

Dadi Janki - 1st October 2017 – Gyan Sarovar Question & Answer

Q. I am a one BK out of thousands. Does Baba notice me? How can I be special to Him?

Baba has made me belong to Himself and He pays a lot of attention to me. This is true for each one of us. If you question this it means there is not self confidence. Why wouldn't Baba like you? He is proud of each child. He knows us. He knows that we are His. I belong to Baba and He belongs to me.

Q. Remembrance begets remembrance. How can I draw His remembrance to me?

This is the time of the Confluence Age. It is only at this time that He tells me to belong to Himself. We will have three minutes silence now. Baba will pull us with the thread of love. It doesn't matter how many hundreds of thousands of BK's there are, He remembers me.

Q. If I give sorrow without intention, I didn't have the aim to give sorrow, then who is to blame?

It's my job to have interaction of Godly love with everyone. This is God's family and time is short. I need to have the aim to have good interaction with everyone. If the other person is taking sorrow from what I have done then I should apologise. They may even take sorrow from my tone of voice. Then apologise; ask for forgiveness. Don't be careless in this. A true effort maker will make effort not to give any type of sorrow. My effort should be such that I feel that Baba is paying attention to me.

Q. How can I maintain good wishes and pure feelings for everyone?

To have good wishes for everyone should be natural. It doesn't matter what they are like. I will get the return of my feelings. If I don't have good wishes then what am I thinking? I am responsible for myself. We are Brahma Kumaris we need to pay attention to the pattern of our thoughts. A good quality BK will have good wishes for everyone. To have waste is not cleanliness. Even not to care is not cleanliness. Sit down and check your effort throughout the day. At least have good thoughts for yourself and you will then develop the pattern. This will lead to good thoughts for others. Then I am not wasting time, I am using time in a worthwhile way. When we say 'Om Shanti' we have good feelings. We want everyone to experience that feeling... We create an atmosphere in this way.

Q. Is the final stage to have equal love for everyone? Is it possible? Throughout our 84 births we have karmic accounts. Some of them may be negative. How can I have equal love?

It is definitely possible. There shouldn't be a single moment that we feel we don't care about this one. This type of language is not the sign of a yogi soul. Recognise the time; even in the past something may have happened but past is past. See the time. In order to make good effort I have to make the past the past. There should be this echo within. Don't think of the past and don't have expectations for the future. The time that we are going through now is to make effort for the future. To use time in a worthwhile way is necessary. From my heart I feel that on my right side Baba is with me and in my breath Baba is with me. On my left is my fortune. It is even my fortune to have the feeling that Baba is with me. I want you all to have the experience of Baba's companionship. I am grateful to Baba. This gratitude is necessary as Baba is helping me at every step and I am earning an income. This study is wonderful and I need a lot of love for this study; Baba is speaking this magical Murli especially for me. The Murli doesn't allow any worry to come in. Do you experience this magic in the Murli?

Q. I may not get on with someone; how can I pay attention not to increase my karmic account?

I have seen such practical examples. Even the thought that I am not getting on with this person brings that negativity into the relationship. They are happy to be distant from that person. You are then being influenced by your own nature. I have never let go of good feelings. The heart desires that they will change and I never have the thought that they won't change. Even if they don't seem to be changing, I keep good feelings for others. In fact, when I keep good feelings then I am benefiting. Each day my stage should be such that I am ready to leave the body. In my remembrance is Baba ... That atmosphere spreads across the world. Others should be able to draw that remembrance to themselves.

Q. Is the main aspect of this path love? Did all the ancestor souls surrender because of love? What is the main foundation of knowledge; is it love for God?

God is the Father, Teacher, Satguru, Mother, Friend. If I have those experiences then my life becomes valuable. If you have experienced something once then you want others to experience the say. In the beginning we used to say 'Caution one another and progress'.

Om Shanti
