

14/07/02 Madhuban Avyakt BapDada Om Shanti 18/01/84

18th January The Importance of the Day of Remembrance.

Today, the Father of Madhuban has come to meet the children in Madhuban.

1. Today, from amrit vela, the loving songs of the loving children, the songs of the equal children who were celebrating a meeting, the sound filled with zeal and enthusiasm of the children who are in contact, the love-filled sweet complaints of the children in bondage and the flowers of love of many children reached BapDada. All the elevated promises of powerful thoughts of the children in this land and abroad came very close to BapDada. BapDada is responding to all the children's thoughts of love and powerful thoughts: May you always be loving to BapDada! May you always be powerful and equal! May you always be close with zeal and enthusiasm! May you be a soul who is liberated and free from bondage with the fire of love! Children's days of becoming free from bondage are now almost here. The sound of love from the children's heart will definitely awaken the Kumbhakarna souls. These same souls who create bondages will themselves be tied in the bondage of God's love. BapDada is giving special reassurance to the hearts of the daughters who are in bondage that their auspicious days are now coming.
2. On this special day, the special pearls of love reached BapDada. These pearls of love make you into elevated diamonds.
3. Today is the day of power.
4. Today is the day for the children who are equal to receive the blessing "The same applies to you!" (Tat twam).
5. Today, BapDada wills all powers to the Shakti Army. He gives you will-power. He gives you the power of the will.
6. Today is the day that he became the Father's backbone to bring the children onto the field of the world. The father is unknown and the children are well known.
7. Today is the day that Father Brahma became karmateet.
8. It is the day for the task of world benefit and for world touring to begin.
9. Today is the day for BapDada to be revealed through the mirror of the children.
10. Today is the day to introduce the World Father to the children of the world.
11. Today is the day to inspire all the children to make their stage like the pillar of knowledge and the pillar of power, that is, to make it as unshakeable and immovable as a pillar. Every child is a tower of peace like the father's memorial. That is just a physical

Tower of Peace that has been created. However, all of you children in the living form who stay in remembrance of the Father are pillars of remembrance. In reverence to you children BapDada circles around all of you who are living pillars. Just as on this day you go and stand at the Tower of Peace, so BapDada stands in front of all of you pillars who stay in remembrance.

12. On this day, you especially go to Baba's room. BapDada also speaks to the children about the things of their heart in the room of their heart.
13. You also go to Baba's hut. The hut is the memorial of the lover and the Beloved. The beloved Father specially celebrates a meeting with the children who are the lovers. Therefore, BapDada also continues to hear all the different music of the children who are lovers. Some are playing music with the rhythm of love (sneh), some with the rhythm of power, some with bliss and some with love (prem)... BapDada continues to hear the music of different rhythms. BapDada also continues to tour around with all of you. So, did you understand the special importance of today?
14. Today is not just the day of remembrance, but it is the day of remembrance and thereby power.
15. Today is not the day of separation or disinterest, but it is the coronation day of the responsibility of service.
16. It is the day of receiving the tilak of the awareness of power.
17. It is the day of the thought "The children are at the front and the father is at the back" to take practical form.
18. Today, Father Brahma is happy to see the double-foreign children who are the loving children and are the corporeal form of the Father's thought and his invocation of them, of how you have arrived in front of the Father with love. You are the practical fruit of the invocation by Father Brahma. Seeing such elevated fruit filled with the sweetness (juice) of all powers, Father Brahma is specially congratulating the children and giving them blessings. Constantly continue to progress in an easy way. Just as children sing "It is the Father's wonder" at every step, so BapDada also says, "It is the wonder of the children." You are residents of a faraway land, and have a distant religion and yet you have come so close. Those who are living close by in Abu have become distant. Those who are living on the shores of the Ocean are left thirsty whereas the double-foreign children have become the Ganges of knowledge who quench the thirst of others. It is a wonder of the children. Therefore, BapDada is always pleased with the children who have such fortune of happiness. All of you are doubly happy, are you not? Achcha.

