita, the shrimat spoken by God, is the mother and father of all scriptures. Who created it? Similarly, Christ gave birth to the Bible which is the scripture of the Christian religion. Achcha, who is the father of the Bible? Christ; he isn't called the mother and father. They don't have the concept of the mother there. Here, this One is the Mother and Father. The Christian religion has been compared to the Krishna religion. In fact, they believe in Christ. Similarly, Buddha founded the Buddhist religion and so the Buddhists too have their scripture. However, no one knows who spoke the Gita and which religion was created through that. No one ever says that the one who gave knowledge was the Purifier, the Supreme Father, the Supreme Soul. The cycle (picture) has been made in such a way that they will definitely understand that it was the Supreme Father, the Supreme Soul, who gave this knowledge. Radhe and Krishna were in the golden age; they could not have given this knowledge to themselves. Someone else was needed to give knowledge. Someone else must have enabled them to pass. Who gave them this knowledge to claim their kingdom? A fortune is not created by itself. In order to enable you to create your fortune, a father or a teacher is needed. They say that a guru grants salvation but they do not even understand the meaning of liberation or salvation. It is those on the household path who can receive liberation. "Liberation" means that everyone goes to the Father. No one understands this. They open many large shops on the path of devotion. This shop of the true path of knowledge is the only one whereas all the rest are the shops of the path of devotion. The Father says: All the Vedas and scriptures etc. are the paraphernalia of the path of devotion. I cannot be found by doing penance or tapasya etc. or through the Vedas or scriptures. I give you children knowledge and make you pure. I am the Bestower of Salvation for the whole world. You have to go via liberation to salvation. Not everyone will go to the golden age. This drama is predestined. Whatever you were taught in the previous cycle and whatever pictures were created then are now being created again. People say that the world is standing on the legs of three religions, that the leg of the deity religion is broken and that this is why the world continues to shake. Previously, there was just the one religion, which was called the undivided kingdom. Then the leg of that one religion disappeared and the three legs emerged. Due to this, there is no power left. They continue to fight and quarrel among themselves. They don't know the Lord and Master and so they have become orphans. You need a great deal of tact to explain to them. You also have to explain at the exhibitions that Krishna is not the God of the Gita; it is the Supreme Father, the Supreme Soul, whose birthplace is Bharat. Krishna is corporeal whereas that One is incorporeal. His praise is completely different from Krishna's. You should create a cartoon in such a clever way that it proves who spoke the Gita. This is like placing a large mirror in front of the blind. You should not go into things too much. The greatest mistake is to give the Supreme Father, the Supreme Soul's praise to Krishna whose praise is completely different from His. At the bottom of the picture of Lakshmi and Narayan it is written: Radhe and Krishna. They later become Lakshmi and Narayan. Lakshmi and Narayan are in the golden age whereas Rama and Sita are in the silver age. The first child is Shri Krishna, and yet they have put him in the copper age. All of those things are fixed on the path of devotion. What do those from abroad know about this? According to the drama, no one else has this knowledge. It has been said that knowledge is day and that devotion is night. The day and night of Brahma have been remembered. Who established the golden age? Where did Brahma come from? How did he go into the subtle region? It was the Supreme Father, the Supreme Soul, who created the subtle world where Brahma has been shown. However, Brahma, the Father of Humanity, does not exist there. Surely, the Father of Humanity must be someone else. Where did he come from? No one is able to understand these things. In the final birth of Krishna, God made him His chariot. This too is not in anyone's intellect. This is a huge class. If a teacher can understand what a student is like, can the Father not understand this? This is the class of the unlimited Father. All the aspects taught here are unique. They have created so much confusion in the scriptures by showing annihilation. They have so much arrogance. See how they sit and relate the Ramayana, the Gita etc. Krishna did not relate the Gita. He heard the knowledge of the Gita and attained the royal status. You explain and prove that this One is the God of the Gita. These are His virtues and these are the virtues of Krishna. Because of this mistake, Bharat has become like a shell. You mothers can tell them: "You people say that women are the doorway to hell, but the Supreme Soul has placed the urn of knowledge on the mothers. It is the mothers who become the doorway to heaven. You are defaming us." However, those who say this have to be very clever. You have to note down all the points and explain to them: "In fact, the path of devotion is for householders. This is easy Raja Yoga for the household path. We have come to prove this to you." You children have to reveal the Father. Constantly keep your faces cheerful and be unshakeable, stable and intoxicated. As you go further, you will definitely be praised. You are all Brahma Kumars and Kumaris. A kumari is someone who inspires others to claim their inheritance for 21 births from the Father. There is great praise of the kumaris. Your Mama is the main kumari. A very good star is needed next to the moon. That One is the Sun of Knowledge and this one is the incognito mother. This mother is separate. Only you children can understand these secrets and explain them to others. That mother in whose name those temples were built is completely separate from this mother. There are no temples to this old, incognito mother. This mother and the Father are combined. No one in the world knows this. It cannot be Krishna because he is the prince of the golden age. God cannot enter Krishna. It is very easy to explain this. The praise of the God of the Gita is separate. That Purifier is also the Guide and the Liberator of the whole world. People will understand from these pictures that God's praise is definitely different from Krishna's praise and that not everyone can have the same praise. Achcha.

To the sweetest, beloved, long-lost and now-found children, love, remembrance and good morning from the Mother, the Father, BapDada. The spiritual Father says namaste to the spiritual children.

Essence for dharna:

1. Make your stage unshakeable and immovable and one of great intoxication. Keep your face constantly cheerful.
2. Remain in this pure pride of knowledge and reveal the Father. Prove who the God of the Gita is and give everyone the true introduction of the Father.

Blessing: May you be a soul who has the fortune of happiness and by experiencing all attainments bids farewell to Maya and receives congratulations.
Those whose Companion is the Almighty Authority Father have all attainments all the time. No type of Maya can come in front of them. Those who stay in the experience of the attainments and bid farewell to Maya receive congratulations from BapDada at every step. So, constantly maintain the awareness that God Himself is congratulating you souls, that you have attained what you never even thought of. When you found the Father, you found everything; you are such fortunate souls.

Slogan: When you have thoughts of your original self and of God, wasteful thinking will automatically finish.
