

Synopsis: Sakar Murli February 06, 2015

1. It is remembered that although the boat of truth may rock, it will never sink. There is only the One who is called the Truth. You are the true ones, the ones who are establishing the new world. There is only one God who is the Creator. In Bombay they call Him Babulnath (Lord of Thorns). He is the One who changes thorns into flowers.
2. The Father only explains to you children, and, in this, Baba keeps the mothers in front. Since the Father came, there is greater regard for women. The Father has increased the praise of mothers. You are the Shiv Shakti Army.
3. There will be the wedding procession of Shiv Baba. Mothers take earthenware lamps to a wedding. That lamp symbolizes Shiv Baba, the Bridegroom, who is the constantly ignited Light. He has now ignited us lights. You light your flame with the power of yoga. When you gain the power of yoga you can control your sense organs, purify the whole world, remove the whole mountain and establish the mountain of gold.
4. Shiv Baba is bodiless and this is why He says: Become bodiless! Remember Me, your Father! You now have to become very soul conscious. This does take effort. Only by remembering the Father can your sins be absolved. You shouldn't think that you are Shiv Baba's child anyway, so why should you therefore remember Him; no. You have to remember Him whilst also considering yourselves to be His students.
5. In a race, if there is the difference of even a quarter of an inch, that one claims a number ahead. This is also a horse race. This is the ashwa race. "Ashwa" means a horse. This chariot is also called a horse.
6. The Father says: The first and main violence is using the sword of lust. This is why lust is said to be your greatest enemy. You have to conquer this. Deities are said to be completely viceless, free from greed, free from attachment and free from vice; they never indulge in vice. Yogis never indulge in vice. Even though you might have some power of knowledge, if you are not a yogi, you fall.

Slogan: With the balance of being a master and a child, put your plans into a practical form.

Points to churn from the slogan:

We, the souls, merged in the Father's eyes, are the light of His eyes, the stars of His eyes and the jewels of His eyes ... we are light in our relationships, connection and stage... we fly and enable others to fly on the wings of zeal, enthusiasm and courage... by being a child sometimes and a master sometimes, we finish our burdens...by leaving our burdens and becoming a point we become light... by converting "mine" to "Yours", by going up and down the ladder of being a child and a master we become double light... By transforming negative to positive, we become world transformers....

By being a child, we remain constantly carefree and by being a master, we have the spiritual intoxication of being a master...in a gathering we are a child, and in making effort we are a master...while learning we are a child and while teaching we are a master...with the Father, we become a child, and with the physical senses, we become a master...while giving advice we are a master, and when things are finalized by the majority, we are a child...by being a child sometimes and a master sometimes, we finish our burdens...by going up and down the ladder of being a child and a master we become double light...

We, the souls, the masters of all the virtues and powers of the Father, are master oceans like the Father...we become full of all virtues, become sixteen celestial degrees full, become completely vice less, and become the most elevated human beings following the highest code of conduct...we become worthy of double praise, become the masters of the two worlds, become worthy of double worship, claim a right to the double inheritance of both liberation and liberation-in-life, claim double crown and become doubly non-violent... we are the beads of the Father's rosary full of all specialties, worthy of praise and worthy of worship, who become the children and the masters of the Master of the World...