To those who have the elevated thought of constantly being equal; to those who maintain their will-power with the will of all powers; to those who become lovers of the Beloved and play different tunes; to those who constantly remain as unshakeable and immovable as a pillar; to those who constantly progress in an easy way and make everything grow; to those who constantly celebrate a sweet meeting; to all the variety children in this land and abroad, together with a shower of flowers, BapDada's love, remembrance and namaste.

Today, all the loving, special, serviceable children were called to the subtle region. Jagadamba and Didi were also called. Vishwa Kishore and all the specially beloved children who have gone for service were all called to the subtle region, specially to celebrate the day of remembrance. All the specially beloved children who are instruments for double service are companions in God's service at the confluence age and are also companions in the service of your receiving the future kingdom. Therefore, they are double servers, are they not? Such double serviceable children have given special love and remembrance to all you loving and co-operative souls who have come to Madhuban. Today, BapDada is giving a message of love and remembrance on their behalf. Do you understand?

Some of you remember one person and others remember another person. All the advance effort-making children who are instruments for service with the Father, whom you have been remembering in your thoughts, have given all of you love and remembrance in return for your remembrance of them. Pushpa Shanta was also remembering you with love. How many such names can Baba mention? There was a special party for everyone in the subtle region. Didi gave special remembrance to the double-foreigners. Many of you specially remembered Didi today, did you not? Because all of you (double foreigners) only saw Didi. You didn't see Jagadamba or Bhau (Vishwa Kishore). This is why you all specially remembered Didi. In her final moments, she was completely free from any waste thoughts and also free from attachment. She too remembers you, but that is not a remembrance that pulls you. She is a liberated soul. Their gathering is also becoming powerful. They are all very well-known. Achcha.

Some foreign brothers and sisters taking leave from BapDada to go on service:

BapDada tells all of you children that you are not going, but that you are going to come back again and to go and serve and bring a bouquet before the Father. This is why you are not going home, but you are going on service. Always remember that that is not your home, but your service place. You are children of the merciful Father. Therefore, you also bring benefit to unhappy souls. You are not able to sleep peacefully without doing service. You also have dreams of service, do you not? As soon as you open your eyes, you meet Baba and, throughout the day, you only think of the Father and service. Look, BapDada is so proud that it isn't just one child who is serviceable, but all of you children are serviceable. Every child is a world benefactor. Now we shall see who brings a big bouquet. So are you going? Or are you going to come back again? So whose love is greater? The Father's or yours? If the children's love is greater then the children are safe. Great donors, bestowers of blessings, complete and perfect souls are going. Now you have to make many souls wealthy, decorate them and bring them in front of the Father. You are not going, but you will do service and come back having multiplied the number three times. No matter how far away you are going physically, the soul is always with the Father. BapDada always gives His company to co-operative children. Co-operative children always receive co-operation. Achcha.

Question: What is the way for nothing to create any kind of confusion in your mind?

Answer: Constantly keep the Almighty Father as your Companion and your mind will not be confused in any situation, no matter how confusing it may appear to be. Big things will become trivial and even a mountain will become like a mustard seed. Simply remember, "My Baba, my service. Whatever is the Father's is mine. The Father's actions are my actions, the Father's virtues are my virtues." When you become masters of all the Father's property of virtues, sanskars and elevated actions, whatever is the Father's then belongs to you and you will always remain happy. No problem will confuse your mind. Achcha.

Blessing: May you be an embodiment of happiness and with your elevated awareness make your stage one of happiness.

The basis of your stage is your awareness. You simply have to become an embodiment of awareness for, as soon as you have awareness, as your awareness, so will become your stage automatically. Stay in the awareness of happiness and your stage will become one of happiness. Have the awareness of sorrow and your stage will become one of sorrow. Sorrow is going to increase in the world anyway. Everything has to go into the extreme. However, you children of the Ocean of Happiness always remain happy and beyond all sorrow and are constant embodiments of happiness. Therefore, no matter what happens, you always experience pleasure.

Slogan: To save the treasure of time from being wasted is the sign of an intense effort-maker.
