Baba said: I have come to teach you how to die. How do we die?

Have you come here to die, have you come here to do that today? First, three Om shanti's. How should we die in the lane? Ahat is a song. Baba, we have to die, where should I die? In the heart! I have to die here and live here as well. Why is that? We sometimes say to ourselves: If I have to die how should I die and if I have to live how would I like to live?

Raise your hands if you know how to die and how to live. To remain happy and always good, to forget everything of the past, and the things to come in the future, just remain happy. It's coming and be happy with it, I'm happy. I never say, that this is not good; no it is good. Whatever comes in front of you, it's good. Baba, whatever You taught me, that's the only thing in my heart - there's nothing else. In the heart, my mind, my intellect there's absolutely nothing, so there's no question of why and what; it's all good. To say why and what is a waste of time. Not to say why, why, but wah, wah! To say why, why, look at your face, how has it become. Whatever is in your mind, in your thoughts, is revealed in your face very quickly.

Baba, You say Manmanabhav - to always remember Me. This is my body but my mind is with God. OK; your body is here but your mind is with Me. Only remember the One, let no one be remembered in your heart. In the whole class I am looking at each and every one of you, everyone is good. Everything is good, everyone is happy, if you're happy. When you say I'm happy then everything's OK. You understand the significance of everything. Then I don't become upset about anything. I don't say why, why, just wah Baba, wah children, sweet Baba, lovely Baba! When Baba sees us, Baba embraces us with a hug. Baba we die in Your lane and we also live in Your lane and Baba I'm here with You.

How can we live in happiness? Everyone knows me. The moment I came into knowledge, with happiness I said, my Baba, sweet Baba, lovely Baba, thank You Baba.

Q: The moment you came to knowledge you were very happy. You said that when you belong to Baba you always remain happy have you never had any worries about anything?

I don't think and I don't worry. What should I worry about?

Q: 'People are getting old now they think whose going to look after me?' 'So what teachings would you give them?'

Who is concerned, raise your hands? No everyone's carefree. I understand that each soul is the child of God. Who is my Father, who am I and who do I belong to? There is no soul who is worried about that because Baba belongs to me. I say my Baba, sweet Baba, then they have no concerns.

Q: Who's going to hold their hands and make them walk?

My Baba is teaching us so there is no reason to ask why, why. Those who say, 'Wah my Baba!' remain happy, always ok and don't forget anything. I may forget, I may not remember. but don't ever forget Baba, we belong to Baba. What do you call remembrance? Remembrance is, that you don't remember anything else to do with yourself or to do with others. I'm OK, just remain carefree. Baba says: Child, be carefree, remain beyond worries and the Swami will look after you. He is all three Father, Teacher and Satguru; all three are within One, that's the wonder. Really, Baba is amazing. He is our Teacher, He teaches us in such a way, the teachings are very high and the one that teaches us is very wonderful and the Satguru gives us shrimat. So don't come under the influence of manmat and don't come under the influence of others.

Om shanti.
