

Essence: Sweet children, you have to become praiseworthy by serving at the confluence age. You will then become the most elevated human beings and worthy of worship in the future.

Question: By finishing which illness at its roots will you be able to climb into the Father's heart?

Answer: 1. The illness of body consciousness. Because of this body consciousness, all the vices have made you greatly diseased. Only when this body consciousness finishes can you climb into the Father's heart.

2. In order to climb into the heart, make your intellect broad and unlimited and sit on the pyre of knowledge. Engage yourself in doing spiritual service. Together with speaking knowledge, remember the Father very well.

Song: Awaken! O brides, awaken! Your days of happiness are about to come.

Om shanti. You sweetest, spiritual children heard the song. The spiritual Father said this through the mouth of this ordinary old body. The Father says: I had to come into this old body, into this old kingdom. This is now the kingdom of Ravan. This body belongs to someone else because there was already a soul in it when I entered it. I enter a foreign body. If I had a body of My own, it would have a name of its own. My name never changes. You still call Me Shiv Baba. You children hear these songs every day. The new age, which means the new world, the golden age, is to come. Who are being told to awaken? Souls, because souls are sleeping in extreme darkness. They don't know anything; they don't even know the Father. The Father has now come to awaken you. You now know the unlimited Father. You are to receive unlimited happiness from Him in the new age. The golden age is called the new age; the iron age is called the old age. Scholars and pundits don't know anything. If you ask any of them how the new age becomes old, not one of them could tell you. They say that it's a matter of hundreds of thousands of years. You now understand how you came into the old age from the new age, that is, how you became residents of hell from residents of heaven. Human beings know nothing at all. They don't even know the biography of those they worship. They worship Jagadamba, but they don't know who Amba is. In fact, mothers are called Amba, but it should only be one who is worshipped. There is only one unadulterated memorial of Shiv Baba. There is also only one Amba. However they don't know who Jagadamba is. This one is Jagadamba (the world mother) and Lakshmi is the world empress. You know who the world mother is and who the world empress is. No one else can understand these things. Lakshmi is called a deity, whereas Jagadamba is called a Brahmin. Brahmins only exist at the confluence age. No one knows this confluence age. The new, most elevated world is created through Prajapita Brahma. You are able to see the most elevated human beings there (in the golden age). At this time, you Brahmins are worthy of praise. You are now servers and will then become worthy of being worshipped. Brahma has been shown with so many arms. So, why should Amba not be shown with as many? Everyone is her child too. Prajapita also becomes the mother and father. Children are not called Prajapita. In the golden age, Lakshmi and Narayan are never called the world mother and world father. The name "Prajapita" is very well known. The father and mother of the world is only one. All the rest are his children. When you go to the temple of Prajapita Brahma in Ajmer, you can refer to him as Baba, because he is the Father of Humanity. Physical fathers create children. Therefore, they are limited fathers of people. This one is unlimited. Shiv Baba is the unlimited Father of all souls. You children have to write about this contrast. Jagadamba and Saraswati are one, and yet so many names have been given: Durga, Kali etc. All of you are the children of Amba and Baba. This is the creation. Saraswati is the daughter of Prajapita Brahma and she is also called Amba. All the rest are sons and daughters and they are all adopted. How else could there be so many children? All of them are mouth-born creations. A wife is created through a mouth and so the husband becomes a creator. He says, "This one is mine; I have created children with her." All of these are by adoption. These are spiritual creations through a mouth. Souls exist anyway; they are not adopted. The Father says: You souls are always My children. I come and adopt you children through Prajapita Brahma. He doesn't adopt souls. He adopts sons and daughters. These are very subtle matters that have to be understood. By understanding these things you become Lakshmi and Narayan. We can explain how they became that. What acts did they perform that they became the masters of the world? You can ask at the exhibitions: Do you know how they attained their kingdom of heaven? Not every one of you is able to explain accurately. Those who have divine virtues and who remain busy in doing spiritual service are able to explain. Everyone else is trapped in Maya's illness. There are many types of disease. There is also the disease of body consciousness. It is the vices that make you diseased. The Father says: I make you into pure deities. You were once full of all virtues, completely pure. You have now become completely impure. The unlimited Father says this. This is not a matter of defamation but just an explanation. The unlimited Father says to the people of Bharat: I come here into Bharat. The praise of Bharat is unlimited. He comes here and changes hell into heaven and grants everyone else peace. Therefore, the praise of such a Father is also infinite; there is no end to it. No one knows Jagadamba or her praise. You can show the contrast between the biography of Jagadamba and the biography of Lakshmi. Jagadamba becomes Lakshmi. Then, after taking 84 births, Lakshmi becomes the same Jagadamba. You should keep different types of picture. They portray Lakshmi with an urn, but how could Lakshmi exist at the confluence age? She only exists in the golden age. The Father explains all of these things. Those who have been appointed to make the pictures should also churn the ocean of knowledge. It will then become easy to explain. Only when you have a broad and unlimited intellect can you climb into the Father's heart. You will be able to climb into the Father's heart when you remember the Father very well and sit on the pyre of knowledge. It isn't that those who can speak knowledge very well are able to climb into the Father's heart; no. The Father says: You will be able to climb into the heart, numberwise, at the end, when you finish body consciousness according to the efforts you make. The Father has explained that those with the knowledge of the brahm element make a lot of effort to merge into it, but no one can merge into it like that. They make effort and attain a high status. They become such great souls that they are weighed against platinum. After all, they do make the effort to merge into the brahm element and they therefore receive the fruit of their efforts. However, they cannot receive liberation or liberation-in-life. You children know that this old world is about to go. All of those bombs have not been created just to be stored. You know