

- Essence: Sweet children, don't make any mistakes through which Maya would have a chance to slap you. If you don't follow shrimat, Maya slaps you and turns your face away.
- Question: What is the basis of claiming an air-conditioned ticket in the sun-dynasty kingdom? Which children can attain that?
- Answer: In order to claim an air-conditioned ticket in the sun-dynasty kingdom, you have to follow shrimat at every step. You have to surrender everything you have to the Father. Those who surrender themselves completely are the ones who become wealthy. The sun-dynasty kingdom is air-conditioned. Your aim and objective is to attain a sun-dynasty status. However, status is numberwise anyway.
- Song: The ones to whom You are close are very fortunate.
- Om shanti. Only you children, who are the decoration of the Brahmin clan, know the meaning of this song. At this time you children are the Brahmin community and you will then become the deity community. The Father sits here and explains to you children. When the unlimited Father is in front of you and you are receiving the unlimited inheritance from Him, what else do you need? No one knows when the path of devotion began. Devotees of the path of devotion remember God, that is, the brides remember their Bridegroom, but the wonder is that they do not know the Father. Have you ever seen this before? If a bride doesn't know her bridegroom, how could she remember him? God is the Father of all. Children remember the Father, but to remember Him without recognition is useless. This is why there has been no benefit in remembering Him. No one who has been remembering Him has been able to attain that aim or objective. They don't know who God is or what they would receive from Him. There are so many religions. The followers of Christ, Buddha and the other preceptors and founders of religions etc. remember them, but they don't know what they would receive from them by remembering them. So a worldly education is better than that. At least they have their aim and objective in their intellects. They can understand what they are to receive from their father and from their teacher. No one can understand what they are to receive from their guru. You children have now developed the faith that you belong to the Father. The Father comes and makes us into the masters of heaven exactly as He did 5000 years ago. That is, He makes us into the masters of the land of peace. The Father says: Beloved children, you will claim your inheritance from Me, will you not? Everyone says: Yes, Baba, why not? OK, will you be happy to claim the status of the moon-dynasty Rama? What do you want? The Father has brought a gift. Will you marry the sun-dynasty Lakshmi or the moon-dynasty Sita? The worshippers of Rama would not want to hear the name of Krishna. They have shown Rama in the silver age and Krishna in the copper age. They believe that Rama is greater, and so they fight among themselves, just as little children fight. The Father sits here and explains to you. He is explaining to you once again exactly as He did 5000 years ago. You have come once again and are claiming your inheritance. Your aim and objective is to claim the unlimited inheritance. That is the sun-dynasty, royal status. The moon dynasty is the second grade. There is no class higher than air-conditioned. There is air-conditioned, first class and second class. So consider the whole kingdom of the golden age to be air-conditioned, and then there is first class. So, the Father asks: Will you claim the air-conditioned sun dynasty or the first-class moon dynasty? Even lower than that, you would become numberwise heirs in the second class and you would then come and attain a kingdom later, otherwise, third-class subjects. And, among them, the tickets are also reserved: first class reserved, second class reserved. The status is numberwise. There is happiness there anyway but there are different compartments. A wealthy person would take an air-conditioned ticket. Who among you becomes wealthy? Those who give everything to the Father: Baba, all of this is Yours. His praise is sung in Bharat: the Businessman, the Jewel Merchant, the Magician. All of this is praise of the Father, not of Krishna. Krishna claimed his inheritance and attained his reward in the golden age. He too belonged to the Father. He would have received his reward from someone. Lakshmi and Narayan experience their reward in the golden age. You children now understand very well that they must definitely have created their reward in their past. There is a lot of praise of Bharat. There isn't any other land as elevated as Bharat was. Bharat is the birthplace of the Supreme Father, the Supreme Soul. This secret doesn't sit in the intellect of anyone. The Supreme Soul gives everyone peace and happiness for half the cycle. Bharat is the number one pilgrimage place. However, they have put Krishna's name in the Gita, and this is why His (Baba's) status has been reduced. Otherwise, all human beings would believe in this one Father, and they wouldn't offer flowers to anyone else. The Father is the Purifier of All. The Somnath Temple is built to Him. Everyone comes and bows down to Shiva. However, according to the drama, look what the condition of the world has become by them forgetting the one Father!

