

Essence: Sweet children, in order to become the garland around the Father's neck, race in knowledge and yoga. Your duty is to give the whole world the Father's introduction.

Question: Which intoxication should you constantly maintain so that your illness is cured?

Answer: Maintain the intoxication of knowledge and yoga. Don't worry about those old bodies. The more your intellects are pulled towards your bodies, the more greed you have, the more illness there will be. To decorate your bodies, to put on powder and cream etc. is all useless. You have to decorate yourselves with knowledge and yoga. This is your true decoration.

Song: The rain of knowledge is for those who are with the Beloved.

Om shanti. Those who are with the Father... There are many fathers in the world, but the Father, the Creator of all of them, is One. He alone is the Ocean of Knowledge. You definitely have to understand that the Supreme Father, the Supreme Soul, is the Ocean of Knowledge. Only through knowledge is salvation received. Only when the golden age is established can human beings have salvation. The Father alone is called the Bestower of Salvation. Only when it is the confluence age does the Ocean of Knowledge come and take you from degradation to salvation. Bharat is the most ancient of all. Only for the people of Bharat has 84 births been remembered. Surely, the human beings who came first would take 84 births. You say 84 births of the deities and so there are also 84 births of Brahmins. It is the main ones that are mentioned. No one knows about these things. He definitely creates the world through Brahma. First of all, He has to create the subtle world and then this corporeal world. You children know where the subtle region is and where the incorporeal world is. The incorporeal world, the subtle region and the corporeal world are called Trilok (the three worlds). Since you speak of Trilokinath (the Lord of the Three Worlds), this has to have a meaning. There must be the three worlds, must there not? In fact, only the one Father and His children can be called Trilokinath. Here, some people are called Trilokinath, Shiva, Brahma, Vishnu, Shankar etc. The people of Bharat have given themselves these names. They even have double names – Radhe-Krishna, Lakshmi-Narayan. No one knows that Radhe and Krishna are from separate kingdoms. He was a prince of one kingdom and she was a princess from another kingdom. You know this at this time. These points are imbibed very well by the intellects of the good children. For instance, a clever doctor would be aware of the names of many types of medicine. Here, too, many new points continue to emerge. Inventions continue to take place day by day. Those who practise well would imbibe new points. If you don't imbibe, you cannot be brought into the line of maharathis. Everything depends on the intellect, and it is also a matter of fortune. This is also in the drama, is it not? No one even knows the drama. You understand that you are playing your parts on the field of action. However, if you don't know the beginning, the middle and the end of the drama, you don't know anything. You have to know everything. You children know that the Father has come and so it is the duty of you children to give others His introduction. It is your duty to tell the whole world so that no one can say that they weren't aware of this. Many will come to you. Many will also take the literature. Children had many visions at the beginning. Christ and Abraham came to Bharat. Truly Bharat continues to pull everyone. In reality, Bharat is the birthplace of the unlimited Father. However, those people don't know that this Bharat is God's birthplace. They speak of the Supreme Soul Shiva but, by saying that everyone is the Supreme Soul, they have lost the importance of the unlimited Father. You children now explain: The land of Bharat is the greatest pilgrimage place of all. All the messengers who come just come to establish their own religions. Those of all other religions continue to follow them down. It is now the end. People try to go back, but who brought you here? Christ came and established the Christian religion; he pulled them down here. Now, everyone is fed up and wants to go back home. You have to explain this. Everyone comes to play his or her own part. While playing your parts, you have to come into sorrow. Then it is the Father's duty to liberate you from sorrow and to take you into happiness. Bharat is the Father's birthplace. Among you children too, not all of you know the importance of this. There are a few who understand this and their intoxication remains high. Only in Bharat does the Father come every cycle. You have to tell this to everyone. You have to invite them. First of all, you have to do this service. You have to prepare literature. You have to give everyone an invitation. No one has the knowledge of the Creator or of creation. You should become serviceable and glorify your name. Everyone asks for the help of the clever children who have many points in their intellects. They continue to chant the names of these children. Firstly, they chant the name of Shiv Baba, then of Brahma Baba and then of the children, numberwise. On the path of devotion, they turn the beads of a rosary physically. Now, you chant the names through your lips: so-and-so is very serviceable. He is egoless, very sweet and doesn't have any body consciousness. It is said: Become sweet and everyone will be very sweet to you. The Father says:

You children have become very unhappy and if you now remember Me, I will help. What can I do if you have dislike? This is like disliking yourself. In that case, you won't receive a status. You receive so much wealth. When someone wins a lottery, he becomes so happy. There are so many prizes there. First prize, second prize, third prize. In the same way, this is the spiritual race. This is the race of knowledge and the power of yoga. Those who go fast in this will become the garland around the Father's neck and they will sit close to the throne. All of this is explained to you very easily. Also look after your homes because you are karma yogis. You have to study in class for an hour and then go home and think about these things. They do the same at school too. They study and then go home and do their homework. The Father says: Study for one hour, half an hour. There are eight hours in a day. Out of that too, the Father says: Study for one hour, if not that, then for half an hour. Attend class for even 15 to 20 minutes, imbibe that and then become engaged in your business etc. In the early days, Baba used to make you sit in remembrance and tell you to spin the discus of self-realisation. There was the mention of remembrance. Remember the Father and the inheritance and spin the discus of self-realisation, and then, when you feel sleepy, go to sleep. Then your final thoughts will lead you to your destination, and when you wake up in the morning, you will remember those points. By having this practice, you will become conquerors of sleep. Those who do something will receive the reward of it. When you do something, it is visible. Your behaviour reveals it. The behaviour of those who don't do anything is completely different. It is seen that this child churns the ocean of knowledge and imbibes knowledge and doesn't have any greed etc. Those are old bodies. Those bodies will be fine when you imbibe knowledge and yoga. If you don't imbibe this, the body will continue to decay even more. You are to receive new bodies in the future. You souls have to make your souls pure. Those are old bodies. No matter how much powder and lipstick etc. you put on, how much you decorate them, they are not worth a penny. All of that decoration is useless. All of you are engaged to Shiv Baba. When a marriage takes place, the bride first wears old clothes on that day. You must not now decorate your body. If you decorate yourself with knowledge and yoga, you will become princes and princesses in the future. This is the lake of knowledge (Mansarovar). Continue to take a dip in knowledge and you will become an angel of heaven. The subjects would not be called angels. They say: Krishna abducted women and made them into empresses. It would not be said that he abducted them and then made them into cremators of the subjects. He abducted them to make them into emperors and empresses. You should also make this effort. Don't be happy with whatever status you receive. The main thing here is the study. This is a school. Many people open Gita Pathshalas. Those people simply sit and relate the Gita and make you learn it by heart. Some people select a verse and then speak on that for half or three quarters of an hour. There is no benefit in that. The Father sits here and teaches you. Your aim and objective is clear. There is no aim or objective in reading the Vedas and the scriptures or in chanting or doing tapasya. Continue to make effort, that's all! However, what will you receive? It is said that when people do a lot of devotion they find God; the day definitely has to come after the night. It will all happen at the right time. Some say the duration of the cycle is one thing and others say it is something else. When you explain to them, they would say: How could the scriptures be wrong? God would not tell lies. You need to have the power to explain. So, you children need to have the power of yoga. Everything becomes easy with the power of yoga. If you aren't able to do certain things, it means that you don't have power, that you don't have yoga. In some cases, Baba also helps. Whatever is fixed in the drama continues to repeat. We understand this. No one else understands the drama. Second by second, every second that passes continues to tick away. We act according to shrimat. How would you become elevated if you don't follow shrimat? Not everyone can become the same. Those people think that they will all become one. They don't understand the meaning of becoming one. What should they become one of? Should they all become the one Father or should they all become one brother? If they were to say that they will become brothers, that's fine. By following shrimat, we truly can become one. All of you are following the one direction. Your Father, Teacher and Guru are One. Those who don't follow shrimat fully will not be able to become elevated. If you don't follow shrimat at all, you will be completely finished. In a race, they only enter those who are worthy. When it is a big race, they have very good, first-class horses because they have a big lottery at stake. This too is a horse race. They speak of the horse of Hussain. They have shown Hussain on a horse in a battle. You children are doubly non-violent. The violence of lust is number one. No one knows about this type of violence. Even sannyasis don't consider it as such. They simply say that it is a vice. The Father says: Lust is the greatest enemy. It is this that causes you sorrow from its beginning through the middle to its end. You have to prove to them that this is your Raja Yoga of the family path, whereas theirs is hatha yoga. They learn hatha yoga from Shankaracharya and we learn Raja Yoga from Shiva, the Teacher. You should tell them these things at the right time. If someone asks you, “If the deities take 84 births, how many births would Christians take?” tell them: You can calculate this yourself. There are 84 births in 5000 years. It is 2000 years since Christ came. Now, calculate how many births they would take on average. They would perhaps take 30 to 32 births. This is clear. Those who see a lot of happiness will also see a lot of sorrow. Those people see less happiness and so they also receive less sorrow. You have to calculate the average. Those who come later take fewer births. You can also calculate how many births Buddha and Abraham take. Perhaps, there would be a difference of one or two births. So, you should churn the ocean of knowledge about all of these things. What should we explain if anyone asks us? You should tell them: First of all, you have to claim your inheritance from the Father. At least remember the Father! You will take as many births as you are to take. At least claim your inheritance from the Father. You have to explain this very well. This is something that requires effort. You will become successful by making effort. A very broad and unlimited intellect is required. There has to be a lot of love for Baba and Baba’s wealth. Some don’t take this wealth at all. Oh! At least imbibe the jewels of knowledge! They say: What can I do? I can’t understand it. If you don’t understand, that is your destiny. Achcha.

To the sweetest, beloved, long-lost and now-found children, love, remembrance and good morning from the Mother, the Father, BapDada. The spiritual children say namaste to the spiritual Father.

Essence for dharna:

1. Don’t dislike anyone. Be very sweet with everyone. Race in knowledge and yoga and become the garland around the Father’s neck.
2. Become a conqueror of sleep. Wake up early in the morning and remember the Father. Spin the discus of self-realisation. Instil the habit of churning the knowledge that you hear.

Blessing: May you constantly stay within the line of safety and experience God’s canopy of protection and thereby become a conqueror of Maya.

“The Father and you” is the line of safety. This line is God’s canopy of protection. Maya will not have the courage to come to those who stay within the line of this canopy. You will then be ignorant of what effort is, what an obstruction is or what an obstacle is. You will remain constantly safe and merged in the Father’s heart. This is the easiest way of making effort, of going at a fast speed and of becoming a conqueror of Maya.

Slogan: When you remain decorated with all the ornaments of divine virtues, there cannot then be any arrogance.