that those bombs will be used for the destruction of the old world. There are many types of bomb. The Father is now teaching you knowledge and yoga and you will then become the double-crowned princes and princesses, deities. Which status is higher? The Brahmin topknot is at the top. The topknot is the highest of all. The Father has now come to make you children pure from impure. Do you have the intoxication that you are also becoming purifiers, that you are purifying everyone and making them into princes and princesses? If you were to have this intoxication, you would have a lot of happiness. Ask your heart how many you are making similar to yourself. Prajapita Brahma and Jagadamba are similar. They are creating the creation of Brahmins. Only the Father shows you the way to change from shudras into Brahmins. This is not mentioned in any of the scriptures. This is the age of the Gita. There truly was the Mahabharat War. Would only one person have been taught Raj Yoga? This is why people only have Arjuna and Krishna in their intellects. So many of you are studying here. Just see how you are sitting here in an ordinary way. Little children study alpha and beta. You are sitting here and you too are being taught Alpha and beta. Alpha is Baba and beta is your inheritance. The Father says: Remember Me and you will become the masters of the world. Don't perform any devilish acts. Imbibe divine virtues. Check that you don't have any defects in you. "I am without virtue, I have no virtues." There is an ashram called the Nirgun Ashram, but they don't know the meaning of that name. "Nirgun" means "I have no virtues." It is the Father's task to make you virtuous. They have taken the hat of the Father's title for themselves. The Father explains so many things and also gives you directions. Show the contrast between Jagadamba and Lakshmi. Brahma and Saraswati belong to the confluence age, whereas Lakshmi and Narayan belong to the golden age. These pictures are to be used for explaining. Saraswati is the daughter of Brahma. You are studying to change from ordinary humans into deities. You are now Brahmins. Golden-aged deities are also human beings, but they are called deities. It is like an insult to call them human beings and this is why they are called deities or gods and goddesses. If kings and queens were called gods and goddesses, their subjects would then also have to be called that. This is why they are called deities. There is also the picture of the Trimurti. In the golden age, there are very few human beings, whereas in the iron age there are very many human beings. How can this be explained? The picture of the cycle is definitely needed for this. You invite so many people to come to the exhibitions. As yet, no one has invited the Customs Collector. You have to churn in this way. An unlimited and broad intellect is needed for this. You should have regard for the Father. They decorate the horse of Hussein so much. The band on the horse's head is so small, whereas the horse is so big. A soul is just a tiny point, and yet his decoration is so large. This is the throne of the immortal image. They have taken up the aspect of omnipresence from the Gita. The Father says: I am teaching you souls Raj Yoga. Therefore, how could I be omnipresent? How could the Father, the Teacher and the Guru be omnipresent? The Father says: I am your Father and also the Ocean of Knowledge. When you understand this unlimited history and geography, you receive the unlimited kingdom. You also have to imbibe divine virtues. Maya catches hold of you by the nose. When someone's activity becomes dirty, he writes to Baba saying that he has made such a mistake. He says, "I have dirtied my face." Here, you are taught purity. So then, if someone falls, what can the Father do about it? If a child performs dirty actions at home and dirties his face, his father would say, “It would be better if you were dead!” Although the unlimited Father knows that this is in the drama, He too would say this, would He not? After giving these teachings to others, if you yourself fall, you accumulate one thousand-fold punishment. Some say: Maya slapped me. Maya punches you in such a way that you completely lose all your wisdom. The Father continues to explain: Those eyes deceive you a lot. Never perform any sinful acts. Many storms will come because you are on a battlefield. You don’t know what could happen. Maya quickly slaps you. You are now becoming so sensible. It is souls that become sensible; it is souls that were senseless. The Father is now making us sensible. Many are still body conscious. They don’t understand that they are souls. The Father is teaching us souls. I, a soul, listen through these ears. The Father says: Don’t allow your ears to hear anything vicious. The Father is making you into the masters of the world. This is a very high destination. As death comes closer you will be afraid. When someone is about to die, that person is told by his friends and relatives: “Remember God!” or “Remember your guru!” They teach you to remember bodily beings. The Father says: Constantly remember Me alone. This is in the intellects of you children. The Father orders you constantly to remember Him alone. Don’t remember bodily beings. The mother and father are also bodily beings, are they not? I am completely without an image. I am bodiless. I sit in this one and give you knowledge. You are now learning knowledge and yoga. You say that you are studying this knowledge with the Father, the Ocean of Knowledge, in order to become princes and princesses. The Ocean of Knowledge teaches you knowledge and also teaches you Raj Yoga. Achcha.

To the sweetest, beloved, long-last and now-found children, love, remembrance and good morning from the Mother, the Father, BapDada. The spiritual father says namaste to the spiritual children.

Essence for dharna:

1. Become sensible and never be defeated by storms of Maya. Your eyes deceive you and you therefore have to take care of yourself. Don’t allow your ears to hear anything vicious.
2. Ask your heart: How many have I made similar to myself? Have I become a master purifier and am I doing the service of purifying others (making them into princes and princesses)? Do I have any defects in me? To what extent have I imbibed divine virtues?

Blessing: May you become the merciful children of the Merciful Father and show everyone their destination.

When merciful children of the Merciful Father see anyone acting like a beggar, they would feel mercy for that soul, that he should be benefitted and find his destination. Whoever of you comes into contact with such souls, you would definitely give them the Father’s introduction. When someone comes to your home, you would first of all offer them water and if that person were to leave without accepting anything, it would be considered bad. In the same way, whoever comes into connection with you, you must definitely offer them the water of the Father’s introduction, that is, as children of the Bestower, be bestowers and definitely give them something, so that they reach their destination.

Slogan: The easy meaning of “an accurate attitude of disinterest”, is to be as loving as you are detached.
