

Dadi Janki - 28th February 2019 – Shantivan

Do I always speak sweetly?

(8,000 souls from Indore Zone have come for service and to celebrate Shiv Jayanti in Baba's home and more continue to arrive every hour).

Om Shanti, Om Shanti, Om Shanti... All sitting here are lighthouses and mighthouses. Do you feel this? When we think about light and might we receive power. I have the fortune to meet all of you for a short time. This is my fortune. I just want to welcome all of you. Baba is wonderful and His children are wonderful. He is your sweet, loving Baba isn't He? We are not alone, we are with wonderful Baba. When we say 'Baba' we should get a divine feeling. The wonderful children are with wonderful Baba. Baba is Bhagyavidata... the Bestower of Fortune and we are the children of the Bestower of Happiness. We have received liberation and liberation in life as an inheritance. Baba is our teacher and our saviour. Personally I feel that Baba's hand is in my hand all the time. I cannot do anything without Him.

So we will celebrate Shiv Jayanti, Baba's birthday but more important than that is to remain aware of who I am and who is mine. I am a soul. The Supreme Soul is mine.

We have said 'om shanti' three times but we also have to remember and imbibe the 5 virtues; purity, truth, patience, humility and sweetness. Do you always speak sweetly? Are your words always sweet? Those who speak sweet words are Baba's right hands. There are also 8 powers; the powers to tolerate, accommodate and pack up, the powers to face, co-operate, judge, discriminate and withdraw. With these powers maya cannot come to us. Baba has told us never to be subservient to maya. If maya comes then we chase her away. Maya cannot come here.

Now is the time to become like Laxmi and Narayan. We have to make that effort now. We will not make that effort in the Golden Age. Let there now be a shine on your face. Keep your face cheerful. Your eyes should be shining. Let everyone see that these are lovely Baba's children.

Om Shanti
