

Essence: Sweet children, the Father has come to give you civil eyes. You have received the third eye of knowledge and your eyes should therefore never become criminal.

Question: What shrimat has the Father given you unlimited renunciates?

Answer: The Father's shrimat is: You have to remove your intellect's yoga from this hell and the residents of hell and remember heaven. While living at home with your family, renounce hell from your intellect. Hell is the old world. Your intellect has to forget the old world. It isn't that you renounce one limited home and go away to another one. You have unlimited disinterest. It is now your stage of retirement. You have to renounce everything and go back home.

Om shanti. God Shiva speaks. No one else's name is mentioned. Even this one's name (Brahma) is not mentioned. That Father is the Purifier and so He would definitely come here in order to make impure ones pure. He shows you the way to become pure here. It is said: God Shiva speaks, not God Krishna speaks. Since you have a badge, you definitely have to explain this. The whole secret of the Creator and the beginning, middle and end of creation is shown in this badge. This badge is no less. It is a matter of a signal. All of you are theists, numberwise, according to your efforts. "Numberwise", would definitely be said. There are some who are unable to explain the knowledge of the Creator or creation. So, they would not be called those with satopradhan intellects. There are satopradhan intellects, rajo intellects and then tamo intellects. As is one's understanding, so the title one receives: This one has a satopradhan intellect, this one has a rajo intellect. However, you are not told this in case you then become disheartened. It is numberwise; the value of those who are first class is very good. You have now found the true Satguru. Now, you children know that you have found the Satguru and that He makes you completely true. The deities are true and then they go on to the path of sin and become false. Only you deities reside in the golden age. There is no one else there. Some are such that they ask: How is this possible? This is because they don't have knowledge. You children now know that you have become theists from atheists. You now know accurately the knowledge of the Creator and the beginning, middle and end of creation. Something that is beyond name and form cannot even be seen. The sky is empty space, but you can feel that that is the sky; you have that knowledge. Everything depends on your intellect. Only the one Father gives you the knowledge of the Creator and creation. You also have to write: Here, you can receive the knowledge of the beginning, middle and end of the Creator and creation. There are many such slogans. Day by day, new points and new slogans continue to emerge. In order to become theists, you definitely need to have knowledge of the Creator and creation. You then stop being atheists. From being theists, you become the masters of the world. You are theists here, but, numberwise, according to your efforts. It is human beings who have to know this. Animals would not know this. It is human beings who are the highest and human beings who then become the lowest. At this time, no human being has the knowledge of the Creator or creation. Their intellects are completely locked with Godrej locks. You know, numberwise, according to your efforts, that you have come to the Father in order to become the masters of the world. You stay in one hundred per cent purity; there is purity, peace and prosperity. You are given blessings. However, these words belong to the path of devotion. You become Lakshmi and Narayan through this study. You have to study and also teach others. Kumars and kumaris go to school to study. Because they are together, they become very spoilt, because the eyes are criminal. Because of criminal eyes, they wear a veil. There are no criminal eyes there (satyug), and there is therefore no need to wear a veil. Have you ever seen Lakshmi or Narayan behind a veil? There, no one would even have such dirty thoughts. Here, it is the kingdom of Ravan. These eyes are very devilish. The Father comes and gives each of you the third eye of knowledge. It is the soul that hears everything, says everything and does everything. You souls are now being reformed. It is souls that have become spoilt and sinful. Those who have criminal eyes are called sinful souls. No one, apart from the Father, can reform those criminal eyes. It is only the Father who makes your eyes civil with knowledge. Only you know this knowledge. This knowledge is not in the scriptures. The Father says: Those Vedas, Upanishads and scriptures etc. belong to the path of devotion. I cannot be found by doing tapasya, chanting, going on pilgrimages etc. That is the path of devotion which continues for half the cycle. You children now have to give everyone this message: Come and we will give you the knowledge of the Creator and the beginning, middle and end of creation. We will tell you the biography of the Supreme Father, the Supreme Soul. Human beings don't know this at all. These are the main words. Come, brothers and sisters. Come and listen to the knowledge of the Creator and the beginning, middle and end of creation. Come and study this and this is what you will become. By receiving this knowledge and by understanding the cycle, you can become the emperors and empresses who are the rulers of the golden age. Lakshmi and Narayan became that through this study. You too are becoming that through the study. This most auspicious confluence age has a great impact. The Father comes in Bharat. Why would He come in any other land? The Father is the imperishable Surgeon. So He would surely come in the land that always exists. The land on which God has placed His feet can never be destroyed. This Bharat exists for the deities. It is just that it changes. However, Bharat is the land of truth and it is Bharat that becomes the land of falsehood. It is Bharat alone that has an all-round part. You would not say this of any other land. God, the Truth, comes and creates the land of truth Himself and then Ravan makes it into the land of falsehood. Then, there isn't a single grain of truth left and this is why you can't find a true guru. Those people are sannyasis and their followers are householders, so how can they be called followers. Now, the Father, Himself, says: Children, become pure and imbibe divine virtues. You now have to become deities. Sannyasis are not completely