This is why Shiv Baba comes. Someone would become the instrument. The Father says: Now become bodiless. Have the faith that you are a soul. None of them knows whose children they, the souls, are. It is a wonder! They say: O God, the Father, have mercy! They celebrate Shiv Jayanti, but no one knows when He came. This is a matter of 5000 years. The Father Himself comes and establishes the new world of the golden age. The duration of the golden age cannot be hundreds of thousands of years. The Father makes everything so easy and says to you children: Simply remember Me. While living at home, become as pure as a lotus. Vishnu has been shown with all the ornaments. He has been given the conch shell and also the lotus. In fact, those ornaments cannot be given to the deities. This is such a deep and serious matter. They are the ornaments of Brahmins, but how would they be given to Brahmins? Today, someone is a Brahmin and tomorrow, he would become a shudra; from a Brahma Kumar, he would become a shudra kumar. Maya doesn't take long. If you are careless and do not follow the Father's shrimat and your intellect becomes spoilt, Maya would slap you so hard she would turn your face away. Out of anger, people say: I will slap you and turn your face away. So, Maya is also like that. As soon as you forget the Father, Maya slaps you in a second and turns your face away. Just as you attain liberation-in-life in a second, in the same way, you also finish liberation-in-life in a second. Maya catches hold of such good ones. When she sees that you are being careless she quickly slaps you. The Father turns the faces of the children away from the old world towards the new world. When someone's physical father is poor and they live in an old hut, and he then builds a new one, the children's intellects is aware that a new home will soon be ready for them and that they will then live in that and demolish the old one. The Father has brought heaven, Paradise, on the palm of His hand for you children. He says: Beloved children! He is speaking to you souls. He is also seeing you children with these eyes. There are many brahmin priests in Kashmir. They feed the departed spirits there. They invite a soul into a brahmin priest's body. All of those are the secrets of visions. It isn't that a soul leaves a body and goes somewhere else. They invite the souls of their ancestors. They keep everything ready for them. They believe that the soul of so-and-so will come. Then they ask that soul questions. In earlier days, the soul used to speak. They would then ask whether the soul was happy and content. The soul used to answer. All of that used to happen according to the drama. Sometimes, the soul would say: I have taken birth to such-and-such a family. All of those systems of visions are created in the drama and they repeat. However, it isn't that a soul comes. In earlier days, they even used to invite a soul into a table. Baba has experienced all of that. A soul cannot possibly enter a table! Whatever anyone did, that was fixed in the drama, and so it happened. You have to hold on to the drama very well. They offer bhog and invite a soul. All of that is fixed in the drama. There is no question of doubt here. New people who come here become confused because of not understanding. The Father is the Magician. He explains: I am also bound by the drama. It isn't that I can do anything without the drama; no. When a child falls ill, it isn't that I can make him well and free him from having an operation. No; each and every one has to settle the suffering of their karma. You have a big burden on you because all of you are the oldest of all. From being satopradhan you have become totally tamopradhan. You children have now found the Father and so you should claim your inheritance from the Father. You know that, according to the drama, you claim your inheritance from the Father every cycle. Those who belong to the sun and moon dynasties will definitely come. Those who were deities and have become shudras will become Brahmins and then become the deity community. No one except the Father can explain these things. The Father finds you children so sweet. He says: You are My same children of the previous cycle. I come every cycle to teach you. These are such wonderful things! Incorporeal God speaks. He would speak through a body, would He not? When a soul becomes separated from his body, he cannot speak. The soul becomes detached. The Father says: Now become bodiless. It isn't that you have to do any pranayama (breathing exercise) etc. No; you have to understand that you are an imperishable soul. I, the soul, have a part of 84 births recorded in me. The Father Himself says: The part that My soul acts is also recorded in Me. The same part continues on the path of devotion too. When someone hasn't drunk alcohol, how could he tell what its taste is? Only when someone takes knowledge can he know about it. Only through knowledge is there salvation. The Father says: I am the Bestower of Salvation for All. There are the Sarvodaya leaders, those who have mercy for all. There are so many types of them. In fact, it is only the Father who has mercy for all. All of them say: O God, have mercy! So He has mercy for everyone. However, all the others are those who have mercy for themselves. The Father makes the whole world satopradhan; the elements are also included in that. This is the work of only the one Supreme Soul. So, the meaning of Sarvodaya is so great. He has absolute mercy for everyone. No one experiences sorrow during the establishment of heaven. There, you receive number one furniture and possessions etc. There are no animals or insects etc. that cause sorrow. Here, too, great people have so much cleanliness in their homes. You would never see any flies there. No mosquitoes could enter their homes. Nothing that can cause any kind of dirt has the courage to come in heaven. There is the natural fragrance of flowers etc. Shiv Baba gives you mango juice to drink in the subtle region. There is nothing in the subtle region. All of those are visions. There are such good fruits and gardens etc. in Paradise. There aren't any gardens in the subtle region. All of those are visions. While sitting here, you have visions of everything. The song is first class. You also know that you have found the Father. What else do you want? You claim your unlimited inheritance from the unlimited Father and so you should remember the Father. The Father's directions are very well known. We will become the most elevated of all by following shrimat. Sannyasis say: This happiness is like the droppings of a crow. However, they don't know that there was constant happiness in the golden age. In their childhood, they are Radhe and Krishna. They haven't shown any divine activities etc. for them (Lakshmi and Narayan). The children of heaven are always very good. Although they may be dancing to the flute etc., they would not relate knowledge. Shri Krishna has been shown with a flute (murli), but where did Saraswati go? They have shown Saraswati with a sitar and so she is senior. All of that is the path of devotion, a game of dolls. They create idols of the deities, worship them and then sink them. You have also composed a song about that. That is called blind faith. Achcha.

To the sweetest, beloved, long-lost and now-found children, love, remembrance and good morning from the Mother, the Father, BapDada. The spiritual Father says namaste to the spiritual children.

Essence for dharna:

1. Each one is under the control of this drama. Do not have doubts while seeing any scene of this drama. Understand every secret of the drama very well and remain unshakeable.
2. Consider yourself to be an imperishable soul, become detached from your body and practise being bodiless.

Blessing: May you be constantly cheerful and carefree and make the treasures given by the Father your own by churning them.
The image portrayed of you children churning and remembering knowledge on the path of devotion is of Vishnu. The snake has been shown as a bed, that is, the vices are under control. There is no need to worry about being defeated by Maya or of battling, you are constantly a conqueror of Maya, that is, you are carefree. Keep new points of knowledge in your intellect each day and churn them and you will have a lot of pleasure. You will remain constantly cheerful because by churning the treasures you are given by the Father, you experience them to be your own.

Slogan: A self-transformer is one who always has good wishes emerged to transform the self and not to seek revenge.