viceless. They repeatedly take birth to those who indulge in vice, even though some do remain celibate from birth. There are many like that. There are many like that abroad and they get married when they grow old in order to be looked after. Then, when they die, they leave some wealth to her and the rest of the wealth goes to charity. Here, they have too much attachment to their children. After the age of 60, they hand everything over to their children, they then keep an eye on them to see whether everything is being looked after properly in their absence. However, children today say: It is good that the father has gone into the stage of retirement. At least I now have the key. Even while the parents are still alive, the children ruin everything. Then they even tell their father: Get out of here! The Father explains: Write at the exhibitions: Brothers and sisters, come and listen to the knowledge of the Creator and the beginning, middle and end of creation. By knowing the knowledge of this world cycle, you will become emperors and empresses, the deities who are rulers of the globe. This Baba gives you children directions. The Father now says: This is the end of the last of many births. I only enter this one. Opposite Brahma is Vishnu. Why is Vishnu shown with four arms? Two are of the male and two of the female. There cannot be a human being with four arms here. It is just an explanation that Vishnu means Lakshmi and Narayan. They even show Brahma with four arms: two arms of Brahma and two of Saraswati. Both are unlimited renunciates. It isn't that you have renunciation and go to another place, no. The Father says: While living at home, you have to renounce hell from your intellect. Forget hell and remember heaven with your intellect. Remove your intellects' yoga from hell and the residents of hell and connect your intellects in yoga to the deities, the residents of heaven. It is in the intellects of those who study that they will pass and become that. Previously, people adopted gurus when they reached their stage of retirement. The Father says: I too enter this one in his stage of retirement, when he is in the last of his many births. God speaks: I enter him in the last of his many births. I only enter the one who has played a part from the beginning to the end because he has to go into the first number. Brahma becomes Vishnu and Vishnu becomes Brahma. They have shown both with four arms. There is the account: Brahma and Saraswati then become Lakshmi and Narayan. Lakshmi and Narayan then become Brahma and Saraswati. You children quickly show this account. Vishnu means Lakshmi and Narayan who take 84 births and then become this ordinary Brahma and Saraswati. It was later that Baba named him Brahma. However, who is the Father of Brahma? One would definitely say: Shiv Baba. How was he created? He was adopted. The Father says: I enter this one and so you should write: God Shiva speaks: I enter Brahma who doesn't know his own births. I enter him at the end of the last of his many births. I enter him when he is in his stage of retirement. I come when the whole world has become old and impure. This is such an easy explanation. Previously, people used to adopt gurus at the age of 60. Now, they adopt gurus from birth. They have learnt this from Christians. Oh! but what is the need to have a guru in childhood? They believe that if a child died in his infancy, he would then receive salvation. The Father explains that no one can have salvation here. The Father explains to you so easily now and He also makes you elevated. On the path of devotion, you continued to come down the ladder. It is the kingdom of Ravan. The vicious world then begins. All of you have had gurus. This one himself says: I have had many gurus. They don't even know God who gives everyone salvation. The chains of devotion have also become very strong. Some chains are thick and others are very thin. When something heavy has to be lifted, they tie it with a thick chain and then lift it. It is the same here. Some will quickly come and listen to you and they will study well. Others don't understand at all. The beads of the rosary are created numberwise. People turn the beads of a rosary on the path of devotion, but they don't have any knowledge at all. Their guru asked them to keep turning the beads of a rosary. They simply continue to chant the name "Rama, Rama", just like a harmonium being played; it sounds very sweet, but that's all! They don't know anything about who Rama is or who Krishna is or when they come; they don't know anything at all. They have even shown Krishna in the copper age. Who taught them that? Gurus! If Krishna had come in the copper age, then how come the iron age followed and they became tamopradhan? The Father says: I come at the confluence age to make tamopradhan ones satopradhan. You became those with such blind faith. The Father explains: Those who are to become flowers from thorns will quickly understand. They would say: This is the absolute truth. Some people understand very well and say to you: You explain very well. The story of 84 births is also right. The one Father is the Ocean of Knowledge and He comes and gives you the full knowledge. Achcha.

To the sweetest, beloved, long-lost and now-found children, love, remembrance and good morning from the Mother, the Father, BapDada. The spiritual Father says namaste to the spiritual children.

Essence for dharna:

1. Make your intellect satopradhan by having remembrance of the Father, the Satguru. Become truthful. Become theists and do the service of making others become theists.
2. It is now your stage of retirement. Therefore, become unlimited renunciates and remove your intellect's yoga from everyone else. Become pure and imbibe divine virtues.

Blessing: May you become double light by saying "Everything is Yours" and by finishing even the slightest trace of the consciousness of "mine".

Any type of consciousness of "mine" – whether it is "my nature", my sanskars, "my nature" – anything that is "mine" is a burden and those who have a burden cannot fly. This consciousness of "mine" makes you dirty and this is why you now have to say "Yours, Yours" and become clean. An angel means not to have the slightest trace of the consciousness of "mine". If there is the feeling of "mine" even in your thoughts, then you must understand that you have become dirty. Finish this burden of the consciousness of "mine" and become double light.

Slogan: The lights of the world are those who merge BapDada in their eyes